

Anniversary Reunion Honors Kirks Sunday At Homestead Ranch

Gathering at the Kirk and Robinson ranch September 25, for a family reunion were the immediate descendants of the M. J. Devin family. This ranch was the original homestead of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Devin.

Highlighting the occasion was the informal commemoration of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Kirk of Hermiston. Following a bountiful potluck dinner, a large three tiered wedding cake was cut and served by the honored couple.

Coming especially for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Tyler of Lebanon, brother-in-law and sister of Mr. Kirk. They are also former residents of this area.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Scott, Hermiston; Mrs. Letha Archer, Heppner; Mrs. Dick Sheekler, Nancy and Margaret, Richland, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Warren and Glenn, Grandview, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Wyland and Carol, Pilot Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wyland, Allan and Janis, Pendleton, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boydell, Nancy and Kent of Nyssa.

Hosts for the pleasant affair were Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Brown and Nicky of Pendleton, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robinson and Kirk, Kyle, and Kryn Robinson.

Reception Proves Pleasant For 150 in Attendance

Gay red and white bells and a friendly crowd made the Heppner Elementary Teacher's Reception a very pleasant evening for approximately 150 teachers and guests Friday night at the elementary school multipurpose room.

The decorations, ideas for which were supplied by Terry Linecum, art teacher, followed the theme, "School Bells Ringin'". Red streamers were threaded through white paper bells which centered each table, and the backdrop at the speakers' table featured a huge musical score of silver notes on a red background with a large bell in the center, and the words, "School Bells Ringin'", below.

Harlan McCurdy, master of ceremonies, started proceedings by ringing a small school bell. Invocation was given by Father Raymond Beard, and Superintendent of Schools Dave Potter introduced school board and advisory board members who were present.

Mrs. Clyde Allstott, president of the Elementary PTA, extended words of welcome, and Mrs. Rachel Dick, regional vice president of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, told of a 3-county PTA workers meeting here Wednesday.

Alan Martin, elementary principal, introduced each of the teachers on his staff and asked a spontaneous question of each, relative to the teacher's hobby or interests.

Toastmaster McCurdy added a bit of lighthearted entertainment to the enjoyment of the crowd when he sang a humorous song, without accompaniment. Friends said that it was the first time they had ever heard him sing in public. He was an immediate hit.

Each teacher was brought to the reception as a guest of different parents who acted as hosts to introduce them to other. Bright corsages of fresh fall flowers were presented each teacher by the Ione Garden Club, and name tags helped them become acquainted with the parents.

Refreshments of dessert, coffee and punch were served, and a get-acquainted and visiting time followed.

Committee heads for the reception were Mrs. Jim Prock, Mrs. Lynn Pearson, Mrs. Bob Jones, Mrs. Randy Lott, Mrs. Bill Johnson, Mrs. Wallace Wolff and Miss Linecum.

Their fine work received many compliments from those who attended.

Candlelight Rites Unite Pair Sept. 17 At Fossil Wedding

KINZUA—A double ring ceremony by candlelight on Saturday, September 17, at the Fossil Baptist Church united in marriage Miss Hazel Lee Stillings granddaughter of Mrs. Myrtle Stillings of Fossil to Verlin Ray Denton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Denton of Brookings, formerly of Kinzua.

Officiating at the 7 p.m. service was Rev. Edwin Derrick before an altar which was decorated with baskets of pink and white gladiolus and white candleabra holding tall pink tapers.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her brother, Tommy Schoolcraft of Portland, wore an Empire style gown of white lace over satin. Her shoulder length veil of white lace was held in place by a crown of satin and sequins. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Mary Schoolcraft of Portland, who wore a long Empire style dress of pink lace over crepe with a burgundy velvet bow. She wore a white head veil held in place by a pink satin bow.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Sandra Wright of Portland, sister of the bride; Mrs. Ruth Ann Carey of Richland, Wn., and Miss Joan Browning of Kinzua. They wore street length dresses of pink lace over crepe in an Empire style with the burgundy velvet bow and white head veils held by pink satin bows. They all had white accessories and carried nosegays of rosebuds backed with lace matching the bride's gown. The nosegays were made by Mrs. Ida Blanchard of Brookings.

Serving as best man for his brother was David Denton of Brookings with Richard Anderson of Portland, William Gubser of John Day and Kenneth Wham of Kinzua as ushers. Robert Hulett of Kinzua carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The bride's grandmother wore a royal blue knit suit with white accessories and the groom's mother chose a green knit suit with brown accessories. The bride's mother appeared in a red suit. All had corsages of white carnations.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Robert Kelso who also accompanied Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Freeman who sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "Lord Bless This Hour."

Immediately after the ceremony, the young couple greeted their many friends and received their congratulations at the reception held in the church basement where the pink and white three-tiered wedding cake centered the serving table. After sharing the first slice, the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Warren Jobe of Fossil. The coffee was served by Mrs. Harlan Denton of Prineville and the punch was served by Mrs. Verne Kirby of Fossil. The guest book was cared for by Miss Cheryl Gubser of John Day with the gift table in charge of Miss Verina French of Heppner and Miss Sharon Hubbell of Kinzua.

The bride is a graduate of Wheeler High school in Fossil and the groom of Brookings High school. They will make their home in Coos Bay where Verlin is employed by the West Coast Telephone Company.

ESTARL Awards Available To Youth In Religious Fields

Mrs. Dick Wilkinson, state fund chairman of Eastern Star Training Awards for Religious Leadership, began the first of a series of fund-raising visits this past week with visits to Arcadia Chapter No. 84 in Fossil and Condon Chapter No. 23.

Known as ESTARL, this fund contributes to religious training of students by giving awards each year to young men and women in need of financial assistance in their senior year in college or to complete graduate work.

Students need not be a Masonic or Eastern Star affiliate to apply. In fact, the majority of the awardees have been non-fraternal people in the 10 years the project has been sponsored in Oregon.

Mrs. Wilkinson has a district of 14 O.E.S. chapters to visit personally in Eastern Oregon, and directs the activities of nine other committee members whose job it is to personally contact each of the 167 chapters in the state to raise funds for these awards.

Anyone interested in obtaining further information regarding these awards may contact Mrs. Wilkinson.
