Student Elections Slated April 28

Student body elections will be held April 28 at Heppner High, announces Tim Tullis, president. Petitions for the offices, which must be signed by 25 students, were due April 13. Tentative plans were that the student council would then divide candidates as equally as possible to form two parties.

Primary elections would then be held, with students choosing which party to support and voting for the candidates who would appear on the party ticket. This election is scheduled for next Monday.

Winning candidates may then select a campaign manager if they wish, and conduct their campaigns. Speeches by candidates from both parties will be given at a student body meeting on April 27. At this time candidates for the varsity rally squad will also try out.

At the April 28 election, conducted by the present student body officers, officers for the coming year will be selected by ballot.

They traveled to Superior, Montana, to visit Blevins' parents over the Easter week-end, leaving the care of their station in Ukiah in the hands of Blevins' brother.
