

Church Resumes Schedule For Fall and Winter Term

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Fall schedule at the Ione United Church of Christ has been resumed. On Sunday morning Rally day and Promotion Sunday was held for a large group of children. Third grade youngsters, who have been attending regularly, were presented Bibles. They included Clay West, David Tucker, Joe Rietmann, Leroy Rea, Skye Krebs, John Ekstrom, and Arlinda Aldrich.

The church school staff and teachers were installed in a dedication service during the worship service. Mrs. Norman Nelson is superintendent assisted by Mrs. Fredrick Martin. Musicians are Susan Jepsen and Mrs. Walter Roberts. Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen will serve as secretary assisted by Mrs. Walter Jacobs. Nursery home visitors are Mrs. Keith Rea, Mrs. Milton Morgan, and Mrs. Wayne Hams. Mrs. Lee Palmer and Mrs. Leland McKinney are in charge of the three-year-olds and Mrs. Bill Rietmann and Mrs. James West, the four-year-old children.

Teaching the grade school children are Mrs. Phil Emert and Mrs. Keith Rea, first and second grades; Mrs. Arthur Lindstrom and Mrs. Robert Hoskins, third and fourth grades; Mrs. Robert Jepsen and Mrs. Fredrick Martin, fifth and sixth grades; and Mrs. Robert Rietmann and Mrs. Adon Hamlett, seventh and eighth grades. High school teachers will include Don Bristow, Robert Jepsen, Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid, Mrs. Henry Krebs, Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, and Mrs. Norman Nelson as substitute. Fredrick Martin will instruct in the adult class.

Following church services a short meeting was held during which the 1967 church budget was presented and approved.

The annual stewardship dinner will be held Sunday evening September 25, with the Rev. William Meyer, conference minister on church extension and stewardship, as guest speaker. He will also speak at the morning worship service.

Newcomers Welcomed With Clothing Shower

Mrs. Berle Akers, assisted by Mrs. Cleo Childers, entertained last Thursday afternoon with a party honoring Mrs. Richard Kinzer and her son, Herbert, who recently arrived in the United States from Germany. Each of the guests brought a gift of clothing for the eleven-year-old, since he was able to bring little with him.

Those attending were Mrs. Tom Breshears, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, Mrs. Oscar Lundell, Mrs. Lloyd Rice, Mrs. Ray Heimbigner, Mrs. Lee Palmer, Mrs. Arthur Dalzell, Mrs. A. H. Marick, Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mrs. Harold Sherer, Mrs. W. C. Crawford, Mrs. Harvey Smith, Ms. Bill Snow, Mrs. Ruby Kinzer of Hermiston, Mrs. Irene Samples, Mrs. Dennis Warren, Mrs. Clarence Warren of Heppner, Mrs. Maxine Hoffman and Mrs. Claudia Pimental of Condon.

Kenneth Lynn Smouse left on Tuesday for Oregon State University, where he has been given an assistant teaching fellowship in science for the coming year while working for his master's degree. Mrs. Kenneth Smouse and Cheryl Lynn will accompany him as far as Portland, where they will shop for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Barnes and baby of Pendleton have moved into the small Elmer Holtz house in Second Street. He is employed by Ekstrom Chemical Co.

Committee Makes PTA Plans

The Ione PTA executive committee met Monday afternoon. Mrs. Ernest Christopherson, president announced the following chairmen have been appointed for the coming year: membership and room mothers, Mrs. Robert Rietmann and Mrs. Don McElligott; social activities, Mrs. James West; ways and means, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Peterson; program, Mrs. Richard McElligott; and publicity, Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom. It was decided to have the teachers reception on Thursday evening, September 22 at 8:00 p.m. featuring a visit to the classrooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heimbigner and Tom and Joe Halvorsen spent Monday in Portland. The annual stewardship dinner for the United Church of Christ will be held September 25. Guest speaker for this evening and for the morning worship service also will be the Rev. William Meyer, new minister of church extension and stewardship of the conference. There will be just one dinner this year so the membership is urged to take note of this date and attend on Sunday evening.

Wednesday visitors to the Ione area were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sammis of Los Angeles. Mrs. Sammis is the former Nedra Agee and had lived near the Kenneth Smouse home many years ago. The Smouses were away on vacation, but they called on the nearby Alfred Nelson family, before continuing their trip to Idaho.

Cheryl Lundell was taken to Eugene this week-end by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell, where she will enter the University of Oregon for her sophomore year.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Corson of Victorville, Calif. arrived Friday for a visit with friends and to attend to business.

Rainbow Girls Elect Officers

Rainbow Girls of Assembly No. 89 had a busy evening as they resumed meetings on Tuesday evening. Initiation ceremonies were held for Nancy Ashurst. A report was made on the float for the Morrow County Rodeo parade. The girls received second prize for a float depicting "The Wizard of Oz". Election of officers was held with Teresa Stefani selected as worthy advisor; Bonnie Morgan, associate advisor; Linda Nichols, charity; Teresa Tucker, hope; Willa Johnson, faith, and Bonnie Hynd secretary. Worthy advisor Bonnie Akers presented a gift to advisory board member, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, who has been ill recently. It was announced that Bonnie Hynd has been chosen Grand Representative to West Virginia and she was escorted and introduced to the girls.

Sunday afternoon and evening several from here attended the Christian enlistment workshop at The Dalles. The United Church of Christ was represented by Robert Rietmann, Donald Bristow, Bill Rietmann, Robert Jepsen, and Rev. Walter B. Crowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse and family have returned from an enjoyable vacation spent at Seattle Vancouver, B. C. and on Vancouver Island. In Seattle they were guests of Mrs. Smouse's cousin, Mrs. Harold McMillan. They attended the Pacific National Exhibition at Vancouver and were fortunate to see a magnificent performance by the Canadian Mounties. They also rode a newly installed lift on Grouse, Mt., which takes people up about 3,000 ft. for a panoramic view of the mountains and the ocean. They spent some time visiting the interesting sights at Victoria, including the observatory.
