MRS. JEROME AUSTIN MILHOLLIN (the former Dianne Stone), married July 9 at Fort Monroe, Va.

Miss Stone is Bride of Jerome Milhollin In Eastern Ceremony

Marriage vows were exchanged between Miss Dianne Carolyn Stone and Jerome Austin Milhollin at a pretty summer ceremony at the Chapel of the Centurion in Fort Monroe, Virginia, on Saturday, July 9. The bride, a former Heppner High school teacher, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Stone, 6604 Holiday Drive, Boise, Idaho, and parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Austin B. Milhollin, also of Boise.

The Rev. Winston Hope officiated at the 2:00 p.m. ceremony.

The bride appeared in a formal wedding gown of candlelight satin, designed with a fitted bodice re-embroidered in Alencon lace and seed pearls, bateau neckline and long sleeves ending in calla peaks. A court train complemented the back of her gown. Her veil of imported English illusion was arranged with a lace rose etched in pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with sweetheart roses showered with satin ribbons.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Patricia Siegrist of Hampton, Va. Miss Joan Siegrist served as bridesmaid and Laura Siegrist as flower girl. The attendants wore floor-length green linen dresses with matching veils, and carried long-stemmed pink roses and fern.

M. Sgt. George Bullock, Fort Eustis, Va., served as best man, and James Powell and Robert Calvert, also of Fort Eustis, were ushers.

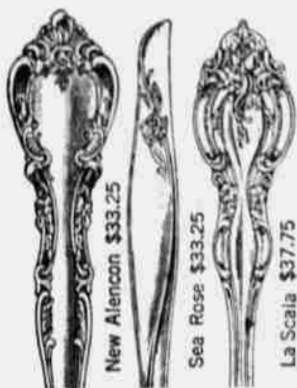

The couple greeted guests at a reception held in the home of Col. and Mrs. Frederick G. Siegrist in Hampton, Va.

The bride, a graduate of the University of Idaho at Moscow, was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Delta and Theta Sigma Phi, and taught English the past year at Heppner High school. The bridegroom attended Boise College at Boise, before entering service in the United States Army.

Following a Williamsburg, Va., honeymoon, the couple will visit in Boise, then make their home at Fort Lewis, Wn.

Miss Chapman Weds Oakley Ott at Spray Ceremony on June 18

At a double ring ceremony on Saturday, June 18, Sandra Kay Chapman of Spray became the bride of Oakley Ott of Nysa. The evening ceremony was performed by the Rev. Darrell Hoskins at the Assembly of God church in Spray.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William I. Chapman, Jr., of Spray and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ott of Heppner.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a sleeveless gown of satin brocade fashioned with scoop neckline, fitted bodice, and slightly belled tulip skirt, and a wateau back, extending into a train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls and aurora borealis crystal. Wearing long gloves, the bride carried a white Bible marked with rosebuds and stephanotis.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Ray Rector, as matron of honor, and her bridesmaids were Miss Candace Adams and Miss Billie Jean Chapman, sister of the bride. The three attendants wore identical sleeveless street-length frocks of mint green bonded lace, each styled with a scoop neckline and a belled skirt, detailed with a bow at the waist. Each attendant carried a nosegay of white carnations and pink bubble branches.

Best man for the groom was James Moore of Nysa. Groom's helpers were Donald Troxell, Jr., and Ted Thomsen, both of Spray. Jerry Beach and Ben Hamilton, also of Spray, were ushers.

Candlelighters were Betty Dee Chapman and Penny Jo Chapman.

George A. Shen sang several numbers, accompanied by Mrs. Glen Kelsey.

At a reception held in the social rooms of the church, the cake was cut by Mrs. Merle Joynes, Hermiston, and Mrs. Charles Wyllie, Dayville, aunt of the bride, poured coffee and punch. Assisting with the gifts and guest book were Mrs. Arthur Stephens, Mrs. Mina Brown of Kimberly, Carol Lynn Jones, Dency Jo Joynes and Nancy Lynn Joynes.

For her traveling outfit the bride wore a two-piece suit of blue knitted tweed with white accessories.

The bride attended Spray High school and the groom attended Heppner High school.

After a wedding trip to the coast, Mr. and Mrs. Ott are now at home in Nysa where the groom is employed by Oregon Cement Company.

Holliday-Nichols Wedding Announced

Relatives and friends have received announcement of the marriage last week of Miss Marcia Rolleen Holliday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Hall of Portland, to Lieut. Robert Lee Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Thorpe of Banning, Calif. The couple was married in Tacoma, Wn.

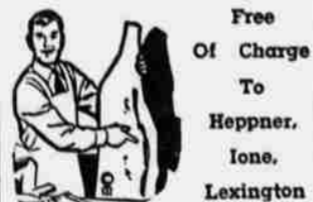

The bride attended schools in Portland and Heppner, and is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Pieper of Lexington. A graduate of Heppner High school in 1961, the groom was stationed with the U. S. Army in Germany for three years, and in March of this year was graduated from Officer's Training School in Fort Benning, Ga. He is now stationed in Fort Lewis, Wn., and the couple is residing in Tacoma.

Lt. Nichols is a brother of Mrs. John Mollahan and Raymond Nichols, both of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith enjoyed a 10-day vacation trip from July 1 through Nevada, northern California and up the coast of Oregon. They went to Reno, Lake Tahoe, Virginia City and Carson City, especially enjoying the historical sites of the Old West.

Jess Ticer, who formerly was employed by the telephone company here a number of years ago, visited in Heppner early this week on vacation with his family. They now live in Reno, Nev., and had been located in Eugene for some time after leaving here.
