

Ione Library Adds Books, Periodicals for Public Use

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—A number of interesting new books have been added to the shelves of the Ione Public Library.

Five new beginner books are: "I Can Read It All By Myself" containing controlled vocabulary; "A Fly Went By" by McClinlock; "Are You My Mother?" by Eastman; "Fox in Socks" by Dr. Seuss; and "Ten Apples Up On Top" by LeSieg.

The much discussed book "In Cold Blood" by Truman Capote is available now. This book is the culmination of the author's long-standing desire to make a contribution toward the establishment of a serious new literary form: the non-fiction novel. It is the story of the lives and deaths of the four members of the Clutter farm family and of the two men hanged for the crime in Kansas. It has already been hailed as a masterpiece.

New periodicals for loan are "Parent's Magazine", "Bird's Magazine" and a teen-age publication, "Ingenuitee".

Mrs. Mary Swanson left on Sunday with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo McMillan, for their home in Salem, where she will visit for a while.

Earl McKinney and Mrs. Cecil Thorne of Hermiston, and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Sr., Mrs. Garry Tullis, Mrs. Lee Palmer, Mrs. Keith Rea, Mrs. Harold Sherer, Mrs. Earl McCabe, and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom of Ione.

The A.L.C.W. of Valby met at the home of Mrs. Henry Baker on Tuesday for the regular Bible study and business meeting. Mrs. Ben Anderson was co-hostess.

Church Sate Two Programs

Two events of much interest will be held this coming week at the Ione United Church of Christ. A family night potluck dinner will be held on Sunday evening, March 13, sponsored by the Board of Deaconesses in the social rooms at the church. Miss Ruth Bailey, director of Christian Education for the Oregon Conference, will be the guest speaker and will show slides of her trip around the world. On Tuesday, March 15, Dr. Howard Christopherson, superintendent of McCord Zulu hospital in Durban, South Africa, will speak at the church at 8:00 p.m. All members of the community are invited to come to these two outstanding programs.

Elmer Holtz was taken to St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton last Thursday and underwent an emergency appendectomy in the early evening.

Mrs. Edna Yarnall, a patient at Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner, visited at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor over the week-end.

Death Takes Mrs. Beckner

Friends and relatives here have received word of the death on Tuesday of Mrs. Mary Beckner, 74, at a Portland hospital, where she had been confined for about two weeks. Funeral services will be in Portland with graveside services to be held at Olney Cemetery in Pendleton on Friday at 2:00 p.m. Mrs. Beckner is the widow of the late Lee Beckner, a well-known rancher in the Ione area for many years. They made their home at the ranch now farmed by Walter Jacobs and later moved to Ione in the home owned by Rod Murray. The last few years Mrs. Beckner has resided in Portland with her niece, Mrs. Minnie Pruss. She also is survived by Harry and Gene Norboyle, nephews. She and Mr. Beckner raised her nephews and nieces, having no children of their own.

Mrs. Arvilla Swanson was taken to Pioneer Memorial hospital on Tuesday. She has been ill for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay returned on Friday from several days spent in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heimburger spent the week-end visiting relatives at Odessa, Wash.

Home Economics Club will meet for an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen on Friday, March 18. Wil-lows Grange will have its regular meeting at the hall on Sunday, March 20, with a potluck dinner at noon. A film by Pacific Northwest Bell on safety will be shown in the afternoon.

At the regular meeting of Ione Rainbow Assembly No. 89 Tuesday evening the members decided to sponsor a spring vacation dance. It will be held at the Legion Hall on March 17 from 8:00 to 12:00 p.m. with the Dantes furnishing the music. Tickets may be purchased from any Rainbow girl at $1.00 a single person and $1.50 per couple. The Rainbow Girls plan to attend the talk by Dr. Christopherson at the United Church of Christ following a brief meeting on March 15.

Shower Honors Betrothed Pair

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carlson were hosts for a bridal shower and party at their home Sunday evening honoring Beth Flack and Rudy Bergstrom, who will be married at Valby Lutheran church on Friday, March 11. Pinochle was played by the guests after which the young couple opened the lovely gifts. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hall, Rollo Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews, Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Palmer, Miss Marilyn Bergstrom, Gerald Bergstrom, Gerald Peterson, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peterson. Winning high prizes were Mrs. Donald Peterson and Gerald Bergstrom; Beth Flack won 300 pinochle; and Roland Bergstrom and Mrs. Robinson won low prizes.

Women's Fellowship met in the social rooms of the United Church of Christ last Thursday for the February meeting. Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr. presided at the business meeting. She announced that Mrs. Pete Cannon would be chairman of the spring clothing drive and that Mrs. Keith Rea would be chairman of the Easter Breakfast sponsored annually by this group. Mrs. Norman Nelson led in the devotions and discussion program. Members finished rolling 25 pounds of bandages to be sent to leprosy hospitals. Mrs. Robert Jepsen and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom served refreshments at the close of the program.

Project Cooperation Appreciated

The landscaping of the grounds at the Christian Education Building of the United Church of Christ was completed last week, when members and friends of the Ione Garden Club met there to receive a cash award made to the club by the Richfield Oil Co., who was represented by Floyd Larue of Condon. Appreciation of the club in winning the city beautification award was expressed by Mrs. F. T. Martin, District Chairman of Blue Mountain District No. 10 and a member of the tree planting committee. Other members of her committee were Mrs. Phill Emert, Mrs. Ernest Christopherson Jr. and Mrs. Elmer Griffith. Other speakers were Mrs. Charles Jones, President of the Garden Club, James Barnett, mayor of Ione, and Ray Boyce, representing the trustees of the church. Ed Morgan of Condon photographed the brief proceedings and Bill Johnson of Lexington also took pictures.

The Bank of Eastern Oregon also contributed to the purchase of the shrubs and trees, which consisted of three thornless locust, three copper roses, two forsythia, and about 30 evergreen shrubs, including Irish Juniper, pfitzers and pyramidal arbor vitae, and 20 mhuigo pine. The pine were planted along the alley.

The work of preparing the grounds was done by the trustees and about a dozen other volunteer laborers plus several Garden Club members. Members and friends of the church have volunteered to do the maintenance work. Schedules will be prepared soon. Ladies of the church served cake and coffee to those who did the planting.

Pfc. Frank Wiley of the U. S. Marine Corps is spending a short leave here visiting his mother, Mrs. Tom Sweeney and family. He has been stationed with the Marines in North Carolina, but will go from here to Camp Pendleton, Calif. and from there expects to be shipped with the Second Marine Division to UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY offered by Camp Easter Seal, Oregon's only summer camp exclusively designed for crippled children and young adults, is dramatized by an empty wheelchair on the beach, left there by a young occupant who is enjoying a swim. Camp is located on Ten Mile lake in Coos County.

Camp Easter Seal To Be Attended By 150 Campers

Camp Easter Seal will open its doors to 150 or more young campers this summer, beginning in mid-June.

But these will be different than most youngsters seeking fun at a summer camp. They will arrive in wheelchairs, wearing heavy leg braces or using crutches.

Camp Easter Seal is Oregon's only summer camp designed specially for physically handicapped youngsters and young adults. The campers will range in age from 7 years to 19 years and over.

There will be 5 sessions of 10 days each and the sessions will be divided into age groups that are compatible. The first session will be for boys and girls from 7 to 10 years, to be followed by sessions for those 11 and 12, 13 and 14, 15 through 18 and 19 years and older.

Persons interested in the camp are asked to contact the Oregon Society for Crippled Children and Adults, 1135 S. D. Yamhill St., Portland.

Da Nang, Vietnam. Friends here have received word from Rev. and Mrs. Rod MacKenzie announcing the birth of their fourth child, Scott Thomas arrived on February 17, weighing 8 lb. 8 oz. The family, which now resides at Carmichael, Calif., has three other children, Kathryn 6, Andrew 4, and Holly, 2.

Jerry Stefani, who has been attending high school in Pendleton, has transferred to Heppner High for the remainder of the year.

Arthur Bergstrom and daughter of Portland were here on Sunday to visit his mother, Mrs. Carl Bergstrom, who is a patient in the Pioneer Memorial hospital.

Pvt. Alan Coppock Completes Course

Marine Private Alan R. Coppock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Coppock of Lexington, has completed individual combat training at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The four-week course included over 200 hours of instruction under simulated combat conditions, covering squad tactics, guerilla warfare, day and night combat, patrolling, and the use of infantry weapons.

Sgt. John Botts In Army Exercise

Army Sgt. John O. Botts, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Botts, Ione, took part in Exercise WINTER ARROW, a nine-day training maneuver of the 8th Infantry Division in Germany, which ended February 15.

Sergeant Botts, a tank commander in the 58th Engineer Company, entered the Army in November, 1960. He was last assigned at Fort Knox, Ky. Botts, who attended Ione High School, was engaged in farming before entering the Army.

FAIRLANE GT HARDTOP

And booming sales prove it! More and more people are switching to Ford every day...and no wonder. Fords do things other cars can't. You can have a radio in any car, but Ford offers a Stereo-Sonic Tape Player option that turns your car into a concert hall with music of your choice. Most station wagons have a one-way tailgate, but Ford's Magic Doorgate swings out like a door for people and down like a tailgate for cargo. Most cars offer a choice between manual and automatic shift, but Fairlane's GT/A Sport Shift works both ways. Visit your Ford Dealer and test-drive a '66 from Ford.
