

Ione 4-H Youth Join To Present Church Service

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — Ione 4-H members from all clubs combined for a Sunday worship service at the Ione United Church of Christ arranged by Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. L. A. McCabe and Mrs. Henry Krebs. Merilee Jacobs extended a welcome and opened the service and Jane Krebs gave the 4-H invocation and Clint Krebs, the 4-H pledge. Mrs. Marjorie Wilcoxon, county extension agent, spoke of loyalty to 4-H.

Linda Pettijohn read Psalms 111 as the scripture lesson and Rev. Walter B. Crowell delivered the sermon "Using our 4-H's for God." Kristin Nelson pronounced the benediction.

Lighting the candles were Cassie Chapel and Christina Lindstrom, and ushers were Herbie Ekstrom, Clint Krebs, Charles Nelson, and Keith Nelson. The 4-H choir sang a special number accompanied by Denise Matthews at the piano. Those in the choir besides those already mentioned were Doris McCabe, Nancy Pettijohn, Marie Linnell, Freddie Sherman, Jan Ekstrom, Cindy Ekstrom, and Tanya Tucker.

Brian and Mark Rietmann, whose birthdays fall on September 30 and October 1, celebrated with a family party on September 30 at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rietmann and family, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Rietmann and Chris, Mrs. Esper Hanson of Portland, and their little brother, Greg.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heimburger went to Portland the past week-end to attend the University of Oregon-Stanford football game. They met Tom Heimburger and Cheryl Lundell and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Osibov of Eugene in Portland.

Room Committees Appointed
Room representatives of the Ione PTA are busily contacting the parents of school children in the annual drive for membership. Mrs. Don McElligott and Mrs. Robert Rietmann are co-chairmen of the membership and room representative committee. They have announced the following room representatives for the school year: Mrs. Paul Tewes, first grade; Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom, second grade; Mrs. Keith Bea, third grade; Mrs. Mary Holtz, fourth grade; Mrs. Louis Carlson, fifth grade; and Mrs. H. R. Krebs, eighth grade.

Those representing the high school classes are: Mrs. Pete Cannon, ninth grade; Mrs. Berl Akers, 10th grade; Mrs. Bryce Keene and Mrs. Norman Nelson, 11th grade, and Mrs. Wallace Matthews, 12th grade. The grade school mothers are planning three parties for the rooms, Halloween, Christmas, and Valentine's Day. The room representatives will also be responsible for committees for the social hour following all PTA meetings.

A recent guest of Mrs. Edith Nicholson was Mrs. Anna Fehmerling of Seaview, Wash. She has been visiting relatives and friends in Heppner and will be remembered as the former Anna Buschke.

Mrs. William Moller, Elisabeth and Anne were week-end guests of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom. Mrs. Elmer Griffith accompanied her back to Gresham on Sunday and will spend the week in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Barthalamy and family of Odessa spent the week-end with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sherer and sons.

Recent guests of Mrs. Dolbert Emert were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fahey of Oakland, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Rohde and Paul of Kennewick spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann.

Mrs. John Swanson left on Friday for Portland to meet her husband, who came in on a plane from Atlanta, Ga., on Saturday. Mr. Swanson has been in Atlanta for five weeks taking a training course with Crawford Insurance adjusters. He graduated among the top ten of his class. Their small daughter will remain for a week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Garland Swanson, while her parents find a new home in Portland, where Mr. Swanson will be employed.

Miss Rebekah Case and Miss Rita Kerr have moved from the Brenner trailer home to the home owned by Mrs. Dale Ray on upper Main Street.

Miss Virginia McClain of Albany is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom Sr. Also spending the week-end at home was Roland Ekstrom, who is attending Eastern Oregon College at La Grande.

Bunchgrass Rebekah Lodge No. 91 met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Swanson, with Mrs. Adon Hamlet as co-hostess. Plans were made for the District Convention, which will be held in Heppner on November 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hamar and grandson Randy of Portland were week-end hunting guests of Mrs. E. C. Heliker and Mr. and Mrs. Don Heliker in the mountains.

Mark Halvorsen and Jay Ball, students at E.O.C. spent the week-end at their homes here. Joe Halvorsen, a sophomore at C.B.C. was also home for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Portschey and Rodney of Portland arrived on Saturday to spend a few days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hershah Townsend and to get their young son, Brent, who has been here for two weeks.

Ione High school football boys had the opportunity to attend a college football game on Saturday when they were invited to attend the Oregon State vs. Northwestern game at Corvallis as guests of Irvin Rauch, Morrow county school board member. The boys from here joined boys from Heppner and Riverside to enjoy the game. Those going from here were Jim Swanson, Keith and Charles Nelson, Tom and Pat McElligott, Frank Halvorsen, John Krebs, Neil and Ron Christopherson, and Coach Gordon Meyers.

Parents are reminded that on Friday, October 14, there will be no school in elementary or high school, while teachers are attending in-service training.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettijohn Sr. and Wayne Hams spent the week-end in Seattle, where Mrs. Wayne Hams has been all week with their little daughter, Leslie. The baby was very ill a week ago, her heart completely stopped during surgery and had to be massaged manually through an opening in the chest. She has recovered nicely and they expect to be able to bring her home in about a week. The baby has been under observation at the University of Washington Medical School for six weeks for a very rare disease. The disease has finally been diagnosed as Glycogen Storage Disease or Von Gerke's Disease, an ailment of the liver, which can be controlled by diet and medicine.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Doherty returned Monday evening from a vacation through Central Oregon to Cactus Lake, the Oregon Caves and on to the redwoods and Crescent City, Calif. They made the return trip home by the Oregon Coast. Mrs. Doherty's mother, Mrs. Byron Bradshaw of Albany, and her cousin Nelle Collins, St. Joseph, Mo., stayed with the children during their parents' absence.

Francis Ruth and son Bob of Harrington, Wash., visited her sister, Mrs. Stella O'Meara, recently.

Delegates to Report Tuesday
