

Martha Peck Heads
Slate of New Officers
Of Rainbow Assembly

"God is Love" was the theme Miss Martha Peck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Peck of Lexington, chose as she was installed Worthy Advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, Sunday afternoon, October 2, in the Heppner Masonic Hall.

Officers installed with her for the fall term are Linda Clark, worthy associate advisor; Linda Heath, charity; Linda Orwick, hope; Jill Padberg, faith; Sue Melby, chaplain; Mary Kay Hughes, religion; Cindy Harris, nature; Linda Cooper, immortality; Karen Cox, confidential observer; Karla Weatherford, outer observer; Teresa Wright, musician, and Billie June Marquardt, choir director.

Kathy Melby, retiring worthy advisor, acted as installing worthy advisor for Martha, and Mrs. Richard (Shirlee) Clark, La Grande, was chaplain. Sara Miller served as installing recorder, Jan Hager as marshal, and Mrs. W. S. Miller as musician.

Special visitors from the Condon Rainbow Assembly were Mrs. Morgan, mother advisor; Nanette Johnson, worthy advisor and Diane Lutz, grand page.

Honored guests introduced to the assembly by the new worthy advisor were her grandmother, Mrs. Emma Peck; her aunt, Miss Etta Millett of Pendleton; her brother, Steve Peck, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Peck.

During the crowning ceremony, Sara Miller sang "You'll Never Walk Alone", accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Miller.

Shades of blue and gold, the colors of the new worthy advisor, highlighted the reception following the installation. Pretty cakes made and decorated by Martha and her mother were served with coffee and punch at the candlelit table.

Those serving were Mrs. Paul Brown, Miss Etta Millett and Mrs. Millard Nolan. Jeanine Hunt was in charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Harold Erwin, Mrs. Eldon Padberg, Mrs. Ola Ruggles and Mrs. Charles Stout formed the kitchen committee.

Bar Convention Calls
Couples to Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Winter attended the Oregon Bar Association annual meeting in Medford during the past week. Winter left last Wednesday morning by auto and his wife followed by plane the next day.

In addition to attending meetings, the Winters spent some enjoyable time touring historic homes and buildings and visiting the antique shops and art colony in Jacksonville. On Saturday they saw the annual Tent Show, an amateur production put on by the Bar Association, at the Shakespearean theatre in Ashland.

Also attending the convention were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Balfe, who left Tuesday, September 27. They stopped overnight to visit friends in Salem, continuing to Medford on Wednesday.

Mrs. Balfe, who had not been to Medford before, was impressed by its beautiful surroundings. They returned to Heppner on Saturday.

Reception to Mark
25th Anniversary

Relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Wright are invited to a reception honoring the couple on their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, October 16, from 2 to 4:30 p.m. at their ranch home at Ruggs.

The Wrights were married October 15, 1941, in Lewiston, Idaho, and have lived in the Hardman and Heppner area since that time.

Arranging the reception are the couple's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Wright, Pendleton; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn W. Smith, all of Heppner.

The couple requests that no gifts be given.

Elks Pinochle Tourney
Underway This Week

The Elks pinochle tournament began with a meeting of the group on Wednesday, October 5, for sign-up night.

Those who could not be there that night should contact Mrs. Darrell Padberg before the first night of tournament play on October 12.

Portland Girl Bride
Of Dennis D. Doherty
At Air Base Ceremony

A ceremony in the East joined in marriage Miss Anne Lewis Linsdell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Charles Linsdell, Jr., of Portland, and Lieut. Dennis Doyle Doherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Doherty of Heppner.

The couple exchanged marriage vows Thursday, September 8, at an impressive ceremony at the Bolling Air Force Base chapel in Washington, D. C.

For her wedding, the bride chose to wear a simply styled dress of white knit, fashioned with square neckline, edged with a border of shell knit. A white lace mantilla adorned her head and shoulders. She carried a small white bridal bouquet of bouvardia and roses.

The couple was honored at a reception following the ceremony in the Pitcairn Room of the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D. C.

Both young people attended the University of Oregon, Eugene, where the bride was a member of Gamma Phi Beta. Lieut. Doherty graduated from the university in 1964, and was affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity.

The newly married couple is now at home at 5718 10th Road North, Arlington, Va., near where the groom is stationed with the Air Force.

Parents of the bride traveled east to attend the wedding. The groom's parents, however, were unable to attend.

Altar Society Plans
Annual Smorgasbord

October meeting of St. Patrick's Altar Society was devoted to discussion of plans for the annual Harvest Smorgasbord, planned for Sunday afternoon, October 16, at the parish hall. The meeting was well attended, with Mrs. Pat O'Brien and Mrs. Glen Ward serving as hostesses.

The usual fine variety of foods, prepared by members of the parish, will be served smorgasbord style between the hours of 3:00 and 7:00 p.m. on Sunday, October 16. Forists of hunters in the area are extended a special welcome to "come as you are" and enjoy the community fellowship. Nursery services will be provided for small children.

On the committee directing arrangements for the smorgasbord are Mrs. Randy Lott, Mrs. A. C. Lindsey and Mrs. Charles Doherty.

Delegates to Report
At Legion Dinner

The American Legion, the Legion Auxillary and friends will meet Monday, October 10, at 7 p.m. to hear reports of the boys and girls who were delegates to Beaver Boys' State and Girls' State during the summer months.

Martha Peck and Verina French were delegates to Girls' State and Steve Anderson, Bob Harris, Jim Jacobs and Mike Sweeney were delegates to Boys' State from Heppner High school.

The meeting will begin with a potluck dinner for which the auxillary will furnish the meat dish.

Auxiliary President, Mrs. Frank Hamlin urges members to set the pace of the year by attending the October meeting and making it a big night.

Summer Activities
Reported at Meeting

Members of the Heppner Mothers club met at the home of the club president, Mrs. Herman Winter, for its monthly meeting Monday evening. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Rod Murray.

During the business session, reports were heard of committees who had worked during the summer on the sidewalk bazaar, fair booth and parade float. A committee was appointed to update the club constitution, composed of Mrs. Moose Stephens, chairman; Mrs. Mel Dixon, Mrs. Lynn Pearson, Mrs. Anita Stockard, Mrs. Loren Lucore and Mrs. Winter.

Guest of the evening was Mrs. Kirk Rinehart, wife of the new Episcopal church rector.

Program of the evening was devoted to "Our Vacation Trips," with each member telling highlights of trips taken during the summer months.

Hospital committees were volunteered for the coming months.

The November 7 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bob Abrams, with a special program on "Famous Jewels" to be given by Randall Peterson.

Couple Married

Earl E. Curtis and Claire Nowland Buchanan were joined in marriage Sunday, October 2, at Irigoin by Ernest E. Jorgensen, justice of the peace. Mrs. Curtis operated the Stanfield Beauty Salon for the past 10 years, and Curtis is employed by Harry Proudfoot at his ranch on the Buttercreek highway.

Two Women Teachers
Join Honor Society

Two Heppner High school teachers, Mrs. Bernice Struckmeier and Mrs. Rachel Dick, were among those initiated into Iota Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma at ceremonies at the Tapadera banquet room in Pendleton on Saturday, September 24.

Presiding at the first fall meeting and initiation ceremonies was Mrs. LaVelle Province, president of Pendleton.

Members from Morrow and Umatilla counties who were initiated into this honor society for women educators were Mrs. Struckmeier and Mrs. Dick, both of Heppner; Betty Mathews of Pilot Rock; and Hope Baney, Hazel Case, Margaret Harvey and Jean Lemchau, all of Pendleton.

Friends Honor Bride At Shower

IONE — Mrs. Dale Rodriguez was honored at a lovely bridal shower in the social rooms of the United Church of Christ last Thursday afternoon. She opened her many lovely gifts at a table covered with a white cloth and pink net.

Assisting with the gifts were Mrs. Donald Eubanks, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Wayne Hams. Making an attractive nosegay from the ribbons on the packages was Miss Barbara Bishop. A bouquet of bright pink and white petunias with candles was the center of attention on the tea table. Mrs. John Eubanks, mother of the bride, served the coffee and Mrs. Dan Rodriguez of Hermiston, mother-in-law of the bride, poured punch.

Among out of town guests present were Mrs. Vela Eubanks and Mrs. C. C. Brenner of Madras; Mrs. Donald Eubanks of Portland; Mrs. Howard Eubanks of Arlington, and her aunt, Miss Mabel McCabe from California; Mrs. Rodriguez, Mrs. Cecil Thorne and Mrs. Gottfried Hermann of Hermiston. Also Mrs. Alice McCabe, Mrs. David Barnett, Mrs. Larry Prock and Mrs. Darlene Snider, all of Heppner, and Mrs. Archie Munkers of Lexington.

Hostesses for the party included Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom, Sr., Mrs. Clell Rea, Mrs. Herman Bletell, Mrs. Donald Heilker, Mrs. Lloyd Morgan, Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn Sr., Mrs. Berl Akers, Mrs. Wallace Matthews, and Mrs. Al Fetsch, Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Mrs. Earl McCabe, Sandra Eubanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks of Ione, and Dale Rodriguez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rodriguez of Hermiston, were united in marriage in Virginia City, Nev. on September 6 at an evening ceremony. The bride wore a blue light wool dress fashioned with long sleeves of lace and deep pink accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Ione High school and has attended Eastern Oregon College. She is a former Morrow County Fair and Rodeo Queen, and an excellent horsewoman, having won many honors in this field. The groom and his family came from Huntington to Hermiston, where he graduated from Hermiston High school. He is now employed in construction work and they are making their home in Hermiston.
