

Greenfield Grange Hosts Meet In New Building

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN — Greenfield Grange was host for the session of Morrow County Pomona Grange on Saturday, the first meeting held in the new hall. Dr. Roy Lieualien, of Eugene, chancellor of higher education, was guest speaker, talking as his topic, "School Dropouts." Other numbers on the program included group singing, led by Flossie Coats; readings, "Plan For Understanding," Mary Lindsay, Ione, and "Care and Understanding of a Husband," Nadine Johnson, Heppner; solo, "The Lord's Prayer," by the Rev. George Neely, pastor of the Boardman Community church, accompanied by Mrs. Carl Marquardt of Lexington.

During the business session it was voted to change the date of Pomona meetings to the last Saturday in the second month of each quarter, with the next one to be February 25, 1967, at Willows Grange in Ione.

Mrs. Ray Drake of Ebesa Creek Grange was elected to finish out the term as treasurer of her late husband, which is for one year. She is to be installed at the county installation of subordinate grange officers to be held in Boardman December 10, at Greenfield hall, starting at 10:30 a.m. There will be potluck dinner at noon, and starting at 1:30 p.m. a county conference will be held. All subordinate grange officers are invited to attend.

Announcement was made of the dedication ceremony for the new grange hall to be here December 3 at 8 p.m.

Guests at the meeting included Martin Buchanan, Democratic candidate for state representative; Milton-Freewater; Mr. and Mrs. Al Moran, State Line Grange; Moran is Umatilla Pomona Master; Wayne French, Multnomah Grange; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wilson, Tillamook Grange; Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Getchell, Columbia Grange; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Davies, Hood River, Rockford Grange; and state deputy Bob Coble and Mrs. Coble of Richmond, Ore.

A turkey dinner was served at noon by the Greenfield Home Economics Club, with the kitchen committee consisting of Mrs. Glen Carpenter, Mrs. W. G. Seehafer, Mrs. Ronald Black, Mrs. Donald Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen, Flossie Coats, Mrs. Walter Hayes, Mrs. Chub Warren, Mrs. Bernard Donovan and Mrs. John Phillips.

B. C. Christiansen and Tom Salter, from the U. S. Corps of Engineers office in Walla Walla, Wash., were present at a meeting of the Boardman Park and Recreation District last week and presented proposed plans of development of the new Boardman Park, which will be located in the area behind the old school house. The initial development will include tree and lawn planting, boat launching facilities, rest rooms and change house, beach, and paved parking areas. These facilities will be added to as needed.

The plans are to be completed by January 1, 1967, and the park is to be ready for use by June, 1968.

The park district board consists of Dean King, Harold Baker, Emmet McKenzie, Robert Sicard and Arthur Allen.

The new Richfield station with Jerry Beck as manager held open house Saturday and Sunday, holding a drawing for prizes Sunday afternoon. Winners included: Leonard Bedord, electric rotisserie; Julie Luce, Elgin, camper light; Mrs. Frank Marlow, one gallon Prestone; Steve Wilgie, two dinners at the Char-Broiler; Donald Irwin, five gallon gasoline; C. P. Sivley, free oil change; Andy Jones, one dinner at the Nomad restaurant; Patsy Skubo, free lube job; Mrs. Ronald Black, Night Hawk lantern; and the following won trouble lights: Bill Betz of Hood River, Roger Zivney of Portland, Harvey Warner of Irrigon, Phil LaCombe, Bob Christiansen and Sharon Heilman.

Dates for the Tillamook Club rummage sale were set for November 16-17 at the meeting of the club last week at the home of Mrs. Laera Partlow. It will be held in the new Greenfield Grange hall.

Mark Hatfield will do more...

"These have been seven short years. They have been seven good years. They have been seven productive years. I would like to continue to be a part of this progress."
Mark Hatfield

"The seeds we sow our children reap. Let us prepare for them a good harvest so that Oregon may have a bountiful second century."
Mark Hatfield

"Oregon cannot remain economically strong, nor can it advance, through actions which deal only with the needs or frustrations of the moment. We must provide for the next decade and beyond, and not merely for the next day or the next biennium."
Mark Hatfield

"Education has been a vital key to our social progress and economic growth. Public expenditures for education are, therefore, properly an investment in our future."
Mark Hatfield

"Oregon's greater progress demands continuing and increasing attention to the important role which agriculture plays in our economy."
Mark Hatfield

"Any man who gauges his political viewpoints on where the votes are and lets his career plans get in the way of his personal integrity... this man is not a leader."
