AL BOSCHEE

Church Announces Special Services For Holy Week

Special Holy Week services, under the theme, "Were You There?" have been announced by the Lexington and Heppner Christian churches to start Sunday, April 3.

Starting with Palm Sunday, the services will continue through Easter Sunday. All services will start at 7:30 and will conclude at 8:30 p.m.

Combined choirs of the Heppner and Lexington churches will present the Easter cantata, "The Gospel Song of Easter," on Palm Sunday and on Easter Sunday. The Palm Sunday cantata will be at the Heppner church and the Easter Sunday cantata will be at Lexington.

Al Boschee, pastor will speak on the following schedule: Monday at Lexington, "The Bypassers"; Tuesday at Heppner, "Too Calloused to Care"; Wednesday at Lexington, "Two Different Views"; Thursday at Heppner at a candlelight communion service; Friday at Lexington, "The Centurion".

Easter morning services will be at 9 a.m. at Heppner and at 11 at Lexington with the pastor speaking on the topic, "He is Risen," in each service.

The two choirs of the churches will participate during the week in the special services.

RADIANT SIGNS that glow in the dark—full variety of miscellaneous signs for all purposes, 25c. Now on hand at Gazette-Times office.

Methodist Men To Hold Breakfast

Methodist Men will hold a breakfast meeting in the church parlors Friday, April 1, at 7 a.m., the Rev. Melvin Dixon, pastor, states.

The Rev. Wilmer Briggs, pastor of the Arlington Methodist church, will be the speaker.

"Good fellowship and a good menu are planned," said the Rev. Dixon.

Service Set for Sunday

Father Chandler Jackson of Hermiston will be at All Saints' Episcopal church on Sunday, April 3, for an 8 a.m. service, Bob Abrams of the church announces.

Holy communion will be observed. Easter services for the church are also in the planning stage, he said, and announcement will be made later on them.
