Santa Claus Guest At Wrangler Club

Festive Christmas party of the Wranglers was Wednesday, December 14, in the fair annex building with some 70 persons attending.

The evening started with a potluck supper. Chief cooks and decorators included Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. George Luciani, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steagall and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dougherty. Featured in the decorations were a tree and Christmas candles.

Program was conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Pearson who solicited young choir members from the audience to sing "Jingle Bells" loud enough to usher Santa Claus in.

Santa had treats for everyone and had a bag filled with gifts to be delivered to the members and guests present. He was happily surprised to see Frank Turner there for the "umpteenth" consecutive year.

Many of the youngsters had their pictures taken on Santa's lap.

New officers for the year were elected. Robert Bergstrom is president and Bill Healy is vice president. Maralee Murray is secretary-treasurer.

Two new directors elected were Bob Webb and Norman Nelson. Holdover directors are Fred Mankin and Art Vance. Police Fullerton, as past president, goes on as a new director.

Unusual Handmade Gifts are Featured At Pine City Party

A pan of refrigerator roll dough, ready to work down, was one of the surprise homemade gifts exchanged by the members of Pine City Extension Unit at its meeting at the home of Mrs. Leo Ashbeck, Wednesday, December 14. Mrs. Gaylord Madison was the giver, and Mrs. George Luciani was the receiver of this unusual gift.

Other gifts included fancy cookies, candy and cake, as well as other useful items. Recipes for the edible gifts and potluck luncheon dishes were exchanged.

Mrs. Willard French demonstrated making an attractive Christmas centerpiece using such unlikely materials as an old spike-heeled shoe, spray paint, macaroni, styrofoam and holly leaves. Members each completed a centerpiece during the afternoon.

Mrs. Tom Ashbeck presided at the business meeting. The members were reminded that Penmanship for Friendship would be turned in at the January meeting, and gifts for the state hospital collected in February. Next meeting on "Furniture Arrangement" will be at the home of Mrs. George Luciani, January 11.

Mahoney Home Scene Of Holiday Parties

Mrs. P. W. Mahoney, Mrs. Ray Ferguson, Mrs. Ed Schaffitz and Mrs. Claude Graham were joint hostesses for a pleasant afternoon and evening of social entertaining at the Mahoney home on Wednesday, December 14. A Christmas luncheon and buffet supper were followed by tables of bridge play. Rooms and tables were beautifully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season.

High score for the afternoon bridge play was held by Mrs. Dean Hunt, with Mrs. Clarence Rosewall, low. Winning high prize for the evening play was Mrs. Jim Driscoll, and Mrs. Riley Munkers, low.

Parkers Visited

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker were happily surprised on Monday afternoon when two of their grandsons visited them. The young men, Tony and Gregory Parker are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Parker of Portland.

Tony is home on a short leave from Fort Polk, La., and on his return will enter Officer's Training Corps on the east coast.

Gregory begins his term of service for the U. S. Army at Fort Lewis, Wn. in January. While here they also visited at the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Jr., and family.

Garden Club Hears Christmas Customs At Luncheon Meeting

ONE—Tuesday, December 13, was a joyous day for members of the Ione Garden Club, when they met at the home of Mrs. Wallace Wolff for a Christmas luncheon featuring turkey and all the trimmings. Guests present were Mrs. Howard Bryant, Mrs. Jack Sumner, Mrs. Dirk Rinehart and Mrs. Robert Benson.

There was an exchange of gifts and a special prize was presented to the member having the most beautifully wrapped package.

The roll call comprised most of the program, "Christmas Customs of a Foreign Country." Mrs. Lloyd Johnson gave an interesting talk on the care of the poinsettia. It must be kept at an even temperature and does not survive cold climates, were among pointers given.

Hostesses for the next meeting are Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mrs. Herman Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Winters visited with the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Robinson and family while they were in Portland to attend the Wheat League meeting. They report the Robinsons to be all well and enjoying their new pastorate at St. Mark's Lutheran church.

The party was sponsored by students of Mrs. Judy Gochnauer's home room who invited the other 7th grade class.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wright provided a truck for the hayride and their son, Dean, a seventh grader, cleaned the truck, filled it with hay and milked all week to provide milk for the party.

Other students in the class also worked to make the evening a success. Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Gochnauer and Miss Terry Linneum chaperoned the evening.
