Grange and HEC Officers Named For Coming Year

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON — Lexington Grange met on Saturday for its regular meeting with the Master Charles C. Jones in the chair. At this time an election of officers was held with the following named: master, Charles C. Jones; overseer, Gene Majeske; secretary, Kenneth Smouse; treasurer, Jean Nelson; gatekeeper, Norman Nelson; steward, Jim Bloodworth; assistant steward, Joe Yocom; lecturer, Delpha Jones; chaplain, Marie Steagall; lady assistant steward, Hilda Yocom; Pomona, Alice Majeske; Ceres, Nora Turner, and Flora, Frieda Majeske. Executive board members are Fred Nelson, Florence McMillan and Frances Smouse.

Following the meeting the lecturer's program was given by the HEC with Mrs. Ola Ruggles acting as installing officer. Newly elected HEC officers for 1967 are Mrs. C.C. Jones, chairman; Mrs. Ernest Christopherson, vice chairman; Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, secretary, and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, treasurer. All ladies were presented lovely corsages.

A poem on the origin of the chrysanthemum was heard, after which Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson were honored for their 25th wedding anniversary. While Mrs. Nelson opened a gift from the Grange, Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Tews, played selections appropriate to the occasion.

Following the meeting, cake and coffee were served, the cake was a lovely creation made and decorated by Mrs. Ed Hunt, and held white and yellow bells with yellow writing.

Next meeting will be the annual turkey dinner, planned for December 10. Potluck salads and desserts will be brought by the members, with main dish of turkey and trimmings furnished by the grange.

Entertain State President

Holy Rebekah Lodge met last Wednesday for a special meeting with the state Rebekah President, Mrs. Mae Kafer present. This was a meeting held jointly with the Burchgrass ladies of Ione. The meeting was thoroughly enjoyed after which the president gave a most instructive and interesting talk on Oddfellowship. Refreshments of sandwiches, coffee and salads were served later in the dining room. The main hall was decorated with fall flowers, and her flower, the gladiola, was featured, along with the open Bible. The dining room was decorated in the Thanks giving motif, with small paper turkeys and fall flowers. On Thursday the lodge motored to Heppner where they enjoyed the District Rebekah convention, with Sans Souci as hostess.

HEC Enjoys Luncheon Meeting

The HEC of the Lexington Grange met at the home of Mrs. Fred Nelson on Friday afternoon starting at 1 p.m. with a luncheon. A variety of foreign dishes were brought by the members, after which the reipes were sold. Some of the dishes served were chicken Jambalaya, Spanish rice, Guacamole salad, Swedish fish balls, sweet and sour spareribs, American relish, red cabbage salad, chinese chow's, spritz cookies and almond rocks. The tables were beautifully decorated and fall flowers were placed attractively around the rooms. At this meeting, Mrs. Ola Ruggles installed Mrs. Ernest Christopherson in her office as vice president, as she was not able to be present at the Grange meeting.
