

Lodge to Entertain District Convention; Aids VISTA Worker

Members of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 met for the second regular meeting of the fall season Friday evening, with Noble Grand Opal Cook and Vice Grand Adele La Trace in their respective chairs.

Plans were discussed for entertaining the District Convention of District 20 in Heppner on November 17, with Sans Souci as the hostess lodge.

Present to enter into the discussion was Mrs. Altha Kirk, district deputy president, a member of the local lodge, but a resident of Hermiston. Also visiting from Hermiston was Mrs. Ada Eskelson, a member of Holly Rebekah Lodge, Lexington.

Refreshments were served by the Triple Links members.

On September 2, first meeting following the summer recess, the new district deputy was given honors and presented a gift from the lodge in appreciation. During the refreshment hour, birthday sentiments were expressed to all those having birthdays in July, August and September.

Also at this meeting, plans were made for sending the box of supplies to Miss Leora Van Winkle, who is a VISTA volunteer stationed at Hooper Bay, Alaska. With another VISTA student, she is working among the Eskimo children in that remote area and has expressed a need for more materials.

Anything in the nature of books, color books, crayons, tablets, paper, pencils, etc., is appreciated, and contributions are gratefully accepted. Miss Van Winkle also states a need for paper-backed books for their meager adult library. A box is expected to be ready for shipment around the first of October. Anyone needing further information is asked to call 676-5583.

Final Flower Show Plans Made by Club

Fifteen members of the Lone Garden Club met last Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jim Johnson in Lexington. Main business concerned plans for the annual flower show and tea to be held Sunday, September 25, from 2 to 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Chosen as theme for the show is "Company's Coming."

Club members are also providing corsages for the teachers' receptions to be held in Lone and Heppner grade schools this month.

Executive board of the Blue Mountain District of Garden Clubs is sponsoring an all-day meeting on Thursday, September 29, at Gunther's Restaurant in Pendleton. The meeting is open to all interested garden club members. Registration is at 10 a.m. with a no-host luncheon at noon and adjournment set for 3:00 p.m.

Next meeting of the Lone Garden club was announced for October 11.

Marine Private Harold Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Gray, has been serving in Vietnam the past six months. Stationed at Chu Lai with a tank battalion, his job is to run a retriever which is a vehicle used in recovering disabled tanks. The outfit is based in a tent camp of tents with floors and sides, and he writes that they have been constantly on the go.

Grangers Hear Talk On New Development Of Idaho Desert Land

Willows Grange of Lone began fall meetings with a pot-luck supper, Saturday night, September 17, with about 25 persons present. A business meeting and program followed.

Guests of the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmateer, cousins of Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers and members of Garfield Grange No. 310 in Clackamas County. Mr. Palmateer, a former Grange Master, spoke briefly.

For the program, slips were passed out with quotations of "take time to do" to make life more ideal.

Mrs. Vida Heliker read a timely poem, then told something of her recent trip to Glenn's Ferry, Idaho. She told how large corporations have reclaimed the desert lands of central Idaho, installing sprinkler systems supplied by the Snake River. Large potato farms, consisting of as many as 5300 acres are seen covering former sagebrush hills. Potatoes are harvested by machinery and sold to manufacturers of potato chips, mashed potatoes, scalloped potatoes, hashed brown potatoes, etc.

Everyone is familiar with the Idaho potato of TV fame. Potatoes left on the ground by harvesters are given freely to the country side for picking them up. The speaker displayed samples of potatoes which weighed more than 2 lb. each.

Mrs. Omar Rietmann won the prize for writing the most states in the "Name the States" contest.

Home Economics Club met for an all day meeting last Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Art Dalzell, with Mrs. Richard Kinzer as co-hostess. Fifteen members answered roll call.

The next HEC meeting will be October 20 at the home of Mrs. Berl Akers, with Mrs. Cleo Childers as co-hostess. Due to conflicting dates, this will be a Thursday meeting. The ladies will serve the dinner and a donation will be given by members. All receipts will go to the club treasury.

Next Grange meeting will be an "open house" fun night on October 15. Card games will be in play and everyone is welcome. Visiting non-members are requested to come at 9:00 o'clock. There will be entertainment for both young and old. Refreshments will be served.

Monahans Entertain Visitors from East

Mr. and Mrs. James Monahan have had as visitors during the past two weeks their son, James D. Monahan, Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., and a friend, Miss Maureen Warren, an English girl living in Washington. The visitors have also been in Pendleton with the Jim Waltons and the R. J. Seegers.

Another guest with the Monahans, and also with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kilkenny, Pendleton, was Miss Catherine O'Brien, New York City. On Saturday, September 17, Billy Monahan drove his brother, Jim, and Miss Warren to Portland to board a plane, and also took Teresa Monahan to Portland to enroll in school.

Program on Africa Planned for Banquet

Mrs. Marion Van de Mark, acting dean of women at the University of Portland, will be guest speaker at the Mother-Daughter Banquet, sponsored by the Methodist W.S.C.S. on Wednesday evening, September 28, in the Methodist church social rooms.

During the program, Mrs. Van de Mark will entertain with a travelogue of slides taken on a recent trip to Africa. The banquet will be served at 7:00 p.m., with men of the church doing the serving.

Tickets are on sale, in advance, at Farra's Shoe Shop, Penney's, at the church parsonage or from Mrs. Bob Henry, at $1.25, or may be purchased at the door.

David Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Gray, left September 13 for his Marine recruit training at the Marine Recruit Depot in San Diego. He will be in basic training for eight weeks and would appreciate letters from friends.

His address will be: Pvt. David E. Gray, 22275030; Plt. 2218, 2nd RT Bn. RTR; MCRD, San Diego, Calif. 92140.
