Two Are Honored At Joint Party

By BLANCHE McDANIEL

HRADMAN, RHEA CREEK — Two ladies were pleasantly surprised last Tuesday with a joint birthday party held at the Darold Hams home. The honorees were Miss Alta Stevens and Mrs. Barton Clark.

Enjoying the afternoon of visiting with the two ladies were Rose Hams, LaVelle Hame, Eva Wright, Ethel Robinson, Zelma McDaniel, Doris Ball, Helen Stevens and Jo Jean, Edith Musgrave of Monument, Ima McDaniel of Heppner and Blanche McDaniel and Dixie.

Sam Steers underwent minor surgery in Pendleton last Wednesday. Mrs. Steers brought him home Friday and he is getting along fine.

Mrs. Maxine Mahon and boys of Elgin spent the Easter week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel. Last Tuesday the McDaniels drove to Monument for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howell.

Mr. and Mrs. Huston Lesley are vacationing at Grayland, Wash. They left last Thursday, and Elsa Leathers from Heppner is taking care of the store.

Spending Easter with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens were her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Curley DeMoss and Janice from Moro.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davis and family from Genesee, Idaho, spent from Tuesday until Friday of last week at the Cecil McDaniel home. On Sunday the McDaniels enjoyed a community potluck dinner at the Lonerock annex. An egg hunt was enjoyed by the small fry.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Huston and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rawlins and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, accompanied by Mrs. Evelyn Farrans of Heppner, went to Prineville Sunday to attend the wedding of Mrs. Wright's nephew, Jerry Owens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Owens.

Mrs. Harold Wright spent one day last week in Monument visiting with her mother, Mrs. Wave Jackson, and taking her to John Day for a medical check-up. Sunday dinner guests of the Harold Wrights were Mrs. Mary Wright of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hunt and family of Lexington, and Kenny Wright, home from college.
