Dewena West is Bride Of Frank Allen Bates In Arlington Church

BOARDMAN — Miss Dewena Rae West became the bride of Frank Allen Bates in a double-ring ceremony at the Methodist Church in Arlington on Saturday, June 18. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey West, Jr., of Boardman, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mose Bates of Mosier. The candlelight service was performed by the Rev. James Wilson.

Mrs. Wayne Kuhn of Boardman sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "More", accompanied by Louise Flippen of Roosevelt, Wash., who also played the nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an all lace gown with full skirt in five tiers, long sleeves, and a scalloped neckline trimmed with sequins. The veil of illusion net was elbow length, and was held in place by a head piece of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a crescent bride's bouquet of white Duchesses roses and rosebuds.

The altar was decorated with two baskets of white gladioli, delphinium and white peonies. Miss Sharon Donovan was maid of honor, and wore a French blue crystalline gown in floor length with white accessories, and a head piece of French blue net and a blue rose. Bridesmaids were Phyllis Bates, Mosier, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Dennis Gronquist and Pat Miller of Boardman. They wore gowns of azure blue crystalline with white accessories and head pieces of azure blue net and a blue rose. Each attendant carried a single white rose. All of the attendant's gowns were made by the bride's mother.

William Bates, brother of the groom, was best man, and ushers were Rodney Flug, Larry West, brother of the bride, and Danny Kaye Russell of The Dalles, cousin of the bride. West and Russell also served as candlelighters.

Carol Ann Donovan, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and Phil Hutson of The Dalles, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer. The flower basket carried by Carol Ann was the same one carried by the bride 12 years ago when she was flower girl at the wedding of Carol Ann's mother, Mrs. Carroll Donovan.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church social rooms with about 200 attending. Ladies of the church society were in charge, with Mrs. Carl Anderson as chairman. A lovely three-tiered cake, in the shape of a Maltese Cross, centered the serving table. After the first traditional piece was cut by the couple it was cut and served by Mrs. Ronald Black and Mrs. Carroll Donovan, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Dale Russell and Mrs. John Hutson of The Dalles, aunts of the bride, were at the coffee table, and Mrs. Bernard Donovan and Mrs. Zoe Billings served the punch. Mrs. Keith Gronquist and Diane Black were in charge of the gift table, and Mrs. Dwight Parker of Salem had the guest book. Decorations at the reception were blue roses and white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding,

11 Scouts Enjoy Week at Wallowa

Eleven Heppner scouts from Troop 66 returned Saturday, July 16, from Camp Wallowa near Joseph after a busy week of scout training and companionship.

Those who went on the week-long trip were Greg Sweek, Rory Stillman, Duane Steers, Alan McCabe, Mike Hughes, David Hughes, Brian Hughes, Jim Healy, Doug Gonty, Gary Adams and Robbie Abrams.

Bob Abrams, troop committee member, accompanied the boys and stayed for the week. Moose Stephens, scoutmaster, and Mike Stephens joined them on Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gonty and Mrs. Alice McCabe helped provide the transportation for the trip to Wallowa Lake.

About 100 boys live at the camp during each session and have a variety of things to do. The Heppner boys worked on rowing, cooking, and archery merit badges, second class requirements, semaphore signaling, took advantage of the waterfront facilities for canoeing, boating and swimming, and used the archery and rifle ranges. During the week they cooked five meals for themselves.

Lively Music Hit Of Golden Age Club At Meeting July 12

About 35 members and guests of the Heppner Golden Age Club enjoyed a lively and entertaining evening last Tuesday at the Episcopal parish hall, beginning with a bountiful potluck dinner at 7:00 p.m.

Guests, who traveled from Hermiston for the evening, were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cramer and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shaw. Welcomed in as new members were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Babb.

Mr. and Mrs. Huston Lesley of Hardman were in charge of the meeting, which included lively dancing music furnished by Mrs. Emil Goshens at the piano. Roy Quackenbush on the banjo and Earl Cramer on the violin.

Regular meetings are held during the summer on the second Tuesday of each month. For the August 9 meeting, Frank Turner and Huston Lesley will serve as a program committee, with electric dance music planned by the Lesleys. Any resident 50 years of age or older is invited to come and enjoy the activities of the club.

Mrs. West wore a two piece dress in off white lame, with pink accessories, and a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore beige lace, with pink and beige accessories, and a yellow carnation corsage.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Riverside High school, attended Blue Mountain College one year, and was a princess in the 1964 Morrow County Fair and Rodeo court. The bridegroom is a graduate of Mosier High school.

For going away the bride wore a two piece blue lace dress with white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations and white rosebuds.

After a trip to Portland and Salem the couple is living in Boardman where the groom is employed at the Chevron Station.

Guests attending the wedding came from Roosevelt, Wash., Bickleton, Wash., Kennewick, Wash., Tacoma, Wash., Boardman, Helix, Burns, Sundale, Wash., Woodburn, The Dalles, Mosier, Pendleton, Salem, Hermiston, Portland and Tenino Wash.

City Council Talks Business; Rural Fire Station Started

By LaVELLE PARTLOW

IRRIGON—Irrigon City Council met Tuesday evening, July 12, with Mayor Wilson presiding.

Mayor Wilson read a letter from the State Board of Health stating their plans to make a house to house survey on water supply and sewage disposal within the City of Irrigon during the week of July 26. The Council renewed a license to H. G. Beinbauer to operate Riverside Trailer Court. The problem of the puncture weed was discussed and plans made to spray the plants. The Council discussed making application for federal funds for a beautification strip along the highway, but tabled the matter until a later date.

Mayor Wilson reported on a meeting with Gordon McKay of Seattle concerning funds for a community building, but stated no funds were available for such a building at this time.

Mayor Wilson read a letter from Farmers Home Administration stating the city's application for a water grant would be re-submitted.

Construction of the Irrigon Rural Fire Station began Monday, July 18, with Don Grossmiller of Pendleton, low bidder, in charge. The all-metal building will measure 32 x 40', and will house the two existing fire trucks with space for an office and possibly an ambulance at a further date. The building will feature a split-level roof design, and will have restroom and shower facilities.

Daggetts Find Texas Hot on Elks Trip

Although temperatures in Dallas, Texas, rose to 106 degrees and the humidity was 96 per cent, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Daggett had a "wonderful trip" to the Elks national convention the first week in July.

Air conditioning in stores, in their hotel, and in the municipal auditorium helped to modify the heat. While the men were busy with the convention, Mrs. Daggett and other wives window shopped in Dallas and took a guided tour around the city.

After the convention itself was over, the Daggetts enjoyed a three day stay in Las Vegas seeing the sights and several shows, including "Hello America".

They were able to complete their trip by air in spite of the strike-plagued airline situation because their reservations happened to be on an airline not involved in any strike. According to Mrs. Daggett they left quite a few Elks still stranded in San Francisco.
