Condon Church Scene Of Pretty Ceremony Joining Ione Couple

Miss Nancy Lee Pettyjohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee H. Pettyjohn of Ione, became the bride of George Wayne Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine C. Miller of Moro, in a pretty double ring ceremony on Saturday, November 26, at the Condon United Church of Christ.

Officiating at the 3 p.m. ceremony was the Rev. Harold Mac Arthur, a close friend of the family and pastor of the Bible Baptist church of Astoria. Decorations in the sanctuary carried out the bride's chosen wedding colors of gold and white, with tall white and gold standards holding white chrysanthemums and white gladioli, flanked by white tapers in candleabra.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her wedding gown was of white peau de sole, fashioned with scoop neckline and softly belled sleeves. Lace applique trimmed the bodice and sleeves, and extended down the front skirt panel. The full flowing skirt extended in back into a chapel train. Her finger tip illusion veil was held in place by a cluster of white petals, edged in tiny seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and ivy, centered with a large white orchid, which was pinned later to her going away ensemble.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Patti Pettyjohn. Bridesmaids were Miss Denise Miller, sister of the groom, and Miss Marianne Pettyjohn, sister of the bride. They appeared in floor length gowns of gold sheer, styled with empire waistlines bell sleeves and two ruffled tiers at the bottom of the skirts. Their headpieces were large gold bows, and the attendants carried white and gold chrysanthemum bouquets, with cascades of long, gold streamers.

Serving as best man was Paul Sather, cousin of the groom, of Kent, Ore.

Ushers were Bob Olsen, brother-in-law of the groom; Duane Miller, brother of the groom, both of Moro, and Mike Woodside of Maupin.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Ernest Barnett, organist, Condon, who also accompanied Forest Jones and his daughter, Kathy, when they sang the selection, "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Jones also sang a vocal solo number.

Lighting the tapers before the ceremony were Ron Sather, cousin of the groom, Corvallis, and Robert Emert, cousin of the bride, Ione.

Flower girl in the wedding procession was Darla Miller, sister of the groom, and Lee Simonis, Bend, served as ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pettyjohn chose to wear a blue and green brocade dress, complimented by blue accessories, and a corsage of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Miller, mother of the groom, attended in a pink brocade afternoon dress with matching accessories, and a white chrysanthemum corsage.

The newly weds greeted their many friends and relatives attending at a wedding reception in the church social rooms.

A tiered all white wedding cake, topped with decorative wedding bells, and flanked by tall white tapers, centered the reception table. After the couple had shared the first piece, the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Ted Edleman, cousin of the groom, Stanfield, and Mrs. Bob Olsen, sister of the groom, Moro.

Pouring tea and coffee were Mrs. David Childs, and Mrs. William Marshall, both of Arlington. Punch was served by Mrs. Kelly Andrew of La Grande.

Miss Linda Kirsch of La Grande attended the gift table, and Miss Laurie Stewart of The Dalles passed the guest book. Jeffrey Hamms and Anita Palmer, both cousins of the bride, Ione, passed the rice bags and groom's cakes.

Assisting women of the church with the arrangements were Mrs. John Simonis of Bend and Mrs. Lee Palmer of Ione.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Miller left after the reception for a wedding trip to British Columbia. For the honeymoon, the bride changed to a moss green knit suit with beige and green
