Vicki Benson Bride Of Kenneth Miller At Church Ceremony

KINZUA—Kinza Community Church was the setting Saturday afternoon, June 18, for the wedding of Miss Vicki Ann Benson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Benson, to Kenneth Charles Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Miller of Fossil.

The candlelight, double ring service was performed by Rev. Edwin Derrick before the altar that was flanked by tall baskets of yellow gladiolus and white Esther Reed daisies.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was beautiful in a full-length bouffant wedding gown of white chantilly lace, fashioned with fitted bodice with scallops of the lace forming a scooped neckline. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a pearl headpiece and she carried an arrangement of Esther Reed daisies.

Maid of honor was Miss Betty Robinson of Fossil, with two cousins of the bride, Miss Tippi Ann Lacy and Miss Jackie Pickare of Welsch, Idaho, as bridesmaids. They wore identical floor length gowns of yellow-gold brocade satin and carried flower balls of daisies with white satin streamers. Their face veils were held in place by daisies.

Flower girls were Shellie and Nicki Butler of Mayville, cousins of the groom. They wore yellow and white and carried baskets of daisies. Carrying the rings on a white satin pillow was Robin Miller of Condon.

Candle lighters were Debbie and Laura Stephens of Condon, cousins of the bride who wore white nylon dresses with white accessories.

Robert Misener of Portland served as best man with Steven Benson and Dean Couture as ushers.

The bride's mother wore beige lace with brown accessories, and the groom's mother chose blue, with blue and white accessories. Both had corsages of yellow daisies.

In charge of the guest book was Miss Betty Schroeder with Miss Cisty McCulloch presiding at the gift table.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Robert Kel-

Portland Girl Tells Betrothal to Doherty

The engagement of Miss Anne Lewis Lindsell to 2nd Lieut. Dennis D. Doherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Doherty of Heppner, was announced on Saturday, June 18, by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Lindsell, Jr., of Portland.

The bride-elect is a senior at the University of Oregon and a member of Gamma Phi Beta. Lieut. Doherty, a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Kappa Sigma, has just returned from duty in South Korea, and will be stationed at the Signal Corps headquarters of the U. S. Army in Washington, D. C.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Bill Johnson is expected home late this week from Fort Lauderdale, Florida, where she was called two weeks ago by the serious illness of her father, C. E. Hughes. Late reports indicate improvement in his condition. Besides her parents, she has visited several other relatives who live in the surrounding areas.

so who also accompanied Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Freeman and Mrs. Dale Wright when they sang "Always" and "The Twelfth of Never".

The reception was held in the church annex with the flowers and appointments following the yellow and white color scheme.

The four-tiered wedding cake topped by wedding bells was baked and decorated by Mrs. Robert Misener of Fossil. After the first slice was cut and shared by the bride and groom, the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Barbara Potter, Miss Sharon Mabe poured coffee and Miss Allison McRae served the punch.

The young couple left for Portland where they will make their home. The new Mrs. Miller chose for traveling a pink linen sheath with matching coat and white accessories.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Miller are graduates of Wheeler High school and Kenneth is now employed in Portland by Allstate Insurance Co.

Mrs. Heliker Hosts June Club Meeting At Mountain Cabin

Ione Garden Club met at the mountain home of Mrs. Vida Heliker for its traditional June meeting, which includes a potluck dinner and installation of new officers.

The dinner consisted of a variety of dishes prepared with herbs. For roll call, members were asked to tell what their dishes were and the herb used to season it, and if possible give the recipe.

Mrs. Heliker served as installing officer during ceremonies following the dinner. Officers for the coming year are Mrs. C. Jones, chairman; Mrs. Garry Tullis, vice-chairman; Mrs. Jim Johnson, secretary, and Mrs. Bill Rawlins, treasurer.

It was announced that Mrs. Omar Rietmann would attend the state convention in Klamath Falls as a delegate, and Mrs. F. T. Martin as the second delegate.

Enjoying the afternoon together were Mrs. Wallace Wolff, Mrs. Kenneth Palmer, Mrs. Tullis, Mrs. Kay McCarty, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Jo Huston, Mrs. Fannie Griffith, Mrs. Ernest Christopherson, Mrs. Ralph Crum, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Phill Emert, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. Heliker, and new members, Mrs. Clell Rea and Mrs. Delta Huber. A luncheon will be served at noon in the Skylight Room.

Mrs. Sylvia Morgan, president, will conduct the business meeting, following the luncheon. This will be followed by a short form of entertainment.

Karen French Chosen For Jackson Award

Karen French, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond French, was notified this week that she had been selected to receive a Jackson Foundation Scholarship in the amount of $1,000 to be used for the academic year 1966-67 at Oregon State University. Miss French was valedictorian of the 1966 Heppner High school graduating class. The scholarship will replace the state partial fee and tuition award granted to her at the time of graduation.

The Jackson Foundation was founded by the late Mrs. Maria C. Jackson, widow of C. S. Jackson, founder of the Oregon Journal. Scholarship recipients are selected by a special Foundation Scholarship committee, based on achieving outstanding scholastic record and display of characteristics which would lead to high-quality college work.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wade and daughter of Cheyenne, Wyo., visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Neill from Saturday until Tuesday. Mrs. Wade is a sister of Mrs. Neill. Emory Crawford of Clarkston, Wn., came Monday for an indefinite stay with the Neills. He is a brother of Mrs. Neill and father of Rita Thorpe of Heppner.

Wolff Home Visited By Sister Salvador, Vacationer from East

Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Wolff and family and J. F. Falardeau had as a visitor the past week Mrs. Falardeau's daughter and Mrs. Wolff's sister, Sister Salvador, from Chicago. She arrived Monday, June 13, by plane and left for Chicago Tuesday, June 21, by train.

Sister Salvador is a member of the order of Dominican Sisters of the order of Dominican Sisters and teaches at Visitation High School in Chicago. Her high school has 800 students and is combined with a grade school of 2000 students.

The family took trips to Mt. Hood driving around the Mt. Hood Loop highway and to the woods above Willow Creek to pick mushrooms. Sister Salvador had not seen her father during the three years since he moved to Heppner and had never seen the two youngest Wolff children, Cathy and Tommy.

Of her first trip to Heppner she said, "I had a wonderful time — enjoyed my visit very much."
