Portland Girl Bride Of John Ceglia, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Ceglia, Sr. were among the relatives and close friends who attended the wedding of their son, John D. Jr., and Miss Susan Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson of Portland, on November 18. Vows were exchanged at an informal afternoon ceremony at a chapel in Vancouver, Wash.

Both young people are students at Oregon State University, where the groom is a Junior in the field of journalism and the bride is a sophomore in the field of education. Ceglia was a 1962 graduate at Heppner High school.

SANDRA KAY CARLISLE

Bill Cox Engaged To The Dalles Girl

The engagement of Sandra Kay Carlisle to William C. Cox, II, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cox of Heppner, is being announced by H. S. Carlisle, father of the bride-elect, of The Dalles.

Both are seniors at the University of Oregon, and will receive their degrees in June. Miss Carlisle will receive her Bachelor of Arts degree in English Education, and Mr. Cox will receive his Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing Research. He was a 1963 graduate of Heppner High school.

Following a late summer wedding, the couple plans to work toward their master's degrees at the University of Oregon graduate school.

Couple Makes Home In Boring Following December Wedding

At a quiet family wedding on Saturday, December 24, at the Methodist church in Heppner, Nancy Jean Zinter became the bride of James Lawrence Rounsefell of Boring. Rev. Melvin Dixon officiated at the 11:00 a.m. double ring ceremony.

The bride was attired in a pastel aqua two-piece dress and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Carolyn Allen of Heppner was her attendant and wore a green dress with pink carnation corsage.

Jack Rounsefell of Boring served as best man for his father.

Organist for the wedding was Mrs. Loa Taylor, who also played three selections preceding the ceremony.

Others in attendance besides the wedding party were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Ferguson; the bride's children, Cathryn, Eugene, Robert, and David Zinter of lone; parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rounsefell; son of the groom, Jeffrey Rounsefell; and Claudia Raybourn, all of Boring.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Ferguson was hostess for a lovely buffet luncheon for the guests at her home. After cutting the first piece of wedding cake, the young couple left for their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Rounsefell will make their home at Rt. 2, Box 385 A, Boring, Oregon, where Mr. Rounsefell is employed as a mechanic for Scopmobile. After the first of January, they will finish moving from lone to their newly completed home and the children will join them there.

New Year's visitors January 1 and 2 at the Lowell Gribble home were Mrs. Gribble's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mills of Salem. The Gribbles took their daughter, Barbara, back to school at EOC in La Grande on Monday.

Joint Installations Scheduled Saturday

Sans Souci Rebekah and Willows OddFellow lodges will meet for joint installation Saturday, January 13, instead of January 7 as was previously announced. The meeting will be held in the Heppner IOOF hall and will begin at 6:30 with a banquet dinner.

Taking oath of office as noble grand of Sans Souci for the coming year will be Mrs. Ed La Trace. Other elected officers are Mrs. Tom Huston, vice grand; Mrs. Gerald Rood, treasurer; Mrs. Orin Wright, secretary, and Mrs. Lucille Parrish, financial secretary. Appointive officers will also be installed.

Willows Odd Fellows will be led during the coming year by Bill Farra, noble grand; Robert Lowe, vice grand and D. R. Tash, secretary-treasurer.

Church To Be Host For Lexington Girl Tells Betrothal

The Heppner Christian church will entertain members of the Lexington Christian church at a special turkey dinner Sunday evening, January 15, at 6:00 p.m.

The church will furnish roast turkey, dressing, potatoes, gravy and rolls. Members of the Heppner church are asked to bring a hot dish, a salad or dessert.

ALYCE KATHLEEN WADDILL

Former Lexington Girl Tells Betrothal

Mr. and Mrs. Dale T. Waddill, former residents of Lexington, have recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Alyce Kathleen, to Ronald Walter Sauber. The Waddills now reside in Oregon City.

Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sauber of Milwaukie, Ore.

The couple is planning a summer wedding.

Former Heppner Girl To Wed Idaho Man

Mrs. Bernice Hartle, former Heppner resident and now of Nampa, Idaho, is announcing the engagement and coming marriage of her daughter, Shirley Rae Carlson, to Arlen H. Benjamin, also of Nampa.

Miss Carlson was a 1963 graduate of Heppner High school, and is now completing her senior year at Brigham Young University, where she is majoring in elementary education.

Her fiancé was graduated from Nampa High school in 1963 and recently returned from a two year LDS mission. He is presently employed at Natziger's Men's Store in Nampa and is attending Boise College.

A May wedding is planned at the Oakland LDS Temple in Oakland, Calif.

Further plans were discussed for sponsoring the teenage dance on Saturday evening,

January 7, at the parish hall. Also, the annual public card party was discussed and the date of Monday, January 30, set. Bridge and pinocle will be in play, starting at 8 p.m. in the parish hall. Hostess chairman for the evening was Mrs. Wilbur Worden.

LINDA CLARK, WORTHY ADVISOR

Linda Clark Seated New Worthy Advisor Of Rainbow Assembly

Linda Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark, La Grande, and formerly of Heppner, was installed worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, in ceremonies held Sunday afternoon, January 8, at the Masonic Hall in Heppner.

Linda, who moved to La Grande with her parents at the beginning of the school year, plans to return to Heppner regularly during her term as worthy advisor and lead the assembly activities. Her motto is "Walk by Faith" and she chose pink and silver as her installation colors.

Installing officers for the ceremony were Martha Peck, retiring worthy advisor, as installing worthy advisor; Jan Hager, recorder; Mrs. Dick Clark, marshal; Kathy Melby, chaplain and Mrs. Warren Miller, musician.

Special guests for the installation were Mr. and Mrs. Don Clark, Sr., Mrs. Don Clark, Jr., Mrs. Dick Clark and Miss Ellen Blaylock, all of La Grande, and John Cole, USN.

Don Clark, Sr., escorted his daughter to the altar and John Cole, her foster brother, placed the crown. Ellen Blaylock, a close friend of the new worthy advisor, sang "Where E're You Walk," by Handel, accompanied by Mrs. Warren Miller.

Officers of the assembly installed with Linda were Linda Heath, worthy associate advisor; Linda Orwick, charity; Jill Padberg, hope; Sara Miller, faith; Theresa Hashman, treasurer; Patty Howell, chaplain; Linda Cooper, love; Gienda Van Winkle, nature; Jana Lee Scott, immortality; Sue Melby, fidelity; Pam Hughes, patriotism; Karen Cox, civility; Karla Weatherford, musician; Theresa Wright, choir director; Lisa Cutsforth, Gerri Keithley and Grace Hawk, choir members; Billie June Marquardt, inner observer, and Cindy Harsin, outer observer. Mother advisor for the new term will be Mrs. Tom Hughes.

Official visitors at the installation included Miss Jan Friedly, worthy matron of Helix chapter of Order of the Eastern Star and past grand representative to Nova Scotia of grand chapter, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Friedly; Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, mother advisor of lone assembly; Bonnie Hynd, grand representative to the state of Vermont; Mrs. Lorraine Irbay, grand deputy of the grand chapter of the Order of Eastern Star; Mrs. Claude Graham, past mother advisor of Ruth assembly and Pam Hughes, grand representative to the state of Rhode Island.

The installation was followed by a lovely reception in the social rooms of the hall. Pink and silver arrangements highlighted the serving table from which a special cake, coffee and punch were served. Mrs. James Hager, Mrs. Warren Miller and Mrs. James Thomson served, and Mrs. William Heath and Mrs. Harold Erwin were in charge of the kitchen.

Meetings Preceded By Legion Dinner

A good attendance of members and their families was present Monday evening to enjoy the January dinner of the American Legion and Auxiliary at the Legion hall. Thirty-eight places were filled, with all enjoying the potluck dinner which preceded the regular meetings.

With Mrs. Frank Hamlin presiding, further plans were made for completing the current project of the auxiliary, filling a large cedar chest to be given away at a future drawing. Details regarding the chest may be had at Case Furniture Store or from Mrs. Hamlin. Mrs. Hamlin also read a thought-provoking article on the meaning of Americanism, from a Legion magazine. Plans were also discussed for sponsoring another of their popular baked foods sales in February.

Krieger Shares Hobby Of Artifact Hunting With Mother's Club

Members of the Heppner Mothers Club were informed on Indian artifacts during the program at its monthly meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Anita Stockard. Co-hostess for the evening was Mrs. Jim Hilderbrand.

Jack Krieger, of the Heppner District U. S. Forest Service, displayed his interesting collection of Indian artifacts that he and his family have found during recent years in Eastern Oregon areas. Many were found within a radius of 60 miles of Heppner, he said, and urged his listeners to be alert to findings that continue to be uncovered in this area. Prized arrowheads and stone tools in his collection were passed among the group for personal observation.

During the business period, plans were discussed for the annual sweetheart dinner, with the date set for Friday, February 3. A social hour will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Winters.

Appreciation was received from Pioneer Memorial hospital for the wreaths and door pieces delivered to the rooms by the club before Christmas.
