

'Tourist Trapper' Kits are Offered

Pacific Northwest Bell is offering free "Tourist Trapper" kits to Oregonians once again this year. New in the kits this season is a record entitled, "Holiday in Oregon." It includes "testimonials" from such well-known entertainment personalities as Bing Crosby, Mel Blanc and Jane Powell. The kits also include attractive tourist maps of Oregon with the latest information on the state's outdoor recreational opportunities.

The kits are suitable for mailing and can be obtained by using the coupon in the PNB advertisement in this paper.

Barnett Wins 1st In Class C Of State Bowling

Dave Barnett has won first place in class C in a state bowling tournament at Century Lanes, Portland, with a total score of 646. His showing topped other good results turned in by other Heppnerites in the tournament, which covered a total of five weeks but was concluded over the week-end.

Barnett went to Portland with the Morgan Elevator team, composed of Larry Rietmann, Wayne Ball, Oliver Devin, Don Eubanks, Barnett, and Gene Doherty as sub. They were there both Saturday and Sunday. Barnett had scores of 216, 194, and 236 in compiling his total which topped the 569 entrants in the class.

He received a large trophy and will get prize money of some $150 to $200.

Rietmann placed in class D

Flower Arrangements Studied By 4-H Club

The Ruralettes and Little Sisters 4-H clubs met March 17. Nonda Clark and Carol Rawlins, and their leader, Mrs. Jane Rawlins, gave a demonstration on arranging flowers. After that we each made some centerpieces.

We had a sack lunch and then Donna George showed us some film strips on nourishment and things to serve at a dinner. We met at the home of Mrs. Ruth McCabe.

Flu Passes Peak; Visiting Restored

With the heavy number of cases of influenza in the past, Pioneer Memorial hospital has restored normal visiting hours. Will O'Hara, hospital administrator, said Wednesday.

Cooperation of the public greatly helped preventing spread of the illness, he said. He thanked all those who were so good about observing the restrictions on visiting.

No cases in the hospital at the present are for influenza, he said. Report from the State Board of Health early this week showed 26 cases of flu in the county as compared with 50 on their report a week earlier.

Wrangler Play Days To Begin on Sunday

Wrangler club will start Spring Play Days on Sunday, April 3, with a full day of activities planned, according to Roice Fulleton, club president.

A no-host potluck lunch will be served at the Wrangler club house at 12:00 noon, with the following members serving on the committee: Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fetsch, Mr. and Mrs. Gail McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Webb and Mr. and Mrs. Fulleton.

Competitive events for points will be open to members of all ages. There is no admission and the public is invited to come and watch those participating.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Patients admitted to Pioneer Memorial hospital during the past week, and still receiving medical care, are the following: Gus Owens, Fossil; May Ekstrom, Ione, and Thomas Shine, Condon.

Those who received medical care, and were later dismissed, included Terri Harrison, Heppner; Shirley Kimball, Kinzua, and Donna Papineau, Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Hughes, Heppner, are announcing the birth of their first child, a son, born Tuesday, March 29. His birth weight was 6 lb., 14 oz. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Willard O'Hara, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Hughes, all of Heppner. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray O'Hara of Weston, Mr. and Mrs. Will Vernon of Lakeview and Mrs. N. D. Bailey, Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Shelton of Kinzua are parents of their first child, a son, born Wednesday, March 30. He has been named Ronald Keith and at birth weighed 7 lb., 12 oz. Grandparents are Mrs. Thelma Pace and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Shelton, all of Salem, Missouri. Great-grandmothers are Mrs. Julia Edwards and Mrs. Nora Freeman, also of Salem, Missouri.

Illness Claims 48-Year Resident

Memorial services were held today (Thursday) for Esther Alfreda Cecilia Bergstrom, 71, wife of Carl F. Bergstrom of Ione, and resident there for the past 48 years. Mrs. Bergstrom died Tuesday, March 29, in Pioneer Memorial hospital following a brief illness.

The Rev. Kenneth Robinson officiated at services today at the Ione United Church of Christ, and will also reside at services Friday at 1 p.m. at Pearson Mortuary chapel in Portland. Interment will follow at Rose City cemetery, Portland.

The daughter of Albin and Betty Carlson Anderson, she was born February 10, 1895, at Ash-tabula, Ohio. Her home was in Portland at the time of her marriage to Carl F. Bergstrom on January 9, 1918. They have been a prominent ranching family in the Ione area since coming here following their marriage. She was a member of Valley Lutheran church; of Locust Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and of the Ione Garden club.

Besides her husband, survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Stefani of Ione; four sons, Arthur of Portland, Norman of Winston, Roland of Ione, and Walter of San Jose, Calif.; 14 grandchildren, and one sister, Agnes Janin of Portland. Contributions in her memory are being accepted in the Valley Church Memorial Fund.

Irrigon Church Plans Holy Week Services

IRRIGON—Community Baptist church of Irrigon will observe Holy Week in the following services: A Maundy Thursday Candlelight Communion Service, including a description of the "Seder Table," which will commence at 7:30 p.m. Also a special Good Friday service at 7:30 p.m. with colored scenes in connection with Christ, leading up to Calvary, and also special music. Palm Sunday will be observed with the fourth sermon in a series of the Miracles of Calvary: The Miracle of the Opened Graves.

Easter Sunday will commence with a Sunrise Service on the athletic field of the A. C. Houghton school at 6:00 a.m., in cooperation with the Assembly of God church. Rev. Herbert Vaughan of the Baptist Church will be the speaker. Special music will be provided by both churches. There will be a breakfast at the Baptist Church following the Sunrise Service.

The Easter morning service will have special music by the choir and individuals. The sermon will be "The Resurrection Miracles," the last in the series. At 7:30 p.m. Sunday evening, the Easter story will be shown in colored slides.

Farewell Potluck Honors Beaches

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barak of Hermiston entertained at a farewell Monday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beach of Hermiston and formerly of Lexington.

A potluck supper was enjoyed by the group with the host preparing barbecued salmon for the guests. Beach, past state president of the Farm Bureau, has accepted a position with a firm in Phoenix, Ariz., and they will be leaving soon.

Guests at the farewell were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson of Ione, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Peck, also of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Lott of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hatfield of Madras and Mrs. Bill Peck of Portland, daughter of the Baraks.

Superintendent Due At Nazarene Church

The Rev. Raymond C. Kratzer, district superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, will be at the Heppner Church of the Nazarene Sunday night, April 3, to speak at the evening service, beginning at 7:30, the Rev. Don McCarty, pastor, announces.

The Rev. Kratzer is superintendent of the Northwest district. The public is invited to the service.

On the evening of Easter Sunday, April 10, films taken of the Holy Land by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crum on their recent trip there will be shown. The public is also invited to this service.

Guests during the spring vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pieper were their daughter, Mrs. Earl (Naomi) Hall and son Larry of Portland, their grandchildren, Ricky and Lisa Pieper and friend Kathy Leonard of Eugene. Mrs. Hall's visit was extended when she came down with the flu and spent several days in the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Dick also visited his grandparents and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Groves, while he was on spring vacation from Portland State college.
