

Frosh Comment On Heppner High

It seems freshmen are enjoying their first year in high school. Linda Starks and Sandy Matheny remarked, "We like it!"

Sue Griffith, who was expecting "more knocks from upper classmen," said, "I love it."

The freshmen boys don't seem quite as enthusiastic as the girls. Robbie Abrams commented that Heppner High is "O.K." Mark Pointer likes going to school in Heppner a lot. Lee Huson simply said, "It's different... very different."

School Library Is Busy Place

The HHS library saw much use during the first three weeks of school. A total of 667 books, magazines, pamphlets, films, and filmstrips have circulated during the first three weeks of school.

During each period a student librarian is on duty to assist with the library services. They are kept busy with circulation materials, keeping the library collection in order, binding volumes of magazines and helping to prepare bulletin boards.

Orientation periods have been held by Mrs. Madge Thomson, librarian, for 11 classes in English, speech and science on the use of the library; how and where to find materials.

The library is open all day, before school, and during the noon hour. A PTA mother is assisting each noon hour at the circulation desk in order to give Mrs. Thomson time for lunch and to transact library duties such as handling film requests from teachers. PTA mothers helping are Harriet Hall, Mabel Heath, Ilene Padberg, Adelle LaTrace, Billie Kemp, Jo Pettyjohn, Margaret Stewart, Kay Robinson, and LaVonne Bloodworth.

Students Attend Press Conference

"Making Media Work" was the theme of the 6th annual Eastern Oregon Press Conference in Pendleton September 24.

Sixteen students and their journalism advisors, Mrs. Dick and Mrs. Weatherford, attended the conference at Pendleton High School.

They attended sessions for newspaper and yearbook staffs conducted by specialists in these fields.

The conference lasted from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Participants were served luncheon after which Clyde Swisher gave an informative talk on "Media in Chicago."

Editors attending were Marty Bovajian, Gale Malcom, Teensie Moore, Martha Peck, Marsha Sowell, Jill Schmidt, and Pam McCabe.

Others attending were Mike Sweeney, Rick Johnston, Roger Leonnig, Tim Smith, Randy Stillman, Bill Stockard, Nancy Doherty, Chris Munkers and Donna Potter.

Cast Selected For Class Play

"The Bride's Stand-in" has been selected as the play for the third period speech class will give November 9. The play has three acts and has a cast composed of sophomores, juniors and seniors.

Chosen by the class to play the roles are Pam McCabe as Robin, Barbara Bloodworth as Lynn, Mark Tullis as Mr. Brian, and Marsha Sowell takes the part of Aunt Elsie.

Bridges, the butler, will be acted by John Cox. Jim Jacobs plays Bob Huntington, Kathy Melby plays Mrs. Southy, and Kurt Forrest is portrayed by Dennis O'Donnell.

"The Bride's Stand-in" an action-packed comedy, will be directed by the new speech and drama teacher, Mr. Fielder.

Two Clubs Share Cost of Whirlpool

A whirlpool bath has been purchased by the Heppner athletic department. The H-Club and the Booster Club combined to pay for the whirlpool.

The whirlpool will enable the players with injuries to heal much faster.

Coach Ed Hiemstra is pleased with the benefit his football "walking wounded" have received from the whirlpool bath.

Heppner Senior, Alias Joe Maloney, Full of Pep, Jokes

A familiar face seen walking down the halls of Heppner High is Joe Maloney (more commonly known to us as Mike Sweeney.)

A senior at HHS this year, Mike is full of pep and energy. He is always around to tell a few jokes and get a laugh or two!

High on the list of his favorite past times and hobbies are girls and golf. (In that order!)

Many of you may wonder why Mike has such muscles and energy. This may be due to the fact that he has an after-school job. He is a check-out boy at Central Market.

To prove his ability and power Mike is challenging some of the girls of the Journalism II class to a duel. The final outcome may be too bad for Mike!

Future plans for his education include going to college. He intends to major in law at Gonzaga University in Spokane.

Students Lose Money in Hall

Recently a thief was caught in the halls by some of the students. This thief was openly stealing money out of the pockets of unsuspecting people.

Was this criminal reported? What punishment was he given?

Well, the criminal wasn't reported so he couldn't be punished. Who was the culprit? It was every student's best friend, the mechanical monster by the counseling room. The reason for its bad deeds was that the pop machine was out of change.

Dance Follows Game

The Condon game was followed by a record dance sponsored by the Student Council, lasting from 10 till 12. Refreshments were served.

Football Players Injured; Three Back for Action

Frank Lovgren and Russell Kilkenny both sustained knee injuries Saturday night at the Heppner-Hermiston J.V. game.

Frank, Mustang end, received a broken leg during the second quarter of the game. It is reported that he will be in a cast for at least three months and will miss the remainder of the season.

Russell, Mustang tackle, received a badly wrenched knee during the first quarter. He will probably miss the coming Madras game, then return to practice the following week.

"This will probably be the only way I'll ever get my name in the paper for football," was Russell's only comment. Both boys are juniors.

Meanwhile, three other players have recovered from previous games. Jim Jacobs, returning from a hip injury sustained in the Condon game, saw bits of action Saturday night.

Mike Alsop, back from a knee injury received in the first game, will be in full form for the Madras game. Rick Johnston will be back in action again after recovering from a wrist injury.

Mustang Gridmen Score First Win

Everything went right! That was the consensus Saturday night after Heppner's Mustangs had crushed Hermiston JV's by a whopping 45-0!

As is often the case, senior Jim Doherty led the charging Mustang offensive by racking up four touchdowns. One, the opening score for Heppner, was on a pass from Dave Hall, while the others were on a sheer running force.

Sparkling sophomore prospect, Dean Kindle, ran for two of the other TD's. Hall returned a punt for the final score.

Mike Alsop, who twice booted kickoffs into the end zone, also dropped three attempts into the scoring column. Alsop, who was available only for kicking duties because of a leg injury, is now expected to be ready for full action this week.

Hermiston was obviously newer in the game. Quarter scores were 13-0, 25-0, and the third quarter saw the last of the scoring, adding up to 45-0.

Although a victory over a larger school's junior varsity team is seemingly of little significance, Coach Ed Hiemstra pointed out that Hermiston used many of its varsity players in the game.

Mustangs Face First League Tilt

Heppner's Mustangs play their first Greater Oregon League game at 1:30 Saturday against Madras at Madras.

The White Buffaloes opened their league plays last Friday and lost to Burns, 33-20. The Mustangs have looked real sharp their last two games. They will be hurting a little Saturday without Frank Lovgren and Russell Kilkenny, who suffered leg injuries in the Hermiston game. However, all-conference Mike Alsop and fullback Jim Jacobs will return to the starting line-up at Madras.

Coach Hiemstra's new offense is really paying off as was evident in the 45-0 victory over the Hermiston JV's last Saturday.

With the return of Jacobs to the backfield, the Mustangs will be hard to stop.

A spectator bus will take students to Madras. The cost is 50 cents for the trip.

Hunting Season To Open; Best Story-Teller Lost

When hunting season begins this Saturday, many HHS students will be trying to bag the big buck. The football team will be at a slight disadvantage as they will be in Madras playing a game.

The coaches are a bit disappointed with the schedule of a game on the first day of deer season, also.

The Hehisch is sorry to report that the A. No. 1 story-teller in the school last year, Dick Flaiz, will be lost due to graduation and will be unable to report to the Hehisch his hunting tales.

Mustang Jayvees Tie with Condon

The HHS junior varsity fought to a 13-13 tie with the Condon Blue Devils in a game played on the Mustang turf last Monday, September 26.

The Mustangs' first score came on a 30-yard scamper by sophomore Mark Tullis. Tullis also added the other TD. Hal Bergstrom, freshman end, hauled in a John McCabe pass for the extra point.

The Mustangs held the Blue Devils scoreless in the first half, protecting their 13-0 lead. But the Blue Devils came out fired up for the second half and matched the score.

This is the second tie game played by the local JV's with Condon this year.
