

Royal Arch Masons Place Jones in Office; Becket New Deputy

Judge Paul Jones and Harold Becket were named to offices in the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons at its 105th annual convocation last week in Medford. The two men were delegates of Heppner Chapter 26, Royal Arch Masons.

Jones was elected and installed grand captain of the host, fourth highest in elective offices, and if he continues in advancement during the coming three years, will assume the chair of grand high priest.

Becket was appointed district deputy to the grand high priest for District 2, which includes the towns of Heppner, Pendleton and The Dalles. The office will require visits through the year to district chapters.

Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Becket accompanied their husbands to the convention. They were entertained by wives of the grand officers, enjoying trips around the area, including the Jacksonville Museum, and a sight-seeing trip into northern California. They also attended the Masonic banquet with their husbands Thursday evening.

Tea and Style Show Planned at Condon

St. John's Altar Society, Condon, will present a style show and tea on Saturday, April 30, of McCall's patterns. It will be at 2 p.m. in St. John's parish hall. Miss Elizabeth Stenke of New York City, educational representative for McCall's patterns will be in Condon to direct and narrate the style show.

St. John's Altar Society extends a cordial invitation to all women to attend this style show. It isn't often that a small town has the advantage of obtaining the services of a leader in styles, patterns and fabrics, the committee in charge points out.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Soward, son and daughter-in-law of the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Soward, came from Boise, Idaho, with their daughter Saturday to visit their parents here. They returned Sunday. The elder Mrs. Soward suffered a case of flu this week and was off work from Farley Motor Company Tuesday and Wednesday.

Morrow Chapter, OEA Installs New Officers At Dinner Meeting

Officers for the coming year for Morrow County Chapter of the Oregon Education Association were installed at the dinner meeting of the organization Monday evening at the Heppner High school multipurpose room.

New officers include Michael Tolar of A. C. Houghton school, president; Clifford Willis a m. s. Heppner, vice president; Mrs. Gladys Hobbs, A. C. Houghton, secretary, and Miss Rebecca Case, lone, treasurer. Supt. David Potter presided over the installation.

In a short business meeting, with past president Jack Loyd presiding, the group voted to contribute $20 to each of the three high schools in the county to help pay tuition for three prospective teachers to attend a teaching orientation workshop at Eastern Oregon College of Education this summer.

Dinner was served at 6:00 p.m. to the approximately 60 Morrow county teachers and administrators who attended. The meal was prepared by members of the Heppner PTA organizations, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Roice Fulleton. Girls of Future Homemakers club assisted in the serving.

Well received was the musical entertainment of a grade school chorus of sixth, seventh and eighth grade students, under the direction of Mrs. Ola Mae Groshens. A musical variety of "Sing Along" songs from the era of the 1920's, complete with girls dressed in Charleston styles, and boys in vests, ties and straw hats, proved popular with the audience. The group will be heard again in a Music Week concert the first week in May.

Chapin Home Again

Ambrose Chapin, who has been hospitalized through the past week, came home from Pioneer Memorial hospital Tuesday. He apparently suffered a light stroke in the night of April 11. Mrs. Chapin said that he is getting along fine and that he has no speech or physical impairment. Coming to visit the Chapins over the weekend were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Slyter, and three sons, Mike, Jeff, and Doug of Camas.
