

Mrs. Wallace Wolff, Shelley, Kelley, and Billy went by rail to Portland on Saturday. They put Billy on a southbound train for Eugene where he will take part in a two-week session of the Len Casanova Summer Sports Camp at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore of Beaverton, parents of Mrs. James Cason, were here over the week-end visiting the Casons. With Mrs. Mary Bryant, mother of Mr. Cason, the group took a trip to McNary Dam.

Judith Sherer and Kelly Andrew Repeat Vows in June Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. KELLY R. ANDREW

Miss Judith Ann Sherer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherer, Ione, became the bride of Kelly R. Andrew, son of Mrs. Helen German of Portland and LeRoy Andrew of La Comb, at a pretty formal ceremony Sunday afternoon, June 19, in the United Church of Christ.

The Reverend Walter B. Crowell of Ione performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives.

Artistic arrangements of white gladioli and laurel, flanked by lighted tapers, decorated the altar. Marking the bridal aisle were white satin bows, centered with pink rosebuds.

Escorted by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length sheath gown of nylon organza over misted taffeta with detachable full chapel train, detailed with bands of imported Swiss guipure lace on the bodice and skirt. Her full length veil of imported silk illusion was held in place by a Dior flower cluster. She carried a cascade bouquet of miniature white carnations, centered by a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Nancy Pettyjohn, cousin of the bride. She was attired in a floor length gown of silk linen in shade of peach blossom pink, fashioned with fitted bodice and a walking train. She wore a matching headdress of a flat, pink bow, and carried a cascade of elegant pink carnations and ivy.

Best man was Steve Hemphill, Pendleton, a friend of the groom. Ushers were Dick Sherer, brother of the bride, and Mike Spike, Echo, a friend of the groom.

Candlelighters were Miss Barbara Palmer, a cousin of the bride, dressed in a floor length pink dress with matching headdress, and Gordon German, brother of the groom.

Robyn Pierce, niece of the bride, dressed in a floor length gown of pink nylon chiffon, trimmed with lace, was flower girl.

Scott Sherer, nephew of the bride, attired in white party suit, served as ringbearer.

Playing the traditional wedding music was Mrs. Markham Baker, organist, who also accompanied Teresa Tucker when she sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

For her daughter's wedding,

Mrs. Sherer chose a blue crepe sheath dress, schiffli embroidered bodice, with matching accessories, and a white cymbidium orchid corsage.

The groom's mother, Mrs. German, appeared in a moss green brocade suit with beige accessories, and a white cymbidium orchid corsage.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the social rooms of the church with Mrs. Marion Palmer, aunt of the bride, in charge. The bride's chosen wedding colors of pink and white were artistically carried out on the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, topped with white satin wedding bells, and in floral arrangements about the room.

Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Wayne Pierce, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Dick Sherer, the bride's sister-in-law. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Effie Munkers, the bride's grandmother, and Mrs. Margaret Sherer, the bride's aunt. At the punch table was Mrs. Della Beck of Pendleton, a friend of the groom.

Attending the gift table were Misses Patti Pettyjohn, cousin of the bride, and Delores Emmert, a former classmate. The guest book was attended by Mrs. Kenneth Klinger, Misses Barbara Bishop and Marianna Pettyjohn assisted about the room.

For her wedding trip, the new Mrs. Andrew wore an off-white cotton knit dress, with matching accessories, and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Following a honeymoon trip to Victoria, B. C., and the San Juan Islands, the couple now reside at Ione while the groom is employed at Heppner by the County Road Department. They will return in the fall to Eastern Oregon College where the groom will be a senior.

Out-of-town guests came from Salem, La Comb, Portland, Wenatchee, Redmond, Pasco, Pendleton, Hermiston, Echo and Heppner.
