Sorority Entertains At Hawaiian Luau

Going out Hawaiian style was a treat for members of eta Omega of lone and their guests when they held a Hawaiian luau at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lindstrom recently. Mrs. Art Lindstrom and her social committee, aided by Mrs. Roy Lindstrom and Mrs. Elwayne Bergstrom, were hostesses.

Guests came dressed in Hawaiian costume and were given leis and flowers for the ladies' hair. Each received a name tag with a translation for his name into the Hawaiian language.

Rooms were decorated with palm trees and pictures, and guests sat at low tables on pillows. Music was played throughout the evening.

Hawaiian rum and a variety of Hawaiian foods were served for dinner, and guests played the bamboo game and danced the limbo during the evening.

Matthews Honored On 35th Anniversary

About 100 people signed the guest book at an open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace (Mike) Matthews on Sunday, honoring the couple on their 35th wedding anniversary. Their twin daughters, Deniece and Berniece, were hostesses with the assistance of their uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ely, and Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers.

The rooms were very attractive with beautiful large bouquets of fall chrysanthemums. The white linen covered table was centered with a wedding cake decorated in pink, flanked on each side by pink tapers with pink carnations and ivy twining the base of the candleabras. Coffee and punch were served at the ends of the table by relatives and friends.

The girls greeted the guests at the door dressed in pink outfits with white carnation corsages. The Matthews' niece, Bonnie Akers, was in charge of the guest book.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Ely and Duane of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. David Ely and family and Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Crawford and family of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Ely of Boardman, Mrs. Mattie Morgan of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. David Potter and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hiemstra of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews were married in Heppner on October 31, 1931.

Following the reception the relatives of the family enjoyed a potluck dinner together at the Matthews home.

MR. AND MRS. CHET HERZBERG (JUDITH MARIE EUBANKS)

Eubanks-Herzberg Wedding Performed In Madras Church

lONE—A recent wedding of interest here was that of Judith Marie Eubanks and Chet Clifford Herzberg, who were married on Saturday, August 27, at the Church of Christ in Madras. Rev. Leslie Bennett performed the 8:00 p.m. double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Bill Eubanks of Portland, wore a floor length gown of white brocade satin with long tulle train and elbow length tulle veil. She carried white carnations with red roses.

Maid of honor was Jan DeMoss of Moro, formerly of Heppner. She wore a turquoise green street length dress of chiffon and carried lavender carnations. DeLose Herzberg, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid, attired in a lighter turquoise green dress and carried lavender carnations.

Best man was Max Summerhalder and junior best man was Randy Allman. Guests were seated by Phil Fields and Del Powell, who also served as candle lighters.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church parsonage. Center of attention was the lovely three tiered wedding cake, which was decorated in green and white with a ribboned stairway leading to the top tier on which rested miniature bridal figurines. After the young couple cut the traditional first piece, the cake was served by an aunt of the groom, Mrs. Myrtle Fields. Mrs. Charlotte Hassett, mother of the bride from Portland, and Mrs. Vela Eubanks, grandmother of the bride, poured.

Carol Powell was in charge of the guest book, and presiding at the gift table were Sherry Fields and Cathy Allman.

For her going away costume the bride chose an ice pink frosted nylon suit with a white lace blouse and white satin shoes.

The bride attended lone Grade school and two years of lone High school and was a member of lone Assembly No. 89, Rainbow for Girls. Since she was a very small child, she has made her home with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brenner, who moved to Madras from lone last year. The bride is now finishing her senior year at Madras High.

The groom is a graduate of Madras High school and is presently employed at the mill there, but plans to enter the United States Air Force in November. They are making their home at 860 Commerce St., Madras.
