

Our Thanks On THANKSGIVING

Remembering the blessings of a good life, each family joins in a single voice of prayerful thanks on this day set aside for special Thanksgiving.

The traditional Thanksgiving turkey, carved by father and served in bountiful abundance with all the trimmings to all the family, is just one of the many high points of Thanksgiving Day.

Traditional, too, is the thoughtful pause to remember and to be especially grateful for the many blessings that increase day by day. We join with you and yours in offering a fervent "thank you" for the privilege of this day.

Heap high in the farmer's wintry hoard.
Heap high the golden corn.
No richer gift has Autumn poured
From out her lavish horn.

Let other lands, exulting, glean
The apple from the pine.
The orange from its glossy green.
The cluster from the vine.

We better love the hardy gift
Our rugged vales bestow.
To cheer us when the storm shall drift
Our harvest fields with snow.

Through vales of grass and meads of flowers
Our plows their furrows made.
When on the hills the sun and showers
Of changeful April played.

And now with Autumn's moonlit eyes
Its harvest time has come.
We pluck away the frosted leaves
And bear our treasures home.

O, let the good old crop adorn
The hills our fathers trod.
Still let us, for our golden corn,
Send up our thanks to God.
