

Public Will Greet Father Beard Sunday At Church Reception

Final plans for the public reception on Sunday, May 8, which will honor Father Raymond H. Beard, were made at the Tuesday evening meeting of St. Patrick's Altar Society.

The reception will be the first of two special events planned for the coming week, in observance of a Silver Sacramental Jubilee for Father Beard's 25th anniversary of service in the priesthood.

Doors of the St. Patrick's Parish hall will be opened to his many friends in the surrounding communities who wish to come and extend personal greetings to Father Beard. Reception hours will be from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. Children are urged to come for the reception with their family groups.

An invitational banquet will be served Tuesday evening, May 10, at 7:00 p.m. in the parish hall, following a five o'clock mass of thanksgiving. Many out-of-town guests are expected to participate, including Bishop Francis P. Leipzig of Baker.

Committees working on dinner arrangements include the Lexington Altar Society, with Mrs. Bill Doherty and Mrs. Rosella Lindsay as chairmen of hot foods; Heppner Altar Society, with Mrs. Wallace Wolff, dessert chairman, and Mrs. Randy Lott, decoration chairman; and the Ione Altar Society will take care of after-dinner arrangements, with Mr. and Mrs. Gar Swanson as chairmen.

Nearly all parish members of the Heppner and Ione churches expect to have some part in the two coming events.

Officers Installed For Mothers Club; Plan Coming Events

New officers of the Heppner Mothers Club were installed Monday evening, when the group met for its last regular meeting until the fall months. Mrs. Loren Lucore entertained the club at her home, with Mrs. Rod Murray as co-hostess.

With Mrs. Everett Struckmeier, past president, as installing officer, the following new officers were obligated: Mrs. Herman Winter, president; Mrs. Jack Kreiger, vice-president, and Mrs. Lucore, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Bob Jones and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt will serve as program co-chairmen.

Discussion was held on plans for the Hawaiian luau, to be held Friday evening, May 6, at the home of Mrs. Anita Stockard, with husbands as guests. Summer projects were discussed, and chairmen appointed for the Sidewalk Bazaar sale, county fair booth and rodeo parade float. A special planning meeting was set for August 8.

Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour at the close of the meeting.

To Honor Townsends

25th wedding anniversary. The event will be held at the Willows Grange Hall on Sunday, May 15, between the hours of two and five in the afternoon.

Hostesses will be their two daughters, Mrs. George Porschy and Sue Townsend of Portland, assisted by Mrs. Lewis Halvorson and Mrs. Harvey Smith of Ione. They request that no gifts be given.

Former Residents United in Marriage

An April 21 ceremony united in marriage two former Morrow county residents, Lelia B. Perry, now of Walla Walla, and Ralph W. Bennett, recently of Prineville. The couple exchanged vows before Chaplain Lawrence E. Cousins in the chapel at the Veterans' hospital in Walla Walla, where the bride was employed for many years.

The couple's attendants were Miss A. Louise Larson and Mrs. Oma J. Cox. Mrs. Cox, niece of the new Mrs. Bennett, moved to Walla Walla last year to be near her aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett are lifelong acquaintances, having grown up together in Lonerock, and have many mutual acquaintances in and around Lonerock, Condon and Heppner communities. They will make their home in Walla Walla.
