Idaho Ceremony Joins Couple in Marriage

Miss Linda Ackes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ackes of Milton-Freewater, became the bride of Bob Hager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hager, Heppner, at an informal ceremony in a wedding chapel in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, on Monday, September 12.

Attending the couple were Miss Cheryl Rhinehart of Milton-Freewater and David Kilgore of Heppner.

Following a short wedding trip, the newlyweds are expected here at the home of the groom's parents late this week.

The new Mrs. Hager is a graduate of Milton-Freewater High school and of the Pendleton College of Beauty. Following his graduation from Heppner High school in 1964, the groom completed a two-year course in electronics at Oregon Technical Institute in Klamath Falls, and will return there for further training if he is not called soon into military service.

Fall Flower Show Planned This Month In Lone Cafetorium

Plans are underway by the lone Garden club for its 15th annual fall flower show and silver tea, planned for Sunday, September 25, in the lone school cafetorium.

Public is urged to come between the hours of 2:00 and 7:00 p.m. to see displays of beautiful fall flowers which will carry out the show theme, "Company's Coming." Of special interest will be a display of dahlias from the gardens of Bill Rawlins.

Entries are invited in both adult and children's divisions of both general horticulture and artistic floral arrangements. Clubs and organizations are also invited to prepare table setting entries. General information has been placed in the club's handbook, and anyone wishing further information may refer to it, or is invited to contact Mrs. Jim Thomson, Lexington, or Mrs. Garry Tullis, lone.

Plans for Winter Programs Outlined At WSCS Meeting

A review of WSCS program topics which will be given major emphasis during the year was given by Mrs. James Hildebrand at the first fall meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church last Wednesday evening.

Content of the planned programs will cover changes in mission work to meet contemporary needs; dialogue with other world religions; the Christian culture, world economy and space; compulsive conformity and Christian values, and plans for action to meet present day problems. Many of the programs are designed to be presented in dialogue form, and offer ample opportunity for open discussion.

Mrs. Jack Krieger led the devotional period, with Mrs. Melvin Dixon arranging the worship center.

Mrs. Bob Henry presided at the business meeting. Following a report from the executive committee by Mrs. Kenneth Batty, action was taken to send contributions to mission supply work and to hold three money-making events during the year. The first will be November 19, on Saturday before the Thanksgiving holiday.

Plans for a mother-daughter banquet were finalized for Wednesday evening, September 28. Mrs. Marian Van deMark, acting dean of women at Portland University, will speak and show slides of a recent African trip. Men of the church will serve the banquet, and tickets will be available in advance.

Mrs. Melvin Dixon and Mrs. Owen Leathers served as co-hostesses for the evening.

District Officers Here to Take Part In Local Installation

Several American Legion and Auxiliary district officers traveled to Heppner from Athena Monday evening to take part in installation ceremonies of this year's officers.

Members and guests met first for a no-host potluck dinner at the Legion hall.

Mrs. Darlene Miguez of Athena, district 6 president, installed the following slate of auxiliary officers: Mrs. Frank Hamilton, president; Mrs. Iva Booker, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Marjorie Worden, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Riley Munkers, secretary; Mrs. Gerald Rood, treasurer; Mrs. Bill Heath, historian; and Mrs. Arnie Herman, sergeant-at-arms.

Gail Zeba of Athena, district 6 commander, installed Legion officers, headed by Don Munkers as post commander.

Other visiting dignitaries were Jim Rowton, commander of Athena post, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moore, Athena Legionnaires.

Reports of delegates to Girls' and Boys' State will be heard at the next combined dinner meeting on October 10.

Among coming plans for the auxiliary is a baked foods sale, set for Friday, September 30, in downtown Heppner. Hunters' specials will be among items planned for the sale.

Alan Martin drove to Seattle Saturday to pick up his grandmother, Mrs. Laura Barnes, 82, who will stay with the Martins here for at least the rest of the year. Martin, Heppner Elementary school principal, and Mrs. Barnes returned to Heppner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kit George left August 8 for Ft. Collins, Colo., where he will enter the School of Forestry of Colorado State University as a Junior. He previously attended Eastern Oregon College at La Grande and Blue Mountain Community College.

Mrs. Turner Hosts Bookworms Meeting

First meeting of the year for the Bookworms club was Tuesday evening at Mrs. Virginia Turner's home where members gathered for a potluck supper and organization of the year's program.

The meal was served at a beautiful table arranged with flowers and china in shades of pink on a pale pink damask cloth. Each member furnished food for the meal.

Those present were Mrs. Bob Henry, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Lucy Peterson, Mrs. Ted Smith, Mrs. Inez Erwin, Mrs. Gene Ferguson, Mrs. Cornett Green, Mrs. Jim Thomson and Mrs. Charles Starks.

New president of the organization is Mrs. Cornett Green. Vice-president is Mrs. Henry; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Turner; and assistant for Mrs. Turnover is Mrs. Peterson. A schedule for entertaining and book-reviewing was drawn up, with the next meeting planned for September 27 at the Cornett Green home.

Miss Bernice Thomson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomson, is in Heppner for a two weeks visit with her parents. She came Friday, September 9, and is on vacation from her position as secretary at Dunn & Bradstreet in Portland.

Monagle Relatives Meet in Germany; Plan Ireland Tour

A family reunion on foreign ground took place this week in Ireland between Capt. and Mrs. John W. Barry, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Monagle of Heppner, and Mrs. Barry's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Barney P. Doherty of Pendleton.

The Barrys and their two small sons are living near Heidelberg, Germany, with the U.S. Armed Forces, and Mr. and Mrs. Doherty are traveling through Europe with a planned tour.

The couples were able to meet briefly in Heidelberg on July 21, but are now planning to be together for a week, traveling about Ireland and visiting relatives in that country.

The Dohertys will return to Pendleton at the end of September.

Visitors at the Bob Abrams home during the past week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Abrams, Everett, Wn., parents of Mr. Abrams, Mrs. Sara Morrow, mother of Mrs. Abrams, left Thursday, September 8, to return to her home in Prescott, Ariz. A former Heppner High student, Margaret Marks, stopped overnight September 7 at the Abrams home.

Miss Mahoney Tells Soroptimists of Tour To English Countries

Miss Shannon Mahoney was a program guest of the Soroptimist club at its luncheon meeting last Thursday noon.

An interesting report was given by Shannon of a tour which she and her aunt, Mrs. Kathleen Mather of Pendleton, took in late June and early July to Ireland, Scotland and England. Color slides of their travels showed the unique beauty of the countries, their culture and ways of life. Time limited her in showing slides of only half the trip, but was invited to continue on a later program.

Discussion was held by club members on entering the club's float in Pendleton for the Dress Up parade September 10. With the offer of Dick Wilkinson to transport it by flatbed truck to Pendleton, it was decided to place it in the parade. Those helping to reassemble and get it ready in Pendleton for the parade were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson, Mrs. Wes Sherman, Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson and Mrs. Matt Hughes. Much work had been done through the summer to make the float bed more easily transported.

Lone Rainbow Girls To Install Sunday
