

Delegates to Attend State Homemakers Convention at OSU

Donna Potter, Jill Schmidt, and Kay Daggert of the Heppner High School chapter, Future Homemakers of America, left with their advisor, Miss Virginia Buch, this afternoon, (Thursday) for Corvallis, where they will participate in the 21st annual meeting of the organization at Oregon State University.

Donna has been nominated for the position of Editor of the Bulletin. Election for the state officers will be held during the convention.

Jill Schmidt is the incoming president of the Heppner chapter, while Kay Daggert is one of the newly-elected vice-presidents.

Oregon has 111 FHA chapters with a total state membership of 3,833. Approximately 400 delegates and their chapter advisers are expected to convene at Corvallis for the meeting.

"Building Your Future" has been selected as the theme for the two-day session.

Tom Lawson McCall, secretary of state and candidate for governor, and Dr. John Furbay of New York City, lecture-author and director of air world education for TWA, will speak to the girls.

Heppner has 24 girls in its chapter. Diane Schaffitz has been president this year.

Donna will compete for the important position of Bulletin editor with Sharon Mizuta, Ontario.

Mrs. Hughes Takes Extended Trip South To Visit Relatives

Attending the wedding of a granddaughter was one of the highlights of the recent trip of Mrs. Olive Hughes, who enjoyed an extended bus trip to Southern California and Sacramento during the past two months.

On her return trip, Mrs. Hughes was a guest at the wedding of Miss Julia Lee Marshall and Kenneth Earl Roberts at Sweet Home on March 17. The bride is the daughter of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Marshall of Sweet Home, and is a third grade teacher in the schools there. Her father is vice-principal of the high school. The groom attends Oregon State University, where he is president of the senior class, and will enter Harvard University next year for graduate work in law. Also attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hughes and four children. Mrs. Hughes assisted with the pouring at the wedding reception.

Mrs. Hughes also visited a son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hughes in Sweet Home, where he is head basketball coach in the high school. In his first year as head coach, he was named fourth runner-up among coaches of the year in the state.

In California, Mrs. Hughes visited five sisters, one brother, one son, and several friends. She was a guest of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Hughes in Los Angeles. Among friends visited was Mrs. Ruth Sanders of Maywood, Calif., former resident here and owner of the Hotel Heppner. As a charter member of the Soroptimist club here, she extends her best regards to Soroptimist friends and others.

Mrs. Hughes was met in The Dalles Monday by Mrs. Tom Hughes on her return trip home.

Glaney Lou Turner enjoyed several days of skiing activities at Sun Valley, Idaho, in company with other students from the University of Oregon during last week's spring vacation. She attended several of the national ski meet events held there between French, Canadian and American teams.

Who Wants More Light?

Owls don't. People do—about 50% more light than they did 10 years ago.

Now, ask yourself these questions . . . have your lighting needs kept pace with other modern improvements . . . are you and your family still struggling along in shadows and glares inside . . . and in the pitch black outside?

No need to be in the dark any longer. Light conditioning in your home makes it safe, pleasant and enhances the decor.

Indoors or out, good, even lighting means good living. More fun and freedom are yours.

Lighting makes entertaining a pleasure—outdoor work safer and more convenient. Yard lighting gives you extra working hours at times when you need it. Garden and patio lighting beautify your home and give you extra leisure hours.

Your rural electric system can help you plan all your present lighting needs. Why not call today for professional advice.
