

Clerk Completes Official Count

Official count of votes cast in the general election in Morrow county has been completed by Mrs. Sadie Parrish, county clerk, and her staff.

A few errors in unofficial returns of election night were found, but none changed the outcome of the election.

A number of the vote errors discovered are in multiples of five, indicating that mistakes may have been made in counting the 5-digit tallies of the counting boards.

Tom McCall for governor polled 913 instead of the 918 reported, as compared with Bob Straub's 802, which was reported correctly in the unofficial total.

Martin Buchanan picked up five votes and Irvin Mann lost five votes in the official count, making their race even closer here than the unofficial count indicated. Buchanan's actual total is 792, instead of 787 as first reported, and Mann's total is 844 instead of the 809 reported election night.

Bob Laughlin, who made an unsuccessful bid for county assessor, also lost five votes in the official count. His total is 766, a compared with the 771 on election night. Bob Thompson's vote stands at 902 in his successful effort for reelection.

Errors found in the balloting for port commission (4-year term) moves Gar Swanson into the top vote-getting spot with 1860 as compared with 1947 for Farney Malcom. Unofficial returns had given Malcom 1089 and Swanson 1945. Both are elected, however, Joe Tatone of Boardman received 589 votes instead of the 553 reported unofficially.

All other results were as reported in unofficial returns. It is common to find errors through the official count since unofficial totals are compiled as quickly as possible under pressure. Seldom, however, are the errors of enough consequence to change the result.

Ski Club Started; Bus Runs Slated

Heppner 4-H Ski club is in the process of formation under the guidance of Bob Henry. Through the club, transportation will be provided on a cost basis to the Arbuckle Mountain ski area, and free instruction on skiing will be given to the members.

The club will emphasize techniques for the beginning skier, Henry said.

Bus runs will start January 7, a Saturday, and will continue for nine Saturdays. Cost will be $18, of which $9 will go for law tickets at the special price for the bus riders, and $9 will go for transportation. The plan is contingent upon getting 40 persons in three ski clubs to sign for the rides and instruction.

Other 4-H clubs are being formed in Ione and in Cecil. The Cecil club will be led by Louis Rucker and leader of the Ione club will be Dick McElligott.

Henry requests that anyone in the Heppner area who is interested contact him as soon as possible.

Financial assistance is being provided by several service clubs and organizations.

TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

Emerson wrote that "for everything you have missed, you have gained something else". This is especially true of my recent efforts in the gubernatorial contest. I gained many friends who selflessly devoted long hours and precious resources to my campaign. For their sacrifices, I shall always be thankful.

In the past few months, we have attempted to focus attention on the problems and issues which will confront Oregon in the decade ahead. I hope we were successful in this effort, for if we were, the political campaign was worthwhile.

You, your staff, and your readers have been kind in the attention paid to our efforts. For your kindness, I think you all.

Sincerely,
Robert W. Straub
State Treasurer
