

Joint Services Install Officers Of County Grange Units

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—All new officers of subordinate granges in Morrow county and from Columbia and Stanfield granges in Umatilla county were installed in the Greenfield Grange Hall.

Morrow granges included Rhea Creek, Willows, Lexington and Greenfield. Approximately 65 officers were installed.

The installing team included Dorothy Kipling, Wingville Grange, Baker, as installing officer; Ethel Huffman, state Ceres, Hudson Bay Grange, Milton-Freewater, installing marshal; Elsa McElroth, state Line Grange, Milton-Freewater, emblem bearer; Winnie Holmes, White Eagle Grange, Pendleton, regalia bearer; Marie Schubert, Hudson-Bay Grange, chaplain; Arnold Schubert, Hudson-Bay, steward; Vern Crawford, Helix, master; Delpha Jones, District Home Economics Chairman, Lexington, installed the H.E.C. chairman; Connie Crawford, Helix, musician; Jeanne Ressler, White Eagle Grange, Pendleton, soloist.

A potluck dinner was served at noon, and in the afternoon conference was held with state and county officers, and floor work demonstrated.

Officers from Greenfield Grange installed included Delmer Hug, master; Andrew Skiles, overseer; Tom Hilling, steward; Flossie Ball, chaplain; Nathan Thorpe, assistant steward; Hazel Carpenter, lecturer; Pansy Seehafer, treasurer; Margaret Donovan, secretary; Minnie Skiles, Ceres; Marjha Baker, Pomona; Barbara Broadbent, Flora; gatekeeper, Kenneth Broadbent; Margaret Thorpe, lady assistant steward; Donald Baker and Leo Potts, executive committee; Mary Lee Marlow, musician; Virginia Phillips, junior matron.

Grange to Sponsor Auction
Greenfield Grange will sponsor a public auction Friday, December 17, starting at 10 a.m. at the new hall in Boardman. The sale will be handled on a 15% commission and anything brought will be auctioned off. All articles must be at the Grange hall by 9 a.m. The hall will be open for storing articles December 15 and 16 from 1 to 5 p.m.

Guided inspection tours from the grange hall to the old town of Boardman to inspect buildings, beams, garage doors, hoists, gas pumps, gasoline storage tanks portable generator, portable water pump and other large items from 8 a.m. to 9:45 a.m. on the day of the sale. Everything in old Boardman is to be closed out.

Joe Yates of Walla Walla, Wash. will be the auctioneer, and Mrs. Nina Yates will be clerk. Hot lunch will be available at noon. There will be free coffee.

The City Council met last week at the city hall, and an announcement was made of Wally Hendrix and Joe Tate being reelected to the council at the November election. New member of the council is Emmett McKenzie, who will take oath of office at the January 3 meeting.

Zearl Gillespie states he will donate a large fir tree to the city to be planted on the lawn at the city hall. It will be decorated for Christmas. Street lights in old Boardman will be turned off December 31, except those near the school.

Mrs. Russell Miller was elected president of the Ladies Aid Society of Community church at its meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Seth Russell. Mrs. Ralph Earwood was elected vice-president; Mrs. Leo Root, secretary; and Mrs. Russell, treasurer. Final plans were discussed for the annual Mystery Sister Christmas party which was to be held December 14 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Allen at 2 p.m. with members of the Home Economics Club of Greenfield Grange as guests.

The Mothers Club of Boardman Grade school met Thursday afternoon at last week at the school and made plans for the annual Christmas program to be held in the gymnasium December 22 at 8 p.m. Mrs. Bob Sicard is chairman of the treats committee and Mrs. Stan Henkle and Mrs. Carroll Donovan will assist her. The tree decorating committee is Mrs. Tom Hilling, Mrs. Delmer Hug, Mrs. Kenneth Broadbent and Mrs. John Phillips.

The program for the afternoon included a playlet in Bethlehem Town by the fourth grade, and Christmas songs by the first three grades.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Vernon Russell and Mrs. Hilling.

Charles Nickerson, a long time resident of Boardman, left Monday to live with his son, Charles Nickerson, Jr., in Sugar Creek, Mo. who was here to get his father. Also here visiting her father, were Mrs. Esther Knight and daughter Edna of Portland, and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight of Denver, Colo.

Cafeteria menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Grade school for the week of December 19-23 are as follows: Monday—wieners, wraps, green beans, cottage cheese and peach salad and filled graham crackers; Tuesday—beef and noodles, carrots, French bread and fruit crisp; Wednesday—chili burgers, cheese slices, peas and fruit; Thursday—turkey and dressing, potatoes and gravy, cranberry sauce, rolls and butter, pickles, olives and dessert; Friday—creamed tuna with biscuits, carrots, vegetable sticks and fruit. Bread, butter and milk are served with all meals.

The Riverside Pirates will have a basketball game with the lone Cardinals here December 16. At 5:45 p.m. the same night there will be a girls volleyball game with lone. The Pirates will travel to Echo for a game December 17, and the girls will go to lone for a game December 19.

The annual Christmas tree and program will be presented by the Boardman Grade school in the school gymnasium December 22, at 8 p.m. Friends are invited to attend.

The National Honor Society of Riverside High school is collecting toys and current magazines for the mentally retarded at the state hospital in Pendleton for Christmas. Those wishing to donate should contact Carol Ann Harper, Laurie Peterson or Mike Partlow.

Mothers of the Riverside Pirates football team entertained 26 boys at a dinner Sunday afternoon at the new Greenfield Grange Hall. The affair was a surprise for Coach Dante Dal-toso, who knew nothing of the plans. Other special guests were Ben Daniels, Riverside principal, and James Harper, baseball coach. In charge of the dinner were Mrs. Ralph Skoubo, Mrs. Roy Partlow and Mrs. John Phillips. Assisting were Mrs. Don Downey, Mrs. Leonard Bedford, Mrs. Larry Phillips, Mrs. Ernest Jorgenson and Mrs. James McRae, the latter two from Irrigon.

Following the dinner six rolls of film of the boys' games this fall were shown. Mrs. Phillips took the pictures at each game. They were shown by Bobby McRae and Chet Phillips.

BOARDMAN—About 200 persons attended the dedication services of the new Greenfield Grange Hall in Boardman Saturday at 8 p.m. Several state officers were present, and State Master Allen P. Wheeler acted as dedicating officer. Other members of the dedication team included Nathan Thorpe, master; Harriet Bedford, flag bearer; Victor Neal, assistant steward; Margaret Thorpe, lady assistant steward; Andy Skiles, overseer; Flossie Ball, chaplain; Hazel Carpenter, lecturer; Minnie Skiles, Ceres; Juanita Neal, Flora; Margaret Donovan, secretary; Pansy Seehafer, treasurer; Mary Lee Marlow, musician; Delmer Hug, acting master; Roy Ball, acting overseer. ## College Registers For Winter Term

Persons planning to enroll in Blue Mountain Community College for the term beginning January 5 may register at any time until December 16, according to Truman Bailly, registrar. The pre-registration period was established to relieve the load during the regular registration time January 3 and 4. Both registration periods apply to both new students and those presently enrolled. Students needing financial aid were asked by Bailly to arrange for this in December.

New Daughter Joins Mel Harnett Family

The arrival of a new granddaughter, Sherre Lynn, was the pleasant reason for Mrs. Rachel Harnett to make a recent visit to the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harnett in Beaverton. Sherre Lynn was born November 25 at Bess Kaiser hospital in Portland. She weighed 5 lb., 12 oz., and joins a sister, Dawn, two years old, at home. Mrs. Harnett stayed with the family from November 16 to December 5.

Board to be Closed During Holidays

Selective Service board No. 31 of Condon, which serves Morrow county as well as other counties, will be closed from December 21 through December 29 for the holiday season, Peggy Dean Riney, clerk, announces.

Mrs. Wavel Wilkinson returned Sunday from a trip to New Castle, Wyo., where she spent the Thanksgiving holidays at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Oslund and daughters, Sue, Nancy and Judy. She traveled by train to Denver, Colo., where she met her granddaughter, Sue, a student at Colorado Women's College and together went by plane to the Oslund home.
