HE LOVETH ALL

"He prayeth well, who loveth well,
Both man and bird and beast.
He prayeth best, who loveth best,
All things both great and small;
For the dear God who loveth us,
He made and loveth all."

Good is always represented by kindness, compassion, help and mercy toward all life. Too bad T.B. Christmas Seals help support such gigantic experiments, as to smoke 90 dogs to death in one laboratory, publicity for laboratories, attracting big bequests and bigger grants, coupled with fat fees for commercial tests and broadcasts from coast to coast, to repeat torture tests. "Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus"

Sixty-nine years ago, an eight-year-old girl wrote to the New York Sun to ask quite simply: "Please tell me the truth—is there a Santa Claus?" The newspaper's reply, which has become one of the Christmas season's classics, was in part, as follows: "Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas; how dreary the world would be if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sight and sound. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished. . . . "Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children or men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in this world. . . . "No Santa Claus? Thank God! He lives, and lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood."
