MR. AND MRS. GENE L. LONGGOOD (Marlene Kay Fetsch)

Fetsch-Longgood Wedding Nuptials Join Couple in Pendleton Church

A double ring candlelight ceremony on Saturday, August 6, at Peace Lutheran church in Pendleton united in marriage Miss Marlene Kay Fetsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fetsch of Lexington, and Gene L. Longgood, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Longgood of Walla Walla, Wn.

Officiating at the 2 p.m. ceremony was Pastor Arthur Baehmann.

Decorating the altar were large baskets of white and pink-tinted gladioli, accented with moss green satin bows. White satin bows marked the bride's aisle. Lighting the tall white tapers in candelabra before the ceremony were Miss Phyllis Thornburg and Miss Kay Rauch, cousins of the bride, both of Pendleton.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She appeared in a gown of imported white chantilly lace and silk sheen over taffeta. The lace bodice with sebrina neckline of iridescent and pearls was fashioned with long sleeves and tapered wrists. The voluminous silk skirt of chantilly lace terminated into a graceful, tiered train. Her fingertip veil was secured to a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of pale pink sweet peas, centered with a lovely white orchid. A single strand of pearls, owned by the groom's grandmother and dated back over 50 years, was worn by the bride.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Paul Knerr of Corvallis, cousin of the bride. Bridesmaid attendants were Miss Sandra Eubanks of Ione, Miss Arlene McGowan and Mrs. Fred Taylor, both of Portland, and Mrs. Larry Fetsch, sister-in-law of the bride, of Heppner.

Judy Bartlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Bartlett of Yakima, served as flower girl. She carried a small white basket and dropped rose petals on the long, white carpet of the bridal aisle.

The bride chose hot pink and moss green silk materials for her attendant's gowns. Colors of gowns were alternated as the girls walked down the aisle. Their short veils were accented with hot pink and moss green netting.

Attending the groom as best man was Curtis Tarwater of Walla Walla. Ushers were Dean Longgood, twin brother of the groom; Don Longgood, brother of the groom; Tom Bergevin of Walla Walla, and Kenny Frazier of Selah, Wn.

Organist for the traditional wedding music was Mrs. Joe Pitzer of Hermiston. She accompanied Mrs. Douglas Watson and Mrs. David Pardue, as they sang duet arrangements of the numbers, "Always" and "O' Perfect Love." All are related to the bride.

Mrs. Fetsch, mother of the bride, chose to wear a light blue brocade dress with three-quarter length coat. Her accessories were dyed to match. The groom's mother, Mrs. Longgood, appeared in a beige silk dress and jacket ensemble, with contrasting accessories of turquoise blue. Both mothers wore corsages of baby pink roses.

Grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Natalie Rauch of Heppner, and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. James Lowry of Grandview, were guests of honor. Each wore a dainty pink carnation corsage.

The newlyweds greeted their many guests at a reception immediately following the ceremony. Cutting and serving the large wedding cake, punch and coffee were Mrs. John Hartman and Mrs. Forrest Thornburg, both aunts of the bride, and Mrs. Stan Krous, aunt of the groom. Assisting with the guest

Queen's Parents Host Dinner on Rodeo Eve; Other Courts Honored

One of several pleasant social events during the recent rodeo week was the dinner given for the fair and rodeo court, their parents and a few other friends by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Winchester, parents of Queen Erna. They were hosts at the Wagon Wheel cafe Thursday evening, August 25, for the evening which included dinner and dancing to western music of the Leonig family.

The Winchesters were especially glad to have their son and daughter-in-law, Capt. and Mrs. Lowell Turner and daughter, Kim, arrive safely from their 1180 mile trip from Arizona in time for the dinner and rodeo festivities.

Besides parents of the princesses, other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gentry, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munkers and Capt. and Mrs. Turner.

A western motif was carried out by Mrs. Winchester by wall horse picture hangings, flower arrangements in a covered wagon drawn by draft horses, cowboy place cards and matching wall hangings.

Queen Erna and her mother also helped provide attractive decorations for the luncheon in the Elks' Temple Saturday for visiting queens and their courts following the rodeo parade. Blue and white floral decorations were featured in small childhood boots of Queen Erna, in horse head vases, and place cards were in the form of royal crowns decorated in blue and white jewel-effect.

Girls of the host court had made leather cut-out stamped boots for table favors.

Mrs. Hughes Joins Sisters on Vacation

For the first time in over 40 years, five sisters met for a family vacation at Lake Tahoe. Mrs. Olive Hughes, one of the five, said that their only regret was that two other sisters were unable to come.

Mrs. Hughes went to Lake Tahoe August 9 by way of Portland where she met one sister, Florence B. Correll, of Long Beach, Calif., who had been visiting in Oregon. They met three other sisters, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. McKeown, and Mrs. Jensen in Sacramento and continued to Lake Tahoe where all vacationed from the 13th to the 16th of August with various family members coming and going during that time.

Purpose of the family gathering was to honor Mr. and Mrs. William Barnsdale and four children who were in the United States between assignments with the U.S. Foreign Service. The Barnsdales just returned from Rome and are to go with their youngest children to Belantyer, Malawi, Africa where he will be Deputy Ambassador.

Mrs. Hughes returned to Sacramento on August 14 and then traveled to Eugene, Sweet Home and Portland before meeting Mrs. Rod Murray on August 25 for the drive to Heppner.

Mrs. Evans Visits Relatives on Vacation Trip Along Coast

Mrs. Millie Evans of Heppner accompanied her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Carey of Pendleton on a trip through western Oregon and Washington visiting three other sisters of the Buschke family and a niece during the first three weeks of August. Their first stop was in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. Ron Kempton. Mrs. Kempton is a niece of Mrs. Evans.

They continued on to Lincoln City to visit another brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Les Carr, in their home overlooking the Pacific ocean. During this visit they were joined by the other sisters, Mrs. Bus Travis and Ann Fehmerling for a family dinner at Salishan.

Following the Lincoln City visit, the travelers went on to spend five days with Ann Fehmerling at her home in Seaview, Wn., near Longview. Their final visit was with Mr. and Mrs. Bus Travis who operate a charter boat business at Westport, Wn.

Mrs. Evans returned to Heppner August 21.
