

Darlene Horn Bride Of Grant S. Carter In Portland Ceremony

A pretty candlelight ceremony joined in marriage Miss Darlene Rae Horn and Grant S. Carter, at Calvary Presbyterian church in Portland on Saturday, December 17. The date chosen also observed the birth date of the bride's father.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Horn, Portland, and parents of the groom are Mrs. Emile Groshens, Heppner, and Sherman Carter, Klamath Falls.

Officiating at the 1:00 p.m. ceremony was the Rev. Dr. Byron Travis.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in a French designed wedding gown of scalloped chantilly lace. The sabrina neckline was accented with sequins and seed pearls, and the full skirt revealed bouffant lace ruffles, sweeping into a chapel train.

Maid of honor was Miss Nyla Blakely of Vancouver, Wn. Bridesmaid attendants were Misses Kathryn Overlund, Carol R. Curry and Marilyn Paddock, all of Portland.

Attendants were attractively gowned in floor length cranberry brocade coats over matching silk gowns, and carried bouquets of red roses, pink chrysanthemums and white orchids. Their head pieces were bands of satin roses on red netting.

Lighting the tapers before the ceremony were Gary Horn and Roger Horn, brothers of the bride.

Traditional organ music was played by Mrs. Agnes Stevens. Soloist was Robert Reedy, who sang "Because," "The Lord's Prayer," and "Wedding Prayer."

Attending as flower girl was three-year-old Janice Renken, and ring bearer was four-year-old Craig Renken, both cousins of the bride, of Portland.

Best man was Mark Osborn of Portland. Serving as ushers were Gary Horn and Roger Horn, both of Portland, and Gilbert Ferguson of White City, Ore.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Horn wore an ivory brocade dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Groshens, mother of the groom, chose a blue brocade ensemble with matching accessories.

Also attending were Elmer G. Wolfe, Portland, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. George Plassmeyer, Hood River, and Mrs. Earl Hough, both grandmothers of the groom.

The couple greeted their many guests at a reception following the ceremony in the church social rooms.

A beautiful four-tiered wedding cake, topped with pink and white wedding bells, centered the serving table. Pink roses, combined with silver leaves and lilies of the valley decorated the square pillars between the layers.

Floral arrangements of white gladioli, pink chrysanthemums and red roses decorated the reception rooms.

Serving the guests were Mrs. William E. Hough, Sacramento, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Glenn Horn, Madras, aunt of the bride. Attending the gift table was Mercedes Satarinoff, Portland, and passing the guest book was Connie Brioness, Portland, cousin of the bride.

For their wedding trip to Canada, the new matron changed to a green knit two-piece ensemble.

The newlyweds will make their home in Bermuda, where the groom will be stationed for the next two years with the navy. He has recently been serving aboard the aircraft carrier, the Yorktown.

On Friday evening before the wedding ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Groshens were hosts to the wedding party at a rehearsal dinner at the Bush Gardens in Portland.

When the U.S. sends a man into space, an Accutron timepiece usually goes with him.

Why on earth do you need one?

For the same reason he does. So you can tell what time it is. Precisely.

The Accutron® movement is used in Explorer, Telstar, TIROS and Pegasus satellites, as well as Gemini. The vibrations of a tiny tuning fork divide each second into 360 equal parts. And make Accutron time so precise, we guarantee it within 60 seconds a month.* About two seconds a day.

What's more, this is the accuracy this timepiece can be expected to keep long after man has conquered space. By then, earth may not be the only place you'll need one.
