

Couple Repeat Vows In Temple Ceremony; Receptions Follow

Miss Connie Christopherson of Ione and Carl Max Barnum of Warden, Wn., were married Saturday, August 20, in the L.D.S. Temple at Oakland, Calif.

The bride wore a white satin wedding gown, trimmed in imported Italian lace and seed pearls. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Ted Bohn, who also wore white. The bride's mother and the groom's mother were dressed in white, as were the men in the wedding party, which is traditional for temple marriages.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom and the bride's family met at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bohn for a wedding luncheon. The young couple then left for their honeymoon in the redwoods of California and up the coast highway.

There was an open house in Warden, Wash., August 25 at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Barnum, honoring the couple.

On Friday evening, August 26, a reception was held for the newlyweds at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson of Ione. The bride wore a bouquet of white gladiolus and white roses.

The bride's attendants, Mrs. Ted Bohn, Livermore, Calif., Miss Diana Froebe, The Dalles; Miss Anita Barnum, Warden, Wash., and the bride's sister, Miss Wendy Christopherson of Ione, were dressed in outfits of green and blue brocade and carried bouquets of white spider mums. Twin nieces of the groom served the groom's cake. The bride's mother wore a green and orange brocade dress and the groom's mother wore a white knit suit, trimmed with blue.

Miss Susan Lindstrom attended the guest book. Miss Cheryl Lundell and Miss Donna Pointer presided at the gift table. Mrs. Virgil Jeppsen, aunt of the bride, poured punch and Mrs. Ersel Christopherson, another aunt of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Gary Tullis, Mrs. Garland Swanson and Mrs. Ralph Crum assisted with the refreshments.

Those attending from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilliland, and Mrs. Laura Pierce of Walla Walla; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Froebe, Karen and Joe Thompson, all of The Dalles; Mr. and Mrs. Ersel Christopherson and family of Hubbard; Mrs. Ada Christopherson of Aurora; Mrs. Ethel Jeppsen, Canby; Mrs. Virgil Jeppsen, West Linn, and Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Barnum and family, Warden, Wash., as well as many friends from the immediate area.

The young couple is living in Portland, where he is attending Portland State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Steiger and two children of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ball of Pendleton were here the past weekend to hunt with the A. C. Ball family.

population at 23,000 is more than four times the population of Morrow.

"Our jail here isn't fit to hold someone over night," the chief said. He also pointed out the difficulty experienced by an officer in placing prisoners in the jail, when an arrest is made at night and the officer goes to the courthouse alone with a prisoner. The system of locks getting in to the jail makes it very awkward to hold a reluctant prisoner and get into the jail, too.

The council agreed to ask the telephone company to move the phone booth, now in front of the Northwestern Motel, to a new location. A location one block south, near Carl Spaulding's office, was suggested. The booth creates something of a nuisance at the motel especially at night when a number of persons gather there while one of the group is making a call.

One councilman also pointed out that the company is not doing a very good job in taking care of the booth. He said that markings made on Hallows' at the booth were still there a year later.

No Parking Approved

The council decided to place no parking signs on Barratt Boulevard, the street that runs along the edge of the hill overlooking the rodeo grounds. The street is too narrow to permit two lanes of traffic when cars are parked on it, and it brings congestion at rodeo time when many use the street to watch the rodeo. The no parking provision will extend for the length of the street.

Building permits were granted to Bruce Bothwell, $600, for a new roof; Elmer Moe, $150, outside stairway and repairs; and W. C. Cox, $200, new roof.

Currins Announce Birth of Fourth Son

Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Henry Lazinka, Pendleton; paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. George Currin, Heppner, and great grandmother is Mrs. Hugh Currin, Pendleton.

Mrs. Alex Thompson returned to Portland last week-end after a visit of several days with Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter, Jr. and family. Mr. Thompson, Brian and Linda came from Portland to take her home and the family also visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thompson.

stands the same at 25.2, but Lexington's city levy goes down 4 mill to 4.9 from 5.3. Irrigation also will be down 4 mill to 8.2 from 8.6.

The "hold the line" policy is further indicated by the total amount to be collected by the sheriff as compared with last year. It will be $1,251,798.15, as compared with $1,203,956.70 last year, an increase of only some $48,000 in the total of all agencies getting property taxes from across the county — including schools, Blue Mountain College, cemetery districts, fire districts, cities, county (for county purposes), Port of Morrow, park districts, and others.

Mrs. Groves Enjoys Teaching in Alaska

Mrs. Maurice (Janet) Groves is enjoying her new position as counsellor at Kenai High school on the Kenai peninsula in Alaska, her husband, Maurice, said after returning to Heppner Tuesday night following a three weeks trip there.

"The people are very friendly and she has good kids in the school," Maurice said. She is located about 160 miles from Anchorage.

It takes 3 1/2 hours to travel from Kenai to Anchorage by auto since one must go the long way around the bay. However, the distance can be covered by air in 20 minutes, cutting across, Groves said.

The Heppner man reported that Anchorage's business district is pretty well recovering from the Good Friday earthquake of 1964 (March 27) but some scars are still visible.

He said that the trip to Alaska was an enjoyable one, his first to the northernmost state. Weather was fine except for some rain.

Mrs. Groves formerly taught at Heppner High school for a number of years.

by donations from local firms and organizations. The boys are both juniors and have been in FFA for the past three years. Each is an officer in the local chapter and has participated in many FFA activities.
