

Vacation School Has Full Week

"Happy Differences" was the song theme which united all the morning classes of the Vacation Bible School held at the Methodist Church from Monday, June 13, through Friday, June 17. The study theme, "World of Many Differences," was treated in many different ways by the different classes, at least two of which did some "different" cooking.

On Sunday, June 19, the Vacation Bible School children presented a program for their parents using the regular opening exercises, flag salute and special songs.

Co-chairmen of the school were Mrs. James Hilderbrand and Mrs. Jay Wheelhouse, who was also director. About 53 children attended throughout the session.

Teaching the kindergarten children were Mrs. James Hilderbrand and Mrs. Ron Hague-wood, helped by Leslie Meador, Georgiana McDaniel and Pam Hughes.

Primary classes were under the direction of Mrs. Bruce Griffith helped by Mrs. Harold Erwin and daughter Shirlee.

Juniors were taught by Mrs. Lynn Pearson and Mrs. Gene Pierce, and the intermediate class was directed by Mrs. Jack Krieger with the help of Margaret Green.

Mrs. Sam Miller taught music and her daughter, Sara helped with games. Mary Pierce and Debbie Young were in charge of child care. Marcia Young helped with child care and also in the kindergarten department.

Plan Demonstrations

The Ruralettes had a 4-H meeting June 15 at Mrs. Roland Bergstrom's home. We filled out our standard report forms and talked about our demonstrations that we will give for the fair. Mary McElligott served us refreshments. We had two visitors, Mrs. L. A. McCabe and Mrs. Louis Carlson. There were six members present.

Dixons Travel East For College Services, Visit Former Parish

Rev. and Mrs. Dixon, on vacation from his pastorate at the Heppner Methodist church, traveled east to attend the graduation of their daughter, Sharon, from Asbury College in Wilmore, Ky. on June 1. They also visited there with Rev. and Mrs. Walter Gilliland of Corry, Pa., parents of Charles Gilliland, to whom Sharon will be married in the Heppner church on August 21.

Daughters Sharon and Marti joined their parents on a trip north to Logan, Ohio, and to Higgins Lake, Michigan, where they visited close friends. Former parishioners at Breckenridge, Michigan, honored them with a church reception during their visit there on Sunday, June 12. They returned home from their three-weeks trip on Friday.

Henrys Vacation On $100 Budget

Taking a hundred dollars and their children Jay, 7, and Mary, 9, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Henry set out June 12 to find out how long they could vacation in Oregon on that amount of money. They planned to stay in motels and prime requisite was that each motel have a swimming pool.

They began their trip by going south through Central Oregon then visited Lava Butte, Fort Rock, and Crater Lake. From Crater Lake they drove through Roseburg to Coquille on the coast and then followed the coast northward and returned to Heppner via Portland.

In Portland they visited the Oregon Museum of Science and Industry and saw the famous Wenatchee Youth Circus which was a high spot of their trip.

According to Bob they had a fine time, were treated well everywhere, the weather was wonderful and they came home with six cents left over, Friday, June 17. The fact that out-of-season rates were still in use at the beach resorts helped.

Three from County Graduate at U of O

Three from Morrow County were graduated at the spring commencement exercises of the University of Oregon, Sunday, June 12, at Eugene.

Linda Darlene Van Winkle received a Bachelor of Science in Speech. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Van Winkle of Lexington.

James Michael Healy received a Bachelor of Science degree. He is the son of James M. Healy of Heppner.

Mrs. James Healy also received a Bachelor of Science degree. She is the former Ferne M. Albert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Albert of Union. The Alberts lived in Heppner for many years.

Vacation Church School Completes Successful Week

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM
JONE—The United Church Vacation Church School closed this week, climaxed with a picnic in the park and a swimming party for the school age children. The younger ones were entertained at the home of Mrs. Milton Morgan.

Teachers for the school were kindergarten, Mrs. Milton Morgan, assisted by Mrs. Walter Roberts, Terry O'Connor and Taunya Tucker; first and second, Mrs. Robert Rietmann, assisted by Kathy Holtz. Instructor for third and fourth grades was Mrs. Joel Engelman, assisted by Bonnie Kessel, and for fifth and sixth, Mrs. James Barnett, assisted by Pam Proudfoot.

About 50 young people participated in the classes. The study theme was "The Church." The special project this year was mounting Christmas cards on art paper, to be used in mission work in Venezuela. Part of the children's daily offering money will be used to pay postage for mailing these. On the last day of school, children brought sack lunches.

Others helping with the school were Mrs. Pete Cannon, who prepared the refreshments, and Mrs. Dick Sherer, secretary. Teresa Tucker, Charlene Hamlett, and Joy Beggs were in charge of the games.

The vacation school planning committee this year was Mrs. Art Lindstrom, chairman, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen and Mrs. E. M. Baker. Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid had charge of the music. There will be no more Sunday School classes until September 12.

Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom is in Portland this week to attend the Eastern Star Grand Chapter. She is chairman of the Credentials Committee.

Mrs. Bill Rietmann has word from her mother, Mrs. Roy Hurst of Arlington, that she is enjoying a visit to the British Isles in company with her sister, Mrs. Lena Sommerfelt of Portland, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Krebs of Arlington. They plan to visit Germany and the Scandinavian countries.
