Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Skoubo, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Don Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Black, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Russell, Mrs. Zoe Billings, Dewey West and Joe Tatone.

St. Mary's Altar Society held a dinner meeting Tuesday night of last week at the Elks Club in Hermiston. The Rev. Simon Coughlan and Rev. Venantius O'Shea were special guests.

Mrs. Dante Daitoso will be in charge of the church for February.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Daitoso March 7.

The Boardman Garden Club will meet February 21 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Sabin at 8 p.m.

The Home Economics Club of Greenfield Grange met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Wyss, with Mrs. Frank Marlow as co-hostess. Lunch was served at 12:30. Mrs. Rollin Bishop was a guest.

Committees appointed for the February 18 card party were Mrs. Joe Tatone and Mrs. Hayes, the party to be at the Tatone home. For the March 4 party, the committee will be Mrs. Ben Donovan and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer, with the party at the Donovan home.

A dutch auction brought $2.85. Announcement was made that George Flesman from the Social Security office in La Grande would be at the grange hall the evening of February 19 to talk on Medicare at 7:30. He will also be there at 5:30 to sign up anyone 65 or over who has not previously been signed. The public is invited. There will be a potluck dinner at 6:30.

The Mothers Club of Boardman Grade school met Thursday afternoon of last week at the schoolhouse, with Mrs. Harold Baker and Mrs. John Brandt as hostesses. Mrs. Bob Sicard assisted.

For the program hour the first and second grades sang a number of songs.

Mrs. Sicard reported that there would be no kindergarten in Boardman this year, and those who wished could send children to the Irrigon school which started February 14.

The club voted to assist with the community auction sale sponsored by the Boardman Garden Club April 2. Funds are to be used for the city park in the new townsite.

Mrs. Leonard Bedord announced the Medicare meeting at the grange hall February 19 at 7:30 p.m.

A committee was appointed to plan a baked food sale and pick the date. They are Mrs. Vernon Russell, Mrs. Bedord and Mrs. Sicard.

The Busy Bakers 4-H cooking club met last Thursday at the home of their leader, Mrs. Arnold Hoffman. Diane Bush and Helen Cook demonstrated how to make a green salad, and Charmalee Plock and Glenda Moore made biscuits. These were later served to the group.

Mrs. Claud Coats received word that her grandson, Jim Mallory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mallory of Seattle, Wash., was selected as the outstanding boy in the senior class of Mount Rainier High school in Seattle and is to attend the Liberal Arts Seminar at Hood's Canal over the week-end. Each year the University of Washington selects the outstanding boy and girl senior to attend the seminar, which includes lectures, banquets, etc. Young Mallory stayed at the home of his grandmother last summer while employed at a local service station.

Sharon Donovan, student at E.O.C., La Grande, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Donovan. She has as her house guest, Sue Winters, Chenoweth, also a student at E.O.C.

Cafeteria menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Grade school for the week of February 21-25 are as follows: Monday—stew and biscuits, vegetable sticks and fruit; Tuesday—hot dogs, potato chips, corn and cherry crunch; Wednesday—fried chicken, sweet potatoes, green beans and fruit; Thursday—spaghetti, vegetable salad and prune cake; Friday—fish fillet. Bread, butter and milk are served with all meals.

Mrs. Frank Marlow was called to Walla Walla, Wash. last week by the illness of her aunt, Mrs. Ernest A. Zerba, who was taken to the Walla Walla General hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bullard of Nyssa were overnight visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sabin.

Hardman Folk Return to Homes After Absences

By BLANCHE McDANIEL

HARDMAN, RHEA CREEK — Snow blanketed this area most of the past week, with a good wind to keep it stirred up.

Blowing in with the storm last Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Les Robinson who have spent about three months in Ashland. They reported lots of snow in all the mountains, but encountering their worst storm while coming over the Blue Mts. from Spray.

While in the Ashland area they visited with the Mitch Chapmans.

Another light shines brightly since Jess Coates moved back from Heppner. City life didn't appeal to Jess, and we're glad to have him home.

Recent Pendleton visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stevens and family. They spent a night with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brinda.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Graves a week ago were Mr. and Mrs. Walt Hill, Jr., and family of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Don Heliker of Ione, Mrs. John Graves of Hardman and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peck of Upper Rhea Creek.

Two weeks ago Cecil McDaniel accompanied Chuck Phegley of Heppner to the Bend area where they spent a few days felling timber. They spent one night with the Scott Reed family of Bend. Enroute home they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shelton and family of Mitchell.

Dallas Craber recently helped his neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maley, move to Parkland Alberta, Canada, where they have purchased a ranch. Parkland is about 50 miles from Calgary. Dallas was much impressed with that country. He flew home and was met in Pendleton by Mrs. Craber. Due to a dense fog, it was sometime before the plane could land.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinard McDaniel of Heppner have purchased the Roy Knighten house. They haven't moved yet, but do spend some time there. Mrs. Everett Harshman accompanied Mrs. McDaniel to Hardman last Sunday.

College students home for the week-end were Sharon Hams from Pacific Beauty School in Portland, Kenny Wright from Blue Mt. College in Pendleton, accompanied by a guest, Donny Capon from Eastern Oregon college in La Grande.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Steers were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Steers and family of Heppner. An uninvited little black and white animal made his presence known later in the evening.

Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Evelyn Farrens and Mrs. Hannah Anderson spent Saturday in Arlington visiting the Wright's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson and family.

Spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel was their grandson, Tom Mahon from Idaho City, Idaho. Tom also visited with the Cecil McDaniel family on Sunday, and Melvin McDaniel was also a Sunday caller.

Mrs. Albert Wright was in Pendleton last Tuesday and Thursday for medical attention. Also on the sick list is Mrs. Darrell Harris. Percy Cecil was taken to Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner last Wednesday, but according to latest reports, he is improving.

Kenneth Batty of Heppner was a Hardman visitor on Saturday.

Calling Saturday on Merlin Stone were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Stone and Jeannette of Upper Rhea Creek and James Richardson of Heppner. Kenneth Gates and Lee Stone of Heppner called on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Crowdsom and Mrs. Glen Irby were visitors at the Les Robinson home on Sunday.

Council Agrees To Buy Loader

By LaVELLE PARTLOW

IRRIGON—At the February Council meeting, presided over by Mayor Chester Wilson, the council voted to purchase a loader which they were using for street work on a rental basis with option to buy.

Warren McCoy was elected mayor pro-tem, and a letter of resignation from Councilman Harry Snyder was read. Snyder has accepted employment with a construction company and is no longer residing in Irrigon. His replacement has not as yet been announced.

Mayor Wilson gave a report on street work accomplished to date, and announced the Boy Scouts would be participating in the March Council meeting.

The third in a series of grange parties was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Jones Saturday evening. Jones is Master of the Irrigon Grange. Prizes for the evenings high scores were won by Mrs. Sedalia Dexter and Vern Jones. Mrs. Paul Slaughter won the traveling pinocle prize, and consolation prizes went to Mrs. Paul Slaughter and James Dobbins. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith extended an invitation to meet at their home Saturday evening, February 26.

Keith Maddox was honored with a surprise birthday party at his home with his classmates from Riverside High school attending. Following refreshments, the young people danced for recreation.

Rev. David Kenney and his mother, Mrs. John H. Kenney were in charge of services at the Pendleton Bethel Assembly of God Church Sunday evening, in the absence of their pastor. Rev. Kenney provided special music as well as bringing the message for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Miller returned to Irrigon Sunday evening after a 3-month vacation in Phoenix, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase McCoy and his daughter, Mrs. Bill DeGrande, all of Long Beach, Calif., spent the week-end in Irrigon with his mother, Mrs. Ruth McCoy, his brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCoy and Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCoy and families, and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart and family.

Sharon Stewart was honored on her 10th birthday with a party at her home Thursday afternoon, with her 4th grade classmates present. The youngsters played games and after gifts were opened, refreshments of cake, ice cream and punch were served.

Auxiliary Plans Work Day

Ladies Auxiliary of Veterans of World War I, No. 379 will have a workday at the old Irrigon School cafeteria Monday, February 21, at 10:30 a.m. A potluck meal will be served at noon. Anyone wishing to volunteer their services will be welcome to attend to assist in typing afghans for use in Veterans' hospitals.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Skiles, Fred Hoadley, Leslie Smith, Fred Walker and Mr. and Mrs. McCoy. They also visited their Rees Morgan attended a World War I Veterans business meeting and potluck dinner at the Columbia Grange Hall in Hermiston Friday evening.

The "Kooky Kookers" 4-H club had their 11th meeting in the old Irrigon School cafeteria Monday after school. Members attending were Vicky Hobbs, Grace McGinnis, Frances McDonald, Ricki and Tammy Snyder and their leader, Mrs. Wilford Miller. The girls answered roll call with a valentine verse and before the business meeting, they made medium and thick white sauce, and read about various pastes. During the business meeting the girls discussed their baked-food sale which will be February 19 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at both Irrigon grocery stores. Ricki Snyder was elected vice-president of the group.

Mrs. Jack Humbert and son Jeffrey, Coos Bay, spent the week-end in Irrigon visiting her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murtishaw.

Valentine parties were observed in the individual classrooms of A. C. Houghton school Monday, with room mothers from Boardman and Irrigon in charge of the parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart, Sharon and Tom drove to Pendleton Sunday and attended church services at the Church of God. They were joined in Pendleton by his brother, Warren Stewart of La Grande.

Susan McCoy and Terry, students at Eastern Oregon College, spent the week-end in Irrigon visiting their folks, Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCoy and Debbie and Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCoy. They also visited their grandmother, Mrs. Ruth McCoy and an uncle and aunt from Long Beach, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCoy and his daughter, Mrs. Bill DeGrande.

Miss Ann Schmeder, senior at Eastern Oregon College, spent the week-end in St. Helens, Oregon, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Don Oimscheid and family. Oimscheid was formerly principal of A. C. Houghton School.

Larry Paxson, grandson of Mrs. Nora Paxson, Irrigon, has completed his boot camp at the San Diego Naval Training Center, and is now stationed on the U. S. S. Princeton out of Long Beach, Calif.

Jarl Sonteng is convalescing at his home after being confined at the Umatilla hospital.

Miss Vivian Temple has accepted employment as a clerk-typist with the Dale Ranger Station.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hadwick, Salem, spent the week-end visiting her brother-in-law and sister.

WIN 2332

*Manufacturer's suggested retail price for Special V-8, 2-dr. coupe. Price includes Federal Excise Tax and suggested dealer delivery and handling charge.

Would you believe your car's vehicle identification number might be worth $2,332.00 in cash to you? (This odd figure is also the price of a Buick Special*. Pleasant surprise, isn't it?)

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS: Check that car registration of yours. If the first symbols of your vehicle identification number on it match up with one of those listed at the right, you might have won yourself $2,332 cash. No slogan to invent, no puzzle to solve. To find out for sure if you won, just hop down to your nearest Buick dealer's. He's got a list of complete winning numbers posted. (No, you don't have to own a Buick to have a winning number.) If your complete vehicle identification number appears on his list—you're in the money.
