Jan Beamer is Bride Of Pendleton Man In Church Ceremony

Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, Pendleton, was the setting for a pretty candlelight ceremony which joined in marriage Miss Janice Beamer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beamer, Heppner, and Jim Bothum, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bothum, Woodburn, on Saturday, November 19.

The Rev. Richard Payne officiated at the evening double ring ceremony, before an altar attractively decorated in a holiday decor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attractively gowned in an empire styled peau de soie with scoop neckline, long sleeves extending to a point at the wrist, and detachable lace-trimmed chapel train. Her three-tiered veil extended gracefully to the floor, held in place by a dainty crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and miniature pine, with cascades of ribbon streamers.

Attendants for the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Bothum of Anasone, Wn., brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Armond Wooley, organist, who also accompanied Joe Doherty, soloist for the ceremony.

Junior attendants were Shiela Bothum, flower girl; Kari Corea, train bearer; Tami Laughlin and Jani Spaulding, pillow bearers.

Candles were lit before the ceremony by Lance Robertson.

The couple greeted their many friends and relatives at a wedding reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Robertson at McKay Dam.

Miniature pine, combined with white rosebuds and white satin bows, encircled the base of the tiered wedding cake, accented with good luck horseshoes between the tiers.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. Steve Thompson, Mrs. Russell McKennon, Mrs. Donald Griley, Nancy Howard, Deanna Limbaugh, Louise Beamer, all of Pendleton; Mrs. Jack Richartz, Milton-Freewater; Mrs. Leland Ascher, and Cindy Robertson.

Others assisting were Mrs. Robert Laughlin, Mrs. Mark Brown and Mrs. Dave Corren. Louise Beamer kept the guest book, and in charge of the gift table were Nancy Howard and Mrs. Allen Eckerman.

Mr. and Mrs. Bothum are now at home in Pendleton, where he is associated with Johns Smith and Beamer feed lot operations. Mrs. Bothum is a nurse at Pendleton Community hospital.

After her graduation from Heppner High school, the bride attended two years at Oregon State University and was enrolled in a Portland business college.

An accomplished horsewoman, she was chosen Miss Rodeo of Oregon in 1961 and represented the estate at national Miss Rodeo America finals at Las Vegas, Nev. She has won many rodeo trophies, was a princess in the Morrow county rodeo court, was a Pendleton Round-Up princess, and was named Miss Northwest Rodeo in 1960.

MYF Youth Present Christmas Program At Women's Meeting

Mike Alsop was narrator for a radio skit presented by the MYF for the December meeting of the WSCS of the Heppner Methodist Church. Sara Miller, Frank Lovgren, Deborah Young and Al Drake played the parts of the Bethlehem innkeeper and his family who felt the spiritual impact of the birth of Jesus.

Mrs. Melvin Dixon led the group in prayer following the skit, and Sara Miller, accompanied by Mrs. Sam Miller, sang a Christmas solo. The group participated in singing familiar carols. Mrs. Jay Wheelhouse presented a Christmas meditation, concluding the candlelight program.

Mrs. Bob Henry presided at the business meeting. Besides regular reports, members were invited to contribute wrapped bars of soap for Church World Service. A box will be provided at the church for receiving the soap donations.

Mrs. James Hilderbrand and Mrs. Jack Krieger were hostesses for the social hour.

The next meeting is January 5, in the church parlors.

Officers for Altar Society Nominated

New officers were chosen for the coming year by St. Patrick's Altar Society at its monthly meeting December 6 at the parish hall. Those taking office at the first of the year will be Mrs. Harold Curnutt, president; Mrs. Phil Doherty, vice president; Mrs. Bill Kenny, secretary, and Mrs. John Mollahan, treasurer.

Arrangements are being planned by the society to sponsor a teenage dance on Friday night, December 30.

Members also helped with the annual church Christmas party on Sunday afternoon. An all-church potluck dinner in the afternoon was followed by movies and a visit from Santa for the children.

Mrs. Herman Stroeber served as chairman for the hostess committee for the meeting.

Kindergarten Plans Christmas Parties

Christmas Celebrated By Legion Families At Dinner and Party

One of the first of many cheery Christmas parties this month was that of the American Legion and Auxiliary held Monday evening, December 5, in the Legion Hall.

Members and their children gathered for a baked ham potluck dinner and Christmas carol singing. The room was decorated with a beautiful Christmas tree, with red candles and greenery on the tables. Children received candy canes and popcorn balls.

Special guests for the Christmas meeting were the Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Dixon.

The party was followed by a business meeting for members at which plans were made for Christmas baskets to be given to needy families.

Every prudent driver carries a spare tire, jack and lug wrench for emergencies. For winter driving emergencies, the Traffic Safety Division of the Oregon Department of Motor Vehicles reminds drivers to carry the following emergency equipment in the trunk: a tow chain, sand, shovel, tire chains and booster cables.

Mrs. Hamlin Visits Friends in Valley

Mrs. Frank Hamlin was out of town from Tuesday until Sunday of last week, on her annual Christmas trip to renew acquaintances in Portland and Gresham.

Each year in the month of December for the 16th year since she moved away from the Portland area, she has returned to join with her friends of two different birthday clubs in celebrating December birthdays. This year she attended a luncheon with one club and a breakfast with the other. She says that the members have been the same all 16 years in both clubs, except for one person.
