

Items of Business Discussed at Grange Meeting in Ione

Willows Grange met May 21 at the hall with Master Lee Palmer presiding. Berl Akers explained the rulings of Grange halls, any accidents which may occur there, and the manner of settlements for such accidents.

The Rodeo dance for Willows Grange will be held Saturday evening, July 23, at the Fair Pavilion in Heppner, honoring Princess Susan Lindstrom.

A scholarship for $25.00 was voted for a 4-H member. During the lecture hour Mrs. Richard Kinzer was introduced as having recently passed the necessary examination and become an American citizen. Mrs. Kinzer came from Germany.

A memorial service was held for deceased members for the past year: Rev. W. W. Head, Mrs. Ida Esteb and George Elder. White candles and white rhododendrons were placed on the altar.

Two films, "Is the Modern Woman Modern?" and one on "Automation" were shown.

The 4th degree pin, given at each regular meeting, was drawn by Mrs. Berl Akers. Home Economics Club of Willows Grange met on Friday, May 20, at the home of Mrs. Harold Sherer, with Mrs. Lee Palmer presiding during the business meeting. Mrs. C. C. Jones, HEC chairman for Dist. No. 6, was a guest. Mrs. Jones is also chairman for Morrow County HEC and lecturer of Lexington Grange. A traveling food sale is planned by the members for July 2.

Garden Club Hears End of Year Review, To Install June 7

The May meeting of the Ione Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Bob Jones in Heppner, with Mrs. Gene Pierce as co-hostess.

During the business session, Mrs. Omar Rietmann was elected as alternate delegate to the State Garden Club Convention in Klamath Falls, replacing Mrs. C. C. Jones, president, who cannot attend. A second delegate, Mrs. F. T. Martin, will also represent the club.

Program of the afternoon was devoted to a review of the monthly programs and club projects during the past year by Mrs. Jones. In appreciation of work of her officers during the past year, token gifts were presented to them. Included were Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, past vice president; Mrs. Phill Ernest, past secretary; and Mrs. Omar Rietmann, past treasurer.

An invitation was read from the Stanfield Civic Club asking members to attend its annual spring iris show on Saturday, June 4, at West Stanfield Grade school. The public is invited to come between 2:30 and 7:30 p.m., no admission is charged, but the group will host a silver tea.

New slate of officers who will serve for the coming year include Mrs. Jones, re-elected president; Mrs. Garry Tullis, vice president; Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, secretary; and Mrs. Bill Rawlins, treasurer.

A guest of the afternoon was Mrs. Harold Cohn. Special meeting of the yearbook committee was announced, to outline the program for the coming year.

Next regular meeting of the club will be Tuesday, June 7, at the mountain cabin of Mrs. Vida Heliker. Officers will be installed, and program of the afternoon will be on the study of herbs. A potluck lunch will be served at noon, with members asked to bring prepared dishes, which feature the herb seasonings.

The afternoon closed with the serving of refreshments by the hostesses.

Mrs. Sadie Parrish On Trip to Arizona

Mrs. Sadie Parrish is on vacation from her duties as Morrow county clerk, having left Saturday on a trip to Arizona.

She went to Portland by auto to take a plane from there to Tucson, Ariz., where she was to meet Mrs. Leta Thomas. The two expect to drive back to Heppner next week.

To Enroll at OSU

The name of Joan Stockard, daughter of Mrs. Anita Stockard, was inadvertently omitted in last week's high school story listing those of this year's graduates who are planning to attend Oregon State University the coming year. Her plans are to prepare for elementary teaching, and has been accepted as a resident of the Azalea House.

Tom Glass was in Heppner over the Memorial Day week-end from his home near Portland. Tom is now an instructor in the Federal Economic Opportunity program and travels over the western United States. In addition, he is working on a Masters Degree in history at Portland State University.

Mrs. Jessie Griffin, convalescing from a broken pelvis in Pioneer Memorial hospital, had as visitors, her two sisters, Gladys Walker of Portland and Lillian Cook of Oregon City. They were in Heppner from Friday until Sunday of Memorial Day week-end and stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gray. Other visitors were Mrs. Griffin's brother, Walter Mead from Hermiston, and her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Tilton.

SOCIETY

MR. AND MRS. MARC ALLAN MCGOWAN, (Janice Eileen Ely) (Photo by Laura)

Couple Home in Pendleton After Hermiston Wedding

BOARDMAN—Miss Janice Eileen Ely became the bride of Marc Allan McGowan in a 3 p.m. double-ring ceremony at the West Park Baptist church in Hermiston May 7. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely of Boardman, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern McGowan of Pilot Rock. The candlelight service was performed by Rev. Ed Peters, pastor of the church.

Scott McGowan of Salem, brother of the groom, sang "One Hand, One Heart" and "The Lord's Prayer," the latter as the couple knelt at the altar, accompanied by Mrs. Don Watson, who also played the nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of peau de soie, fashioned with lace top with long sleeves and a vee in back. The full skirt, ended with a chapel train. The veil of illusion net was shoulder length, and was held in place by a lace head piece. She carried a cascade bouquet of a white orchid and yellow and white stephanotis.

Mrs. Bill Getz of Hood River was matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Newell Vaught of Kennewick, Wash., sister of the bride, and Mrs. Gary Long of Pendleton. All wore identical gowns of green sheer rayon georgette misted over acetate taffeta, in Empire style with brief jackets in acetate and nylon lace. They carried colonial bouquets of gold Rapture roses and yellow carnations, and wore hats of green net.

Ladd McGowan of Grass Valley, brother of the groom, was best man, and ushers were Scott McGowan of Salem, and Ladd Horn of Pendleton. Candelights were Renee Ely of Seattle, Wash., and Janet Lilly of La Grande, nieces of the bride. Joyce Lilly of La Grande, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and Greg McGowan, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony, a reception attended by about 200 guests was held at the CRC building in Hermiston. The four-tiered cake, topped by bridal figurines, centered the serving table. After the first traditional piece was cut by the couple, it was cut and served by Mrs. Allen Ely of Seattle, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Ladd McGowan, of Grass Valley, sister-in-law of the groom. Mrs. Eldon Lilly of La Grande, sister of the bride, served the punch, and Mrs. Scott McGowan of Salem, sister-in-law of the groom, and Kathrine Lemley, grandmother of the groom, poured the coffee. Mrs. Ladd Horn and Mrs. James Farring were in charge of the gift table, and Gail and Kelly Vaught of Kennewick, Wash., nieces of the bride, had the guest book. In charge of the reception were Mrs. Clyde Carriek of Stanfield, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Charles Anderson of Pendleton, Mrs. John Summers of Hermiston, and Shirley Earwood of Boardman.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ely wore a printed dress in whipped cream with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a green knit suit with matching shoes and accessories. Both had orchid corsages.

The bride is a graduate of Riverside High school, attended Judson College in Portland and Blue Mountain Community college, and is presently employed at the Goodyear Service Store in Pendleton.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Pilot Rock High school, attended the University of Oregon, and is employed by Georgia Pacific at Pilot Rock.

After a wedding trip to Idaho points the couple is living in Pendleton.

Guests attending the wedding came from Seattle and Kennewick, Wash., Ontario, Hood River, Gresham, La Grande, Salem, Pendleton, Ione, Portland and Boardman.

Relatives spending the Memorial Day week-end with Mrs. Marjorie Worden were Mr. and Mrs. John Gerhardt of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Delos Knighten, Jeri, Sue and Greg, of Pendleton.

Mrs. Ora Evans of Portland was among the Memorial Day week-end visitors who were here with friends and relatives. She visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Sherman, and left this week for Long Beach, Wn., to spend some time.

Blue Mountain Graduates Get Degrees Sunday

Charles F. Luce, administrator of Bonneville Power Administration, will address the graduating class of Blue Mountain Community college at commencement exercises at 1:00 p.m. Sunday, June 5, at Vert Auditorium.

Eighty graduates will receive degrees or certificates at the ceremony. Forty will be awarded associate degrees marking completion of two-year college programs, and 40 will receive one-year certificates. An additional 14 practical nursing students, who will graduate by September, will be recognized at the services.

Diplomas will be presented by BMCC President Wallace W. McCrae and Oren Allison, chairman of the board of directors.

Students from this area who will receive diplomas include James Russell Miller, Boardman, associate of arts in liberal arts; Sheryl Maureen Witherpoon, Irigon, associate of science in medical-dental secretarial; and Vonnie Joan Browning, Kinzua, certificate in general office.

Scouts to Sponsor Pancake Feed

June 11 is the date set for the annual Pancake Dinner given by the boys of Scout Troop 661. The benefit dinner will be held in St. Patrick's Parish hall from 6 to 8 p.m. according to "Moose" Stevens, scoutmaster. Prices for the dinner are: family ticket, $3.00, adults, $1.00, high school students, 75c, children, 50c.

The scouts serve the dinner and help their parents with the planning and cooking in order to raise enough money to pay one-half the camp expenses for the scouts who are going to camp. They carry money by the rest of their camp money by working, and whatever money is left over will be used for troop equipment. Camping week for the boys of Troop 661 is June 12 to June 19. They will be at Camp Wallowa at Wallowa Lake.

Dick Ruhl to Get Master's Degree

Dick Ruhl, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Ruhl of Lexington, is scheduled to receive his master's degree in physical education at Oregon State University's commencement exercises in Corvallis Sunday.

Ruhl, a football star at OSU prior to his graduation in 1965, has been coaching and teaching at Henley during the past year.

Mrs. Ruhl is the former Suzy McQuarrie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie. Dick's parents and the McQuarries plan to go to Corvallis for the commencement.

Mrs. Glenn Smith's Stepfather Dies

L. G. (Jake) Murray, stepfather of Mrs. Glenn Smith of Heppner, died unexpectedly at his home in Union on Saturday, May 21. Death was from a heart attack. He was 69.

Murray was born and raised in the Grande Ronde valley. Funeral services were Wednesday, May 25, in La Grande.

Mrs. Allan Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wilson had as houseguests over the Memorial Day week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McDaid of Tigard; Mr. and Mrs. Hank Robertson of Toledo and Mrs. Dick Sperry of Portland. Other out-of-town guests on Monday were Mrs. M. J. Fitzpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Rick Lundell, Mike and Dick of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Mill Smith of Pilot Rock, Margaret McDevitt of Salem and Jerry Davis of Portland.

A week-end guest of Mrs. Clara Gertson was a former Heppner resident, Mrs. Albert Adkins of Cottage Grove, who was also here for the Adkins family reunion. Mrs. Adkins was a neighbor to Mrs. Gertson when living in the family home, now occupied by the Bill Collins family.

Jeffrey Anhorn, grandson of Mrs. Clara Gertson, will be among those graduating with an engineering degree from Oregon State University on Sunday, June 5. Mrs. Gertson left Wednesday to visit her daughter and family at Central Point and attend OSU commencement and Jeffrey's marriage on June 12. The couple will live in New Jersey where Jeffrey is to be employed by Bell Telephone Co.

DANCE

To Live Music
Friday And
Saturday Night

FEATURING
DUSTY TRIBBLE
Wagon Wheel

HEPPNER
Phone 676-8997

SCHOOL BELLS

By DAVID R. POTTER
Morrow County
School Superintendent

This is graduation week, and the last week of classes for the schools of Morrow county. Last Sunday night the baccalaureate exercises were held at each of the high schools. I was privileged to attend the Heppner High school. The Rev. Al Boschee gave a wonderful message to the graduating seniors and to the patrons in attendance.

Barratt Chosen Athletic Director

Jim Barratt, who was reared in Heppner, has been chosen athletic director at Oregon State University, succeeding the late Amory T. (Slats) Gill. It was announced by OSU officials Tuesday.

Barratt has been acting athletic director since Gill's death. The former Heppner man, son of J. C. (Garnet) Barratt, now of Mesa, Ariz., has been a member of the OSU athletic department since 1951, much of that time as athletic business manager. He graduated from OSU in 1950.

Stroeber Home

Herman Stroeber returned to his home Friday after 32 days in Pioneer Memorial hospital following a heart attack. Mrs. Stroeber, who earlier was hospitalized for more than a month, says that her husband is showing good improvement, although somewhat weak from his confinement.

Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Huber, David, Gary and Lucille were in Gaston to attend the graduation of their daughter, Marianne, from Laurelwood Academy. Marianne plans to enroll for the summer term in Walla Walla College, Walla Walla, where she will attend school part time and work part time.

Mrs. Cal Sumner has been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Lovgren, after attending her granddaughter's graduation in Arlington. She plans to stay here for the Heppner graduation events.

Having an enjoyable week-end with many old friends here was A. W. Gammell of Veneta who was brought back by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Gammell, also of Veneta, for the visit. They arrived Saturday and also went to Moro to visit friends before returning to Heppner on Memorial Day. The three left Tuesday for Veneta, which is near Eugene. The elder Mr. Gammell was reared in Morrow county and lived in Lexington and Heppner before leaving 20 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Groshens spent Monday in Portland where they were called by the serious illness of her grandfather, Mr. Darnielle.

Did You GOOF And Forget Your GRAD?

Here's A Surefire Solution That
Will Take Just A Minute—
Even A Phone Call Will Do It—

A GIFT CERTIFICATE From Gardner's

Available In Any Amount!

FINE FOR COLLEGE MEN, TOO!

A GARDNER GIFT CERTIFICATE OPENS THE DOOR
TO A WONDERLAND OF FINE GIFTS FOR YOUR
YOUNG MAN IN THE CLASS OF 1966

Gardner's Men's Wear

"The Store of Personal Service"

Nine Biology Students Go On Field Trip

Nine Biology II students went on a field trip to the coast May 20-23. The trip was offered to continue the study and application of ecology presented in Biology I. It also offered the students an introduction to oceanography and helped them develop their taxonomic skills in marine zoology, ornithology, and entomology.

Leaving Friday afternoon, they went to Cape Lookout Park near the Tillamook area, stopping on the way to observe the differences in the biomes and to watch birds. After staying overnight there, they went on to Florence, collecting marine life, bird listing and studying the effects of adverse weather conditions upon biomes. From there they made their way home through Eugene and Madras, collecting insects and stopping at the reindeer farm near Madras.

Those participating in this trip were Mr. Horn, Nancy Doherty, Marilee Jacobs, Russ Kilkeny, Geraldine Lamonie, Marsha Lovgren, Tim Loyd, Shirley Norton, John Rawlins, Lou Ella Rourke and Miss Virginia Buch.

HHS Newspaper Receives Award

The Hehisch was awarded a plaque for honorable mention by the Oregon Tuberculosis and Health Association for its participation in the 29th annual School Press Project.

The Hehisch was one of the nine Oregon schools to receive the honorable mention. Nine others received achievement awards, the highest honor.

The Hehisch entry appeared in the Dec. 9, 1965 issue of the paper and was edited by Marty Boyajian.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Standerter and family of Prineville and Charles Simons of Kewa, Wn., were visitors over Memorial week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Leathers, Sr. They came Friday and left Monday. Mrs. Standerter was Mrs. Owen Leathers, Jr., prior to his death several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gonty, son Doug, and Mrs. Alice McCabe and son Allan spent the holiday week-end camping at Prineville reservoir, leaving Saturday and returning Tuesday. They had an enjoyable trip, but encountered some rain, and Ed ruefully admitted that he didn't catch any fish.

Mrs. Carey (Alice) Hastings and Mrs. Max (Grace) Buschke were in Portland Saturday through Monday attending buyers' market for their store, Mil-Ladies Apparel. While there they stayed with Marie Johnson, Alice's cousin, Saturday night. Mrs. Johnson came to Heppner for a visit Sunday, staying with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Saling.