Details Announced On Dress-Up Parade Pre-Round-Up Event

Don Villeneuve and Carl Williamson, co-chairmen of the Round-Up dress-up parade in downtown Pendleton, 7 p.m. September 10, announced today that entries not submitted by September 1, will not be entered on the parade judging sheets. Entries will be accepted, but persons who wish to have their names on the judging sheets must submit them to P. O. Box 987, Pendleton, by the September 1 deadline. Persons late in entering the parade docket will be placed at the end of the parade line of march. The Main Street Cowboys are in charge of the parade.

The annual dress-up parade is the kick-off event of the Pendleton Round-Up held each fall in the second week of September. The show opens September 14 for a four-day run, concluding with the Round-Up finals Saturday afternoon, September 17, and the final performance of the Happy Canyon night pageant.

Grand marshal of the dress-up parade this year are Pendleton's first citizens of the year, Mrs. Gene Conklin and Ford Robertson. They will lead the annual parade in a survey followed by the Round-Up Queen Paulette Rice and her court. Decorated floats, bands, riding clubs and other entries will follow the queen with royalty from surrounding communities also included in the line of march.

Mrs. L. E. Dick returned to her home here Friday, after completing a six-weeks summer Institute for Advanced Study in Reading course at Oregon State University in Corvallis. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Dick left for a 10-day camping vacation trip. Stuart, Erin and Kevin remained at the family home. Sometime during the vacation the Dicks plan to visit relatives in Helena, and to stop at Lewiston, Montana, Ed's birthplace.
