Echo, Umatilla Victims As Cards Extend Streak

Echo and Umatilla basketball teams met defeat at the hands of the lone High squad over the week-end as the Cardinals ran their victory string to four.

Coach Gene Dockter's team rolled over Echo Friday night at Echo, 56 to 42, and tripped Umatilla at lone Saturday night, 57 to 49, bringing their season's league record to five wins against two defeats.

Hitting 40% or better from the field in the games and employing a tight defense, the Cards led throughout both contests. Against Echo, the lone defense forced Echo into long hurried shots.

Five fastbreak layins in the first quarter paved the way for a 17-6 first quarter margin for the Cards. Halftime found them ahead, 29-15, and the 14-point spread held up through the rest of the game. End of the third quarter was 41-27 and the final margin was also 14—at 56-42.

Ione hit an even 400 from the floor to 250 for Echo. On the free throw line, the Cards were 14 for 23, while Echo made only seven in 20 tries. Rebounding edge went to the losers, 44 to 38. Chris Lovgren topped Ione rebounders with 10, while Halvorsen had nine. Echo's Colburn had 15.

"Everyone looked good on offense," said Coach Dockter after the game. "The boys moved the ball real well and took the good shots."

Point spread in the Umatilla game was never more than nine points although Ione was on top all the way. The Cards sputered to a good first quarter lead, 17 to 10, and it was a seesaw contest from there on.

As in the Echo game, the lone defense was tough. Umatilla was forced to take outside shots, and in the second half made only eight of 27 tries. Virgil Morgan played an outstanding game, called his "best of the year" by Coach Dockter. The senior's 14 points was topped only by Frank Halvorsen, who scored 18. Eddie Sherman matched Morgan, also with 14, as did Eldridge of Umatilla.

Ione hit 42% from the floor to Umatilla's 31%. The Cards hit 19 of 30 from the free throw line while Umatilla connected on 11 of 16. The losers led in rebounding, 39 to 30, with Buck grabbing 14 for his team. For Ione, Halvorsen had 12 and Swanson eight.

"The win was a full team effort," said Coach Dockter. "The boys played real good ball both nights."

4-H Rifle Club Due To Start Wednesday

First meeting of a 4-H rifle club will be Wednesday, January 25, at the fair pavilion, Paul Arbogast, leader, announces.

The club is just getting started, and all boys or girls, 11 years of age or older, are invited to attend and join.

A 4-H safety course must be taken to participate in the club and arrangements will be made for this, Arbogast said.

Hilanders Throw Scare But Home Team Wins

Anyone who didn't watch Heppner play Burns here Friday night missed an exciting game of basketball as the Mustangs pulled out a close one, 50-47.

The Hilanders once led 11-7 early in the first quarter, but that was the only supremacy they felt all night. The Mustangs tied the score at 12-12 then went ahead for good. Mac Hoskins and Steve Pettyjohn did a fine job on the boards as they started the fast break many times with an outlet pass to Jim Doherty. The Doherty-Hoskins combination was too much for Burns to handle. Time after time Doherty fed Hoskins in the key and the lanky center would hook or make his short jumper count for two. Doherty nonchalantly played his usual game, swishing several 25-footers, and ended with 18 points.

It wasn't a walkaway by any means. While Heppner led at half-time, 26-20, and at the third quarter, 36-32, the Hilanders made a desperate last effort to regain the lead. Late in the final period Burns came within two points then sank a foul shot and the Mustangs held on to a slim one point lead, 46-45. With seconds left Burns had control of the ball, but Doherty tied up 6-3 Rick Weir, and forced a jump ball. Many fans still don't know how Jim got the tip, but Heppner regained possession.

Dave Hall took a shot and was fouled. Hall potted one of the shots at the gift line to put the home team two points ahead.

Then it was Hoskins' turn. With less than a minute to play he got a pass from outside and hit a short jumper for two and was fouled. He calmly sank the foul shot to put the game out of the reach of the frustrated Hilanders. Burns, however, scored again to end the game with the tally standing 50-47.

Heppner did not make one of its better showings as only four players made the scoring column, but they did play well enough to win. Doherty was high with 18 points, followed by Hoskins with 17.

Mike Figg and Rick Weir were high for Burns, potting 15 and 13 respectively.

John Day Five Topples Jayvees

Grant Union's high flying offense was too much for the Baby Mustang frigid cold shooting, as the young Prospectors dumped the host team 56-29 Saturday night.

The Heppner five kept up the pace throughout the first period and were trailing by only one point at the first break, 16-14. The shorter Mustang Jayvees seemed to fall gradually behind, but were only trailing by three points at intermission, 28-25.

The third quarter saw little change as the host Mustang Jayvees couldn't get their offense rolling and were outscored, 11-7. With the score at 39-32 the third period came to an end.

It was a hot fourth quarter for visiting Grant Union. They came up with 17 counters to only seven markers for the Mustangs, and this established the final margin of 27 points and Dean Kindle with 12 points was the only Mustang to get into double figures. Calvin Ashbeck was next high with an 8-point contribution. M. Linz with 11 and D. Ogilvie with 10 points led a well balanced scoring attack for the visiting Grant Jayvees.

Baby Mustangs Lose to Burns

The Heppner Jayvees played even ball with the visiting Burns Jayvees last Friday night, but were outscored in the final quarter and came out on the short end of a 45-43 score.

Jon O'Donnell and Mike Smith led the Mustang assault with 12 and 10 points respectively, but the big man for the evening was Burns' Shelton. He dumped 23 markers through the basket.

The baby Mustangs set the pace in the first and second quarters and for a while it looked as if they might hold on to their lead. The score at the first quarter period was 9-8 and at halftime the young lads had a 18-14 margin.

The Burns' Jayvees swished 12 markers through the hoops to only 11 for the Heppner five to bring the score closer at 29-26 when the third quarter closed.

Then the Baby Mustangs went cold and couldn't keep the pace with the young Hilanders. The Burns Jayvees outscored the home town Jayvees by five which set up the final 3-point margin.

Mustang Hoopers Overpower Grant Saturday, 71-37

Tight defense, teamed with an explosive offense, led Heppner to a 71-37 romp over the highly rated John Day Prospectors Saturday at Heppner. The Mustangs had four players in double figures while John Day had none.

Heppner ran up to a 22-7 score early in the second quarter and led at half time, 38-16. The Horsemen potted 20 points in the third quarter and strengthened their lead. The Heppner second string outscored the Prospectors in the fourth quarter, 13-11, for the 34 point victory.

Mac Hoskins played a fine defensive game as he held former Heppnerite Chris Labhart to six points. Labhart is the leading Prospector scorer. Bill Diest was John Day's game leader with six points in the second half.

Hoskins improved his free throw percentage as he hit seven for nine from the charity line. He finished the game with 21 points. Randy Stillman came off the bench in the second quarter and finished with 13 points. Steve Pettyjohn had 12 and Jim Doherty potted 11 for the Mustangs.

Heppner was whistled for only 12 team fouls to 30 for John Day. Heppner sank 25 of 46 shots from the foul line for a 54.3 per cent. John Day hit 60 per cent from the free throw line. They canned nine of 15 shots.

Freshmen Defeat Condon, 41 to 36

Heppner's freshman basketball team played host to the Condon freshman team Thursday, January 12, and beat them, 41-36. John McCabe, an up-and-coming guard, played a large part in the victory by chipping in 18 points for game honors. The only others to hit double figures in the game were Pearson and Carnine of Condon with 14 and 12 points respectively.

The first quarter gave the Heppner freshmen a decisive 13-6 lead, with Pat Sweeney pouring in his six points of the game at this point. McCabe and Pat Kilkenny came alive in the second quarter to lengthen the lead to 12 points at 28-16.

The contest continued in the same manner in the third quarter with some fine shooting shown by forward Lee Hudson. In the final stanza, the Condon Blue Devils outscored the second string, 14-2, but couldn't quite do enough to catch up on their 17-point deficit. At the final bell, the score was 41-36.

The game advanced the win-loss record of the Heppner team to 3-0.
