

Faculty and Parents
Of High School Youth
Feted at PTA Dinner

Candlelight and background music made dining out a treat for about 100 Heppner High school parents and teachers Wednesday evening, October 12, in the senior high cafeteria. Mothers of students brought a bounteous potluck dinner for the occasion and beautiful fall floral arrangements decorated the room.

Principal Richard Carpenter introduced his staff members to the group, and teachers introduced those accompanying them, after which a small amount of PTA business was transacted.

Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, PTA president, initiated a handsome gavel made for the Heppner PTA by the late B. C. Forsythe whose son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Dick, have been PTA presidents here.

Mrs. Lovgren acted as general chairman for the event and room mothers were helpers. On the calling committee were Mrs. Charles Starks, freshmen; Mrs. Bernard Marshall, sophomores; Mrs. Creston Robinson, juniors; and Mrs. Barney Malcom, seniors.

Mrs. Malcom and Mrs. Frank Anderson pinned name tags for parents and Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. David McLeod gave out name tags and corsages to the teachers. Mrs. Nona Sowell and Mrs. Boice Fullerton sold PTA memberships during the evening.

Mrs. William Rawlins made the main floral centerpiece and she and her husband supplied the flowers for table centerpieces arranged by Mrs. Walt Jacobs, Mrs. Garry Tullis, Mrs. Howard Bryant and Mrs. Malcom. Teachers' corsages were made by the Ione Garden Club.

Several mothers assisted in the kitchen and appreciated the help of Mrs. Eva Griffith who besides being a high school mother is one of the cooks at the high school.

Piano music during the dinner was played by Marsha Sowell and by Kathy Melby.

December 12 will be the next date of a high school PTA meeting when parents will be escorted to the school by their children for an open house featuring a miniature school day arranged so that the parent can have a few minutes each in his child's classes.

Garden Club Makes
Plans for Popular
Christmas Idea Show

"Christmas is Coming" is the theme chosen for the Christmas show sponsored by the Ione Garden Club. The show, presented by the club for the first time in 1965 in Lexington, proved very popular, and the many requests received for a repeat resulted in the prospective 1966 show.

The executive committee is meeting this week at the Lloyd Johnson home in Lexington to name committees, choose a date and place for the show, and make other necessary plans. All persons, both members and non-members are invited to enter their favorite Christmas decorations. Blue, red and white ribbons will be given for the first, second, and third place winners.

The October meeting of the Ione Garden Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Klingler in Lexington with Mrs. H. S. Huber as co-hostess. Mrs. Klingler's yard was ablaze with autumn splendor. Chrysanthemums and shrubbery vied with each other to add to the glory of autumn. A striking eye-catcher in the living room was a late bloomer of the iris family.

Mrs. Garry Tullis, Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mrs. C. C. Jones made interesting reports of the recent District No. 10 meeting held in Pendleton.

The executive committee has changed the date of the next meeting to November 9, since the scheduled date falls on Election Day. The Garden Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Garry Tullis with Mrs. Kenneth Palmer assisting on this date. A film "The Fine Art of Sterling Design" will be presented, showing period settings and modern scenes — both abroad and in the United States, with table settings and flower arrangements.
