Heppner Hosts Kinzua Golfers

By VIRGINIA KESLO

KINZUA — The Kinzua men and women golfers made their annual trek to Heppner on Sunday to exchange shots with the Willow Creek club and battle for the Gribble-Schroeder trophy, symbol of superiority between the two clubs.

By a medal score of 749 to 742, the Kinzualtes were able to maintain their hold on the trophy and see that it still rests in its proper place in the Kinzua Club house.

The Willow Creek course was found to be in excellent condition and with good, hot weather prevailing, some fine golf was displayed by many of the devotees of the sport. A noon buffet luncheon was served by the ladies of the Willow Creek club and the usual hospitality was shown by the hosts throughout the day.

When the final accounting had been completed and all scores checked, honors were picked up by several Kinzua swingers: Low gross, Harlan Schroeder and Milt Boring tied; low net, Harlan Schroeder; long drive, Verlin Conner and Don McConnell; closest to the pin: Wayland Hyatt.

For the Kinzua ladies, low gross was won by Lavina Conner and low net by Arlene Schroeder.

Eight members of the Kinzua Golf Club will wend their way to La Grande this coming week-end to participate in the annual La Grande Elks tournament. This affair has proven to be one of the finest in the state with more than 100 Elks members from Oregon, Washington and Idaho taking part.

Feed Brings Little League Season to Successful End

Milt Boring, team coach, and Jim Walker hosted the Kinzua Little League and Pee Wee Baseball team members for a hot dog and watermelon feed in Jim's yard last Tuesday. The season just completed was one of the most successful experienced by Kinzua teams for many years. Neither team dropped a game and several contests were complete shut-outs. Heavy hitting and tight pitching seemed to go hand in hand as the season progressed to fulfill the schedule and come out on top over area teams.

Rosters for the two teams are Gene Mortimore, Bill Messerschmidt, Don Bird, Bob Allen, John Wall, Ron Bowman, Bill McConnell, Mike Ball, John Medlock, Dennis Ball, Max Woods, Randy Hulett, Kent Bell, George Saddler, Rusty Bird, Brian Adams, Neil Mathias, Tim Adams, Rob Cody, Steve Ball, Rick Benson, Jim Benson, and Steve Asher.
