Pre-wedding Shower Honors Miss Buch

Miss Virginia Buch was guest of honor at a bridal shower party Wednesday evening, June 1, when teachers and friends of the community gathered at the home of Mrs. C. E. McQuarrie. Co-hostesses with Mrs. McQuarrie were Mrs. Conley Lanham and Mrs. Everett Struckmeier.

The coming marriage of Miss Buch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Buch of Ritzville, Wn., and Home Economics teacher in Heppner High school, to Ron Reid, son of Mrs. Ruth Reid of Heppner, is being planned Friday, June 24, at the First Christian church in Heppner.

Many lovely and useful gifts were presented the future bride. Assisting the honor guest with the opening of her gifts was Mrs. Mary Holtz, lone. Informal piano selections were played during the evening by Mrs. Ola Mae Groshears.

At the close of the evening refreshments of angel food cake with strawberries and whipped cream were served the 17 guests attending.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER BECKET were honored on their 58th anniversary at a buffet luncheon in their home Friday, June 3. They are shown with their anniversary cake.

Church Women Host Card Party Saturday

The annual June card party which was to be held by the Episcopal Church Women on June 4, will now be held Saturday, June 11, at 1 p.m. in the Parrish Hall. The date was changed in order that it would not conflict with the date of the auction in Ione.

Salad and dessert will be served by a committee under Mrs. James Farley; card playing will be arranged by Mrs. James Driscoll and Mrs. Forrest Burkenbine. Admission is $1.25 and the public is invited.

Jill Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt, will attend an Officers Conference of the Luther League at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Wn., starting June 16. She is treasurer of Blue Mountain Conference of the Luther League.

Luncheon Marks 58th Anniversary Of Walter Becket

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Becket and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Buschke served a buffet luncheon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Becket at the latter's home Friday, June 3. The luncheon was on the occasion of the Becket's 58th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Becket were married in Portland on June 3, 1908. He has lived in Heppner since he was three years of age, and his mother and father came west on a wagon train to settle first at Weston. Mrs. Becket came to Heppner from Wisconsin. Mr. Becket's parents later moved to Portland to retire, and the wedding of the Walter Becket's was performed there.

A specially-made German chocolate pink champagne cake marked, "Happy Anniversary, 58 Years," was a center of interest at the luncheon.

Present at the luncheon, besides the honored couple, were Mr. and Mrs. Laurance Becket, Bonny and Molly Becket, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Buschke, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buschke and Bryon, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Buschke, Brett and Tanna.

Laurance Becket and Mrs. Claude Buschke are son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Becket, and Ronny and Molly Becket and Robert and Jerry Buschke are grandchildren. Bryon Buschke and Brett and Tanna Buschke are great grandchildren.

Nolan-Bell Wedding In Pendleton Sunday

The marriage of Miss Phyllis Carol Nolan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Nolan of Lexington, will become the bride of James E. Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bell of Tacoma, Wn., on Sunday evening, June 12, at the First Christian Church on North Main street in Pendleton.

Vows will be exchanged at a 7:30 p.m. ceremony, with guests invited to a wedding reception following the ceremony in the church social rooms.

The couple and parents invite all friends and relatives in the area to the wedding and reception.

Miss Anita Ullman Bride of Wm. Gazda In Eastern Ceremony

Miss Anita Jo Ann Ullman, daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Al Ullman of Baker, became the bride of I. William Gazda in a ceremony performed Saturday, June 4, in the Resurrection Lutheran church in Arlington, Va.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cashimer J. Gazda of Lewiston, N.Y. He is a doctoral candidate in mechanical engineering at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N.Y., and holds Bachelor of Science and Masters Degrees from that institution.

Dr. Melvin S. Lange of Arlington officiated at the wedding ceremony.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was gowned in white silk organza designed with a scooped neckline and short sleeves. The empire style gown was styled with applique of Swiss Guipure lace at the neckline and sleeves. A deep hem of Guipure lace enhanced the slim skirt, which extended into a full chapel length train. Her shoulder length veil of imported silk illusion fell gracefully from a headpiece of matching Swiss Guipure lace. She carried a floral bouquet of white gardenias and baby's breath.

Attending as matron of honor was Mrs. Janis G. Smith. She wore a floor length dress of soft pink silk organza designed with a sabrina neckline and short sleeves. A muted floral pattern at the waistline and down the back of the dress connected the A-line silhouette skirt.

Bridesmaids, Linda Holdredge, Margretta Smyth, Roberta Jerman and Judith Harron, were dressed identically to the matron of honor.

Serving the groom as best man was Paul Borowski, and wedding guests were ushered by Kenneth Albert Ullman, brother of the bride, Doug Koop, Kenneth Werneberg, and Wayne Conrad Ullman, brother of the bride, as junior usher.

Wedding music was played by Miss Emma Lou Diemer, organist.

Following the impressive ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Gazda greeted guests at a reception in the parish hall of the church, where they shared the first slice of their 3-tiered wedding cake.

Serving refreshments were Mrs. A. Sidney Herlong, Jr., wife of Congressman Herlong of Florida; Mrs. Frank Karsten, wife of Congressman Boren of Oklahoma; Mrs. Jim Wright, wife of Congressman Wright of Texas; Mrs. J. T. Rutherford, wife of Congressman Rutherford of Texas and Mrs. Wesley Van Buren, wife of Congressman Van Buren of North Carolina.

For the honeymoon trip, the bride chose a light blue linen dress with matching coat and white accessories.

Mrs. Gazda attended Baker High school, and received her Bachelor of Arts Degree last June from Wells College in Aurora, N.Y. Following the honeymoon trip, the newlyweds will reside in Troy, N.Y.
