

Church Women Hear Of Island Missions

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — Annual meeting of Mid-Columbia Women's Fellowship of the United Church of Christ was held at the Milton-Freewater Federated church on Monday, March 28. Mrs. G. V. Gallaway of The Dalles, president of the association, presided.

Featured speaker was Mrs. Harold Eymann, Dean of Christian College at Midsayap, Mindanao, Philippine Islands. Her lecture on the development of the educational system there was illustrated by colored slides of the various phases of the work. She stressed the help of the Church World Service throughout the missionary work, in which she and her husband, Rev. Eymann have been engaged for the last ten years.

Other speakers at the meeting were Dr. A. J. Buttrey, Portland, Oregon Conference minister, and Mrs. Brian Tichenor of Wilsonville, state president of the Women's Fellowship.

In keeping with the Lenten season the film "This Sustaining Bread" was shown, followed by communion service.

Those attending from the lone area were Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., president of the local Fellowship, Mrs. E. M. Baker, Mrs. Ella Burgoyne, Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, Mrs. Milton Morgan, and Mrs. Omar Rietmann.

Members of the lone High school band under the direction of their instructor, Archie Hedman, spent last Friday and Saturday in Heppner attending a band clinic. The study meetings and practice sessions culminated in a very fine concert on Saturday evening. Six schools participated.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Miller and family of Athena spent the week-end here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepsen and family.

Mrs. Adon Hamlett and Charlene left on Tuesday for Portland on a business trip. They plan to bring home Mrs. Mary Swanson, who has been visiting relatives in Salem.

Mrs. A. G. Swanson returned from Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner this week after spending several days there for observation.

Mr. and Mrs. George Griffith left Monday for Portland to take their daughter, Charlotte, back to school.

Mr. and Mrs. David Rietmann and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bristow drove to Walla Walla on Saturday, where the ladies attended a bridal shower for their niece, Linda Swanson.

Street Lights Added
The Main Street of lone is brighter this week due to the installation of new 250-watt mercury lights. The five lights removed were placed further up Main Street. Installation work was done by Columbia Basin Electric Co-op crews and there will be an $18.00 a month fee for the maintenance and light. Later it is hoped by the City Council to replace all street lights in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan left on Tuesday morning for a business trip to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bishop and daughter Barbara spent several days in Portland last week. Mr. Bishop is on his vacation from the Union Pacific Depot. Barbara visited with Lynn and Sherry Benson while in the city.

Mrs. Heliker's Brother Dies

Mrs. E. C. Heliker received word on Tuesday of the death of her brother at the Veteran's Hospital in Portland. George Edward Zink was born near Philomath on April 2, 1891, to Alfred M. and Irene McKinley Zink. He spent most of his school days attending Lexington schools, but later finished at lone. He farmed north of lone until leaving the county.

Funeral services will be held at Jacobsen's Family Funeral Service Parlor, 8747 S. E. Foster Road in Portland, on Friday at 11:00 a.m. Interment will be in the Veteran's Cemetery. He is survived by two daughters
