

Willows Grange Starts Activities for Fall

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—About 40 Grangers and friends enjoyed the hamburger supper at Willows Grange Hall on Saturday evening, October 15. Supper was followed by a brief business meeting.

An investigation was ordered on the hall insurance with the report to be made at the November meeting. The many improvements on the hall have caused the value to just about double its insured value.

Two names were submitted for membership, one by reinstatement and one by initiation. Election of officers for 1967 will be an important order of business for the meeting on November 19.

The 35th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace (Mike) Matthews was announced for Sunday, October 30, at which time they will hold open house from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. All friends are invited to call.

Following the business meeting, cards were enjoyed by members and guests. In pinocle, Earl Morgan won high; in pinochle, Mrs. Marion Palmer was high and David Rietmann, low, and Mrs. Bert Akers won 300 pinochle. Door prizes were received by Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen and Mrs. Cleo Childers.

Those attending the Mid-Columbia Association meeting of the United Church of Christ at Milton-Freewater last Tuesday and Wednesday were Rev. and Mrs. Walter B. Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Jr., Mrs. Robert Jepsen, Don Bristol, and Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Martin. An outstanding speaker was the Rev. Rick Mason, chaplain of the Las Vegas Strip. He is a minister of the United Church, but his work is interdenominational and he receives assistance from other churches. He specializes in pastoral counseling and suicide prevention. He told of four very interesting projects in which he is involved: a suicide prevention center; and interdenominational coffee house; a marriage counseling service; and a divorce rehabilitation center.

Mrs. Wesley G. Nicholson, conference moderator of the state United Church of Christ, was another speaker on the program. Mrs. Baker is scribe of the Mid Columbia Association and Rev. Crowell officiated at the communion service at the close of the meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Linnell at days in Portland at the Pacific International Exposition showing some prize cattle. Marcie is visiting her friend, D-Ann Barnett, while her parents are away.

Women's Fellowship will meet on Wednesday afternoon, October 26, at 2:00 p.m. in the United Church of Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heimbigner spent Saturday and Sunday in Odessa visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepsen have returned from Spokane, where Mr. Jepsen, vice president of the Oregon Wheat Growers League, attended the fall meeting of Western Wheat Associates at the Bidpath Hotel.

Mrs. Bert Mason, Sr., of Portland visited her granddaughter, Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom and family this week. They returned home with Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Lindstrom visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dorr Mason until Sunday, when Mr. Lindstrom drove down for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Drake left on Wednesday for Eugene, where they went to stay with their two grandsons, while the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner were on vacation. They were called home, however, by the sudden death of Mr. Drake's brother, Ray Drake in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rodriguez have purchased the C. C. Brenner trailer home on Second Street and are moving to Hermiston, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, member of the Knights Templar Eye Foundation of the Grand Chapter O.E.S. of Oregon, made an official visit to Oregon Trail Chapter in Echo on Monday evening. She was accompanied by Mr. Halvorsen and Mrs. Inez Huffman of Heppner. Mrs. Halvorsen also was a visitor at Ionic Chapter in Helix on Thursday evening.

U. N. Report of Interest

Ione Topic Club met at the home of Mrs. Milton Morgan on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Norman Nelson made the report on the "United Nations — Then and Now". At the organization of the United Nations there were 51 member nations, she pointed out, and now there are 122 nations belonging. She discussed the structure and accomplishments of the organization and also told of the parent organizations within the structure of the United Nations contained in the original charter. Despite the many criticisms directed at the U. N., Mrs. Nelson found many points to praise and discussed how different certain aspects of the world situations might be had it not been for the U. N.

Four guests were present for the meeting, Mrs. James West, Mrs. James Marvin, Mrs. Lee Pettyjohn, and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson. Mrs. Charles Carlson assisted Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Morgan with the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crawford drove to Yakima on Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Herval Pettyjohn and family. Mrs. Crawford remained to visit for a week with her daughter and Mr. Crawford returned home on Monday.

M. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom and Christina spent the week-end in Corvallis with their daughter, Susan, and attended the Homecoming festivities at Oregon State. They spent Monday in Portland and brought home Mrs. Lindstrom's mother, Mrs. Elmer Griffith, who has been spending a week in the city.

Walter Roberts has been confined to Pendleton Community hospital for about a week with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan were visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Beck and family in Portland over the week-end.

Mrs. Bert Akers was the recipient at a "Grandma Shower" at the home of Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen last Wednesday afternoon. Guests brought gifts for the two new Akers grandchildren; Jeffrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Akers of Portland, and Ramona, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Mrs. Wallace Matthews, sister of Mrs. Akers, assisted with the gifts. A delicious salad, crackers, and coffee were served the ladies present by Mrs. Halvorsen. Mrs. Ray Heimbigner, Mrs. Raymond Lundell, and Mrs. Hershil Townsend.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker were hosts for a dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Baker and two older daughters stopped in Sunday evening on their way home to Hermiston from the P. I. in Portland. They took their two younger daughters home, who had been visiting with their grandparents.

Varied Program Entertains Audience at PTA Meeting

The Ione PTA met Thursday evening with the year's theme

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

Heppner, Oregon 97836, Thursday, October 20, 1966 Sec. 2

EVERYBODY SAVES ON

Greenfield Sets Hall Dedication

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN — Greenfield Grange held the first meeting in the new hall Saturday night, starting with potluck supper at 6:30. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Black were hosts, with Mrs. Bernard Donovan assisting. Dedication of the new hall, which is practically finished, has been set for December 3.

Greenfield will be hosts for the Pomona Grange session here October 29, starting at 10:30 a.m.

The Boardman Tillicum Club made plans for the annual Halloween party for pre-schoolers and grades 1-4 at their meeting Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Bernard Donovan. The party will be held October 28 at the school. Mrs. Carroll Donovan will furnish the punch, and the other members are to bring cookies for refreshments.

Mrs. Ronald Black, Mrs. Dewey West and Mrs. Donovan reported on the district 7 board meeting held recently in Pendleton. Plans were made to hold a rummage sale the first part of November, the exact date to be published later. Anyone that has rummage to contribute is asked to contact the club.

Mrs. Zoe Billings was presented with a house warming gift.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. LaVern Partlow October 25.

Members of the Boardman Home Extension Unit met Tuesday afternoon at the week of October 24-28 are as follows: Monday — barbecued wieners, whipped potatoes, muffins, vegetable sticks and fruit; Tuesday — baked beans, salad, graham crackers and applesauce; Wednesday — roast beef, rolls, potatoes, gravy, gelatin vegetable salad, and pineapple upside down cake; Thursday — spaghetti, pear and cheese salad, French bread and pudding; Friday — clam chowder, peanut butter sandwiches, corn cobbler and fruit cobbler. Bread, butter and milk are served with all meals.

Visitors Tuesday and Wednesday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Bishop were Bishop's brothers and sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Bishop of Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bishop of Walla Walla, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald B. Bishop of Ione. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop went to Walla Walla to visit over the week-end at the Robert Bishop home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen have received word that their grandson, Bobby Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Allen of Granger, Wash., was on a team of four that won first place with 37 teams competing in a 4-H horse judging contest at the Pacific International Livestock Show in Portland Saturday. There were two boys and two girls on the team, and one girl received grand champion, and the other girl reserve champion. Teams from Oregon, Idaho, Washington and Nevada took part in the judging.

Annie Obermeier spent the week-end in Portland visiting her brother Ray Obermeier, who is a student at Multnomah School of the Bible.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rash and daughter Diane, and Mr. and Mrs. Phil LaCombe went to Valleyford, Wash. Sunday to visit at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Herman R. Burg, former residents here. They returned home Monday.

Mrs. Glen Carpenter visited two days last week in Umatilla at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Carpenter. Visitors of Mrs. Carpenter Thursday until Saturday were Mrs. Ruby Veach and Mrs. Peggy Craft of Wichita, Kans., who were here for the death of their brother, Orville Carpenter of Umatilla.

The JV team of Riverside High school defeated the Helix six man football team last Thursday at Helix 45-34. Coming from behind to win, this was the team's first experience in a six man game.

RUBBER STAMPS made to order, also STAMPING PADS in black, red or green. For business or personal use. Orders filled promptly at the Gazette Times office.

Offices Open For Candidates

By DONNA EPPENBACH

IRRIGON—There will be three 4-year council terms and a 2-year municipal judge term up for election, at the time of the general election, November 8. Candidates may be nominated by petition or file a declaration of intent to run, in order to have their names on the ballot.

Petitions or declarations must be filed with the city recorder at least 10 days prior to the election.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McCorkle announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Glenda, to Marvin D. Kline on Friday, November 4, at 8:00 p.m. at the Hermiston Church of God, with reception following. All friends and relatives invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Williams of Bethel, Wn., were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Elgin and their 3-month-old son, David Louis, are visiting his folks, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Elgin.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warner spent the week-end visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fowler, in Stanwood, Wn.

The Irrigon Community Baptist church had as guest speaker at their Sunday service, Rev. R. R. Banks of the Israel Baptist church of Hermiston and the Mt. Carmel Baptist church of Walla Walla, Wn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Leighton were week-end visitors of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Leighton and family.

Mrs. Zella Brunell was released Wednesday from the Community hospital at Pendleton, following a week's confinement for eye surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Paxson of Vancouver, Wn., were visitors

this week at the home of his mother, Mrs. Elnora Paxson, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Eppenbach. On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reed of Spokane, Wn., visited her grandmother, Mrs. Elnora Paxson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Avery of Newport, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Morgan one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Skiles, Mrs. Myrtle McNamee and Mrs. Reese Morgan attended the retired teachers meeting at the Umatilla Electric Co-op building in Hermiston Saturday, October 15.

Mrs. Wilma Eppenbach of Ewing, Neb., spent Saturday through Tuesday visiting her step-son, Mr. and Mrs. Al Eppenbach and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smawley celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary, Saturday, October 15.

Mrs. Al Partlow and Sheryl and Mrs. Delpha Mills of Hermiston, left Friday for a week-end in Portland. They visited their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Berg and Ronald.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coleman have purchased a home and moved to Yakima, Wn. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hoover have moved to the Coleman property.

Menus for A. C. Houghton school for the week of October 24-28 are as follows: Monday—Hamburger gravy over hot rolls, buttered peas and carrots, peaches, ginger bread and cream. Tuesday—Beef ravioli, potato salad, mixed vegetables, cherry cobbler. Wednesday—Hamburger pizza, french bread, Harvard beets, carrot and raisin salad. Thursday—Roast turkey and gravy, sweet potatoes, green beans, custard or pudding. Friday—Tomato soup, sandwiches—peanut butter or tuna, cottage cheese and peach, cake.

- 9 pc. Screwdriver Set $4.25
- All Weather Motor Oil, 5 qts. 1.29
- Electric Alarm Clocks 641

SEARS Catalog Merchant

176 N. Main Heppner

$10 FREE

To the first Adult* entering our

Bank on Crazy Day—Friday

WEARING A BARREL

$5 FREE SAVINGS ACCOUNT

To the first person coming closest to guessing the total weight of our employees. Come in and Register.

Here Is Our Staff

- Bill Siewert
- Marion Green
- Marlys Phegley
- Donna Webb
- Larry Prock
- Kay Cason
- Marjorie Eckman
- Gene Pierce

We can't very well run a "Sidewalk Bank", but we do want to urge you to join us in fun for Crazy Day in Heppner.

*18 YEARS OLD OR MORE

THIS MESSAGE SPONSORED BY YOUR HOME-OWNED BANK AS A COMMUNITY SERVICE

BANK OF Eastern Oregon

HEPPNER—ARLINGTON—IONE
MEMBER, FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION

(X) ELECT (X)
BOB (Butch) LAUGHLIN
Democrat Candidate

For
MORROW COUNTY ASSESSOR
November 8

"A RELIABLE, EFFICIENT NATIVE OF MORROW COUNTY"

(Pd Adv. by Bob Laughlin, Heppner)

Select a wardrobe of comfort,
Hush Puppies® casuals.

No matter what your mood of the day, there's a Hush Puppies® casual to go with it. Gigi comes in either classic Breathin' Brushed Pigskin® or in glove-soft smooth leather. In the season's best colors, too. Be sure you see the complete comfort wardrobe of Hush Puppies® casuals for your family soon!

GONTY'S