

Ione Legion Auxiliary Installs New Officers

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Installation of new officers was held at the Legion Auxiliary meeting last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Earl McCabe as installing officer.

Mrs. Eldon Tucker was installed as president; Mrs. Walter Roberts, vice-president, and Mrs. Herfan Blethell, secretary-treasurer. Serving as chaplain for the coming year will be Mrs. Edith Nicholson; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. John Eubanks; and historian, Mrs. Cleo Drake. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. McCabe and Mrs. Eubanks.

Several members of the Ione Legion and Auxiliary went to Hermiston to attend the District 6 Caucus meeting, when a district commander and a district president were elected.

Those going over to the Sunday meeting were Mrs. Eldon Tucker, Mrs. John Eubanks, Mrs. Edith Nicholson, Mrs. Earl McCabe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doherty, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Blethell. Some of the group called on Mrs. Cecil Thorne and Mrs. Gottfried Hermann, former members of the auxiliary, who now live in Hermiston.

Ione Topic Club met at the home of Mrs. R. L. Brewster on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Victor Rietmann gave a history of Ione and members enjoyed looking at many old photographs of the city and of members of the community of by-gone days.

Some of those attracting the most attention were pictures of eight and twelve horse and mule teams used to do the farm work many years ago. Other interesting photos were of the old school houses and the pictures of the children. Mrs. Charles Carlson was assisting hostess. Mrs. Walter Roberts and Mrs. Bert Mason Sr. were guests.

Natalie Tewis is convalescing from a tonsillectomy at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tewis.

Rainbow Assembly No. 89 had a party following their regular meeting on Tuesday evening honoring their mother advisor, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen. Two beautifully decorated cakes were served by Worthy Advisor Bonnie Akers and her mother, Mrs. Berl Akers, and the girls had a handkerchief shower for Mrs. Halvorsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Arnold were visitors at the Leo Crabtree home this week enroute from their home in Seattle to a family reunion in the Willamette Valley.

Mrs. Oscar Lundell returned on Saturday from a visit in Seattle with her sister, Mrs. Josephine Huff. She was met at the airport in Pendleton by her son Harland Lundell of Boise, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Lundell and their son Curtis spent the week-end here with his mother.

Willows Grange meeting has been changed from June 18 to June 25 at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. David Rietmann will entertain members with slides of their recent European trip.

OES Installation Planned

Locust Chapter No. 119, Order of the Eastern Star will hold public installation at the Masonic Hall on Tuesday, June 28, at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. C. L. Lieualen of Pendleton will be installing officer for her sister, Mrs. E. R. Schaffer, and other officers. Masonic Lodge No. 120, A.F. & A.M. will have their annual strawberry supper following the installation. All Masons, Eastern Star members and guests are cordially invited to both events.

Members of Masonic Lodge No. 120 will attend church services together in celebration of St. John's Day on Sunday morning, June 26, at 9:30 a.m. at the Ione United Church of Christ.

Mrs. Bert Mason Sr. was a guest of Mrs. Elmer Griffith this week-end, and attended Topic Club on Friday. She is a charter member of that group as a former resident of Ione.

Mrs. Hugh Salter had word this week of the death of her brother-in-law and the serious injury of her sister in an automobile accident. Mr. and Mrs. Matt Flesch of Lewiston, Mont., were involved in the crash on Thursday.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, this week-end were Mr. and Mrs. George (Buck) Miller and daughter, Mrs. Terry Burton and her daughter, Mary from Wisconsin. They were on a vacation trip to Oregon. Mrs. Buxton's husband is on his way to Vietnam.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Beggs and family from Idaho have moved into the Jessie Griffith home on Second Street. Mr.

Beggs is the newly elected principal for the Ione schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wiggins and family are living in Whites Apartments. He is employed at the Phill Emerit ranch.

Go Gold Medallion for a lifetime of comfort and convenience

You put a lifetime of value in your home when you build to the Gold Medallion Standards. It's the one sure way to have your home fully equipped for all the added comforts and conveniences of modern, total-electric living.

Yet a Gold Medallion Home, even with all its extra features, costs little more than a conventional house. It'll save you money in the long run because a Gold Medallion Home is built with tomorrow in near all entrances to save groping in the dark. The kitchen makes full use of total-electric living. An electric range and oven helps you "cook rings around the rest" . . . electric refrigerator keeps foods fresh . . . other electrical appliances lighten the homemaker's day.

Gold Medallion Standards promote comfortable, care-free living. Your home is heated the modern way, with low-cost Electric Heat. That's why you save twice; lower installation costs and less operating expense.

A Gold Medallion Home is indeed a good investment. Your home will be modern for years to come because it has been built to take advantage of all-electric living. It's a good investment in comfort and convenience!
