

MONUMENT

By MARTHA MATTESON

MONUMENT—A large crowd of Monument people drove to John Day on Saturday, April 30 to attend the Boy Scout Circus, held in the Grant County Fairgrounds Pavilion.

Cub and Boy Scout troops and packs were present from Monument, John Day, Long Creek, Bates, Dayville, Prairie City and Mount Vernon, all members of Strawberry District of the Blue Mountain Council.

Theme of the program was "Strengthen America's Heritage." Assistant Scout Executive Dave Macfadden of Walla Walla, Wn., was among the leaders present.

The Baker band led the parade of scouts as they marched from the Catholic church to the pavilion, starting at 6:30 p.m. After the opening ceremonies, each troop and pack put on a pageant, each related to a historical event. Skill show action booths were open continuously throughout the evening.

The MMM club will hold a Food and Fancy Work Sale on Saturday, May 7, at the Boyer Cash Store.

BEAUTIFUL RURAL scene and beautiful weather greeted touring Portland Eighth Graders when they arrived Friday on the third annual visit of the city youngsters to Morrow county. Part of the group, including hosts, is shown in this photo in front of the Cecil store. Tour Director Gene Winters, near sound truck at left, is greeting the visitors and outlining the plan for the 3-day visit. (G-T Photo)

LOCAL CHILDREN and visiting eighth graders from Portland lost no time in getting acquainted when the three bused of youngsters kept their rendezvous at Cecil just after 11 a.m. Friday at the start of the annual Eighth Grade tour. This was the scene as the buses unloaded. (G-T Photo)

D. O. NELSON had much of interest to tell visiting children, their hosts and members of the Eighth Grade tour committee when the group on the annual tour arrived to look over his ranch operation north of Lexington Saturday morning. Delwin is shown here explaining equipment used on the ranch. (G-T Photo)

LARRY LINDSAY gave youngsters an excellent insight into Morrow county cattle operation when he explained the methods used of growing and feeding cattle on the Lindsay ranch Saturday afternoon. His back is to the camera here as he talks to the group with some of the cattle in the background. Gail McCarty (right foreground) sits beside him. Facing camera (center) is Robert Kroodma, principal of Kellogg School, Portland, who was a chaperone and was highly impressed with the tour. To the right of Kroodma is Everett Holstein, Ione principal. (G-T Photo)

Boschee Speaks of Youth Needs To Ione Women's Fellowship

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Rev. Al Boschee, minister of the Heppner and Lexington Christian churches and recently appointed chairman of the Youth Activities Committee in Morrow county by the Heppner-Morrow County Chamber of Commerce, was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Women's Fellowship at the church last Thursday afternoon.

The speaker discussed the need for a youth center for young people in Morrow county and of the problems facing youth in this area. He also discussed the delinquency of some boys and girls.

Election of officers was held, with Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., re-elected president. Mrs. F. T. Martin will serve as vice president and Mrs. Keith Rea as secretary-treasurer. Study chairmen are Mrs. Robert Rietmann and Mrs. E. M. Baker.

Plans were made for packing the clothes collected from the annual spring clothing drive on May 23. These will be shipped to Church World Service.

Mrs. Omar Rietmann served refreshments following the meeting.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crawford the past week-end were their son, Verne Crawford, Umatilla County Pomona Deputy, and Mrs. Crawford of Helix; and Mrs. Ethel Hoffman of Pendleton, state Flora, who was accompanied by her husband, Mr. Huffman. They all attended Morrow County Pomona Grange at the Willows Grange Hall on Saturday, when State Grange Master Allen P. Wheeler, was present.

Mrs. Ida Coleman had the misfortune to fall off a ladder, while painting at her home this week, and broke one bone in her left arm and cracked the other bone. Mrs. Joe Yocom is helping at the school cafeteria during Mrs. Coleman's absence.

Lindsay Kincaid, who has been a patient at Pendleton Community hospital for five weeks following a serious farm accident, underwent more skin grafting in the area behind his left knee on Friday. This place was severely injured and the first graft was not successful.

Leslie Madden and a friend, Keith Taylor of Portland spent the week-end here visiting his mother, Mrs. E. J. Akers and his father, Eldon Madden.

Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid was honored on her birthday with a coffee hour last Wednesday morning. Mrs. Ralph Kincaid was hostess with Mrs. Gene Rietmann assisting her. Guests present were Mrs. Pete Cannon, Mrs. Bill Rietmann, Mrs. Louis Carlson, Mrs. Robert Jepsen, Mrs. Robert Rietmann, Mrs. Darrell Padberg and Mrs. Paul Lewis.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Crowell this week-end were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Markel and family of Tacoma. Mr. Markel returned on Sunday, but the family will remain a few days longer.

Mrs. E. M. Baker was recently chosen president of the Mid-Columbia Women's Fellowship Association of the United Church of Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bergstrom and family had as their guests this week-end Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bergstrom and eight children of Portland. The Bergstrom men are cousins.

A planning meeting of the United Church of Christ annual auction was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan on Monday evening.

J. D. Becker of New York was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hershall Townsend for several days recently. He departed on Tuesday for his home. Sue Townsend was also visiting at the parental home this last week-end.

Mrs. Mary Swanson entered St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton on Tuesday for treatment. Her daughter, Mrs. Adon Hamlett, took her over.

Mr. and Mrs. Gil Lujan and family of Richland were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, while visiting friends here. Joe Halvorsen was home for the week-end bringing with him a friend, Terry Aiken of Moro. Both are students at Columbia Basin College at Pasco.

Horse Lost in Track Accident

Mrs. John Eubanks came home Sunday after spending sometime in Portland with her daughter, Sandra. The Eubanks lost one of their finest horses recently at Portland Meadows. Sandra was riding "Sonny", while exercising another horse, when a piece of iron pipe, scraped to the surface by men working on the track, flew up and shattered the bones in the horse's leg. It was such a serious break that he had to be destroyed. Mrs. Vela Eubanks of Madras is visiting her granddaughter, Sandra, in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom accompanied by Mrs. Charles O'Connor, worthy matron of Locust Chapter No. 119, attended a reception in Condon on Tuesday night at the Eastern Star honoring Mrs. Walter Jaeger, past worthy grand matron and member of the appeals and grievances committee of the Grand Chapter.

Mrs. Gordon Meyers and Mrs. Robert Adams were guests of honor at a surprise stork shower on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Jerry Martin. Other guests were Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, Miss Rita Kerr, Mrs. Wayne Ball, Mrs. James Marvin, and Mrs. Eugene Decker. Games were enjoyed after which refreshments were served by the hostess.
