

Church Ceremony Unites Local Couple

Exchange of wedding vows on Saturday, February 12, joined in marriage Miss Cheryl Bellenbrock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bellenbrock, and Stuart Gribble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Gribble, all of Heppner.

Father Chandler Jackson of Hermiston performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of many relatives and friends in All Saints Episcopal church at 2:00 p.m.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. C. C. Carmichael, organist.

Standards holding pink stock and French heather provided floral decorations at the altar. White satin pew bows marked the bridal aisle.

Escorted by her father, the bride was lovely in a white gown of Chantilly lace and chiffon, fashioned with scalloped neckline, fitted bodice with self bow in front, and full bouffant skirt. Her elbow length illusion veil was held in place by a circlet covered with seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white stephanotis and carnations, centered with a large white orchid, and entwined with green ferns. She carried it on top a small white Bible belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Grace Hughes.

Miss Sharon Hams served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Patricia Van Winkle, Barbara Gribble and Sandy McDonald.

The attendants were gowned in identically styled street-length dresses of pink velvet, fashioned in empire style with deeper pink velvet ribbon at the high waistline. They carried pink and white Colonial carnation nosegays with pink streamers. Headpieces of pink net extended from a circlet of pink velvet.

Little Sally Sumner, dressed in white and carrying a miniature pink and white nosegay, served as flower girl. Ring bearer was Mark Piper, cousin of the bride.

Serving as acolytes at the altar were Doug and David Gunderson.

Douglas Gribble attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Larry Heath, Rodney Flug and Barney Neistadt. All wore matching white formal jackets and black bow ties.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bellenbrock chose a turquoise suit with off-white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Gribble, mother of the groom, was attired in a two-piece ensemble of pink dress and matching coat, with pink accessories. She also wore an orchid corsage.

The couple greeted their wedding guests at a reception in the parish hall. Chosen wedding colors of pink and white were carried out in floral decorations and on the beautifully decorated wedding cake. Base of the large four-tiered cake was made of four heart-shaped cakes edged in pink, with pink frosting roses, and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

MR. AND MRS. STUART GRIBBLE (Cheryl Bellenbrock)

After the honor couple had cut their first piece, the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Ellis Pettyjohn and Mrs. Matt Hughes, aunts of the bride. Pouring punch was Mrs. W. H. Mills of Salem, aunt of the groom, and pouring coffee was Mrs. Roy Quackenbush, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Wayne Ball, cousin of the bride, attended the gift table, and the guest book was passed by Miss Mary Cox.

Hostesses for the reception were Mrs. Elwyn Hughes, chairman; Mrs. Riley Munkers and Mrs. Creston Robinson.

For a going-away ensemble, the new Mrs. Gribble changed to a two-piece green and white suit, with black accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Following a wedding trip to Seaside, the newlyweds are making their home in Heppner where the groom is engaged in the business of S & D Pelleting Company with his brother, Doug.

After graduating from Heppner High school in 1965, the bride enrolled at Beau Monde College of Beauty in Portland for training. Mr. Gribble, a graduate of Heppner High in 1961, received two years of college training at Eastern Oregon College, La Grande, and enrolled two years at Blue Mountain College, Pendleton. Among those attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Vassar and Mrs. W. H. Mills, all of Salem, relatives of the groom.
