

Mothers Club Elects Officers for Year

Officers for the coming year were elected at the April meeting of the Heppner Mothers club Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Bob Henry.

Chosen to serve as president for the coming year was Mrs. Herman Winter; Mrs. Jack Kreiger as vice-president; Mrs. Loren Lucore, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Bob Jones and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt, program co-chairmen.

During the business meeting, discussion was held on the project of purchasing a heat lamp for use at the hospital. A committee was appointed to make further investigation before making a selection.

Date for the annual spring dinner, with husbands as guests, was set for Friday, May 6. Committees were named to plan for a Hawaiian Luau, to be held at the home of Mrs. Anita Stockard. Installation of officers and further plans for the dinner will be made at the next regular meeting, Monday, May 3, at the home of Mrs. Lucore.

Refreshments were served during the social hour by the hostesses, Mrs. Stockard and Mrs. Henry.

Masons to Attend York Rite Sessions

Royal Arch Masons, Heppner Chapter 26, will be represented at the annual grand session of York Rite Masons of Oregon in Medford the week of April 10 by two delegates, Judge Paul Jones and Harold Becket. They will be accompanied by their wives, who will be entertained by wives of the grand officers, including a tour to the pioneer town of Jacksonville.

Many distinguished York Rite Masons and special guests from the Western States, California and Northwestern States are expected for the sessions on Sunday evening and Monday of Knights Templar of Oregon; Tuesday sessions of Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Oregon; Wednesday's 105th annual convocation of Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, and Thursday's installation of new officers of Grand Chapter.

To Observe Week

National Library Week will be observed next week at the Heppner City Library, according to Mrs. Blanche Brown, librarian. During this week, all overdue books may be returned without payment of book fee charges. Free bookmarkers and other free supplies have been ordered by Mrs. Brown to be given out to those who use the library facilities during the week.

Meeting Postponed

Regular meeting of the Rhea Creek Grange has been postponed from Friday evening, because of conflict with Good Friday, to a later date. Announcement will be made later on a definite meeting time.
