STEAKS ARE a specialty of Fred Ott at the Wagon Wheel. He is shown here at work in the clean kitchen of the cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Ott came to Heppner from Burns in 1956. They have two children, a son, Oakley Ott of Nyssa and a daughter, Mrs. Rhoda Ann Breeding, Heppner.

BOTH FRED and Cecile Ott are excellent cooks. She has been working in restaurants for 10 years, and they have owned restaurants in Heppner for a total of five years. For a time they operated Fred's Cafe up the street from the Wagon Wheel.

JUST COMPLETED is this new banquet room at the Wagon Wheel. Featuring mahogany paneling, acoustical ceiling tile, and air conditioning, the room can accommodate 60 persons with an adjoining room providing for overflow through a double door. Mrs. Bertha Ayers, an employee of the cafe, stands amidst tables. Chamber of Commerce meets here every Monday noon. Ron Leonnig, owner of the Wagon Wheel lounge and the entire building, provided for the new room at a considerable investment.
