MEG MURRAY, who with her husband, owns Murray's Rexall, shows some of the milk glass ware that is a popular gift item in the store. The Murrays came here from Baker and bought Humphreys Rexall Drug in 1959. They have five children and are active in many community affairs.

ROD MURRAY (right) and Lynn Pearson, registered pharmacists, give the best of professional service on prescriptions at Murray's Rexall. They are pictured at the store's new prescription center. Night and day service is offered on prescriptions and collect calls are accepted from out of town points.

IT TAKES a staff of eleven persons to serve the public at Murray's Rexall, furnishing one of the area's largest retail pay rolls. Above, standing in front of a display of fine Lenox China, are (back row, from left) Rod and Meg Murray, owners; and Lynn Pearson, formerly of Boise, Idaho, registered pharmacist. Front row—Mrs. Roy (Melba) Quackenbush; Mrs. Riley (Bebe) Munkers; Mrs. Elwyn (Maude) Hughes; and Terry Peck. Below (from left) are Mrs. Al (Roxie) Lovgren, Mrs. L. E. (Faye) Ruhl, Mrs. John (Ruth) Bergstrom, and Mrs. Charlotte Walker. Hundreds of shoppers enjoy the courteous, prompt service given by this staff, and visitors are delighted to shop in the spacious new store. Remodeling of parts of the store, now in progress, will be fully completed soon.
