

TV Officers Elected At Annual Meeting

By DIANA KINCAID

IONE—Monday evening the Ione Television Corporation held its annual meeting in the Legion Hall with approximately 41 in attendance.

Mrs. Vester Hans was re-elected secretary-treasurer, and Edmond Bristow was re-elected as a director. Howard Crowell was elected to fill the vacancy of director left by Ron Bishop who did not wish to run again.

Door prizes of free TV were won by Eldon Tucker, six months; Elmer Ellis, four months; and Mrs. Vida Heliker, two months.

The amplifiers have been ordered to replace the obsolete ones on the main line. This will boost TV and FM radio reception.

Especially designed tap-offs have also been ordered for homes with color television. These tap-offs are supposed to give a better color picture than is received at present.

Members of the senior class served refreshments after the meeting.

Miss Bonnie Morgan will be installed as Worthy Advisor of the Ione Rainbow Assembly on Sunday, January 29, at 2:30 in the Ione Masonic hall. This will be an open installation.

Grangers are urged to attend a potluck lunch at 12:30 p.m. Sunday, January 22. The regular Pomona meeting will be held at 2:00 p.m., followed by First and Second Degree work. All the Granges in Morrow county have been invited to participate in this work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Portsche of Portland traveled to Ione on Sunday to get their children who have been visiting with their grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Hershal Townsend for the past few weeks.

The Wednesday Pinochle club met at the home of Mrs. John Jepsen last week. Mrs. Oliver Devin was high. Mrs. Bob Harrison held low, and Mrs. Kenneth Howard won the traveling prize. Following cards, the ladies surprised Mrs. Wayne Ball with lovely baby gifts and cards.

Week-end guests at the Harold Sherer home were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Andrew of La Grande.

Topic Club was held this week at the home of Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid. Mrs. Gene Rietmann presented a review of the Broadway play, "Hello Dolly," as the program. Thirteen members and guests answered roll call by naming a current play. Mrs. Roy Lindstrom was assisting hostess.

Leaving by plane Tuesday for San Francisco were Mrs. Fannie Griffith and her daughters, Mrs. Roy Lindstrom and Mrs. Dwight Hauger, Lake Oswego. They are attending to some business of Mrs. Griffith's late brother, Byron Goodall.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crum returned home this week from Seattle, Wn., after attending the National Wheat League convention.

City Officials Are Installed
The City Council met last Tuesday evening. Councilman Don Bristow served as installing officer for the group. Jim Barnett was installed for another year as city mayor. Also re-elected were Bill Rietmann and Ray Boyce as councilmen. Mrs. Ray Boyce will serve again as treasurer, as will Mrs. Howard Crowell as city recorder. Newly-elected Bob Drake was also installed as a councilman.

A dinner party was held at the Tapadera in Pendleton on Saturday, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kincaid on their wedding anniversary and Mrs. Darrel Padberg on her birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Marlatt, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Barnett, and Mr. Padberg also enjoyed the delicious lobster dinner.

Attend Goodall Services
Mrs. Fannie Griffith, Mrs. Roy Lindstrom, and Mr. and Mrs. George Griffith drove to Astoria this week to attend funeral services for Byron Goodall of San Francisco. His interment was beside his wife in Hammond, Oregon. Mrs. Griffith's niece, Mrs. Harold Gaggis of Oscar Island, and a nephew, Alton Turner of Baker returned home with her for a visit.

Friends will be glad to know that Victor Rietmann has returned home from the hospital and is much improved.

Mrs. James Marvin, Mrs. Ernest Christopherson and Miss Rebecca Case attended a Relief Society convention for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on Saturday in Richland, Wn. They returned to Richland again on Monday evening for a Youth Leadership workshop.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Baker and Mrs. Esper Hansen, Portland, have been visiting this past week at the home of the Victor Rietmanns.

Mrs. Herb Peterson was hostess for a Friday the 13th pinochle party in her home last week. In honor of the occasion only low prizes were given. Those receiving prizes were Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom, Mrs. Leland McKinney and Mrs. Keith Rea.

Cemetery Board Sets Resolution

By DONNA EPPENBACH

IRRIGON—The Irrigon Cemetery Maintenance Board held a meeting January 2 and the following resolution was adopted:

"In order that our records can be properly kept, people requesting the Irrigon Cemetery Maintenance Board to hold lots for them for future use, will be required to pay for them at the time of request, either in full, or by a series of regular payments until paid in full.

"If the owner's plans change, he may sell the lot back to the Cemetery Maintenance Board at the purchase price."

Mrs. Donald Leighton was admitted to Emmanuel hospital in Portland last Monday for treatment of back injuries received in a fall in early September.

Frank Shade was rushed to the hospital at Pendleton Sunday morning after an accident at his home. He fell from a tree and has been in serious condition.

Week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Isom were Isom's nephew, Wesley Larson and his father, Oscar Larson of Portland. They were on their way home from a trip to Monument.

A group from the Assembly of God church surprised Mr. and Mrs. Batie Rand with a party in honor of Mrs. Rand's retirement and Mr. Rand's birthday.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Graybeal is Mrs. Graybeal's daughter, Mrs. Meri Pacheco of Los Gatos, Calif.

Mrs. J. A. Shoun is confined at the St. Anthony hospital in Pendleton.

Mrs. Harvey Warner held a party for her Sunday School class of Junior girls. Games were played and refreshments served.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Reeder of Portland were week-end visitors at the home of his mother, Mrs. Ellen Reeder, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart and family.

Steve Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, is home after being discharged from the See Bee's section of the Navy. He was on duty in Viet Nam.

Susan McCoy and Terry McCoy, students at Eastern Oregon College, were home for the week-end. Both attended the Riverside-Umatilla basketball games at Umatilla. Terry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCoy and Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Partlow and Sheryl were the week-end visitors of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Berg and Ronald of Vancouver, Wash. and Mr. Partlow's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Partlow of Hillsboro. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Russell McCoy of Vancouver and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Berry of Portland.

Metsker maps of Morrow, Gilliam, Umatilla, Wheeler counties on sale at the Gazette-Times $1.25 each.

Ione Church Positions Filled for Coming Year

The annual meeting of the Ione United Church of Christ was held Sunday after a potluck luncheon, that was planned by Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen and the Women's Fellowship.

The following people were chosen to fill expired terms in the church. Re-elected were Don Bristow, moderator; Mrs. Bob Rietmann, clerk; Mrs. Alfred Nelson, treasurer, and Kenneth Smouse, finance secretary. Milton Morgan was elected to the position of vice moderator.

Vacancies in the following positions were filled by Fred Martin and Lee Palmer as deacons; Mrs. Marion Palmer and Mrs. Jim Lindsay as deaconesses; Ray Boyce and Pete Cannon on the board of trustees; Mrs. Norman Nelson as church school superintendent; Mrs. Lee Palmer on Board of Christian Education; Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid, Mrs. Paul Pettijohn, and Mrs. Eldon Tucker on music committee; Larry Rietmann and Rollo Crawford on auditing committee, and Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mrs. Markham Baker, council members at large.

Rev. Walter Crowell read his letter of resignation due to his retirement and it was regretfully accepted. The congregation also voted to maintain a 9:30 a.m. worship hour during the summer months.

Boardman Sailor Aboard Kitty Hawk

Seaman Apprentice Alan W. Moore, son of Mr. Rollow E. Moore of Rt. 1, Boardman, has reported for duty aboard the attack aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk, presently in the Gulf of Tonkin, operating off the coast of North Vietnam, according to a release from the Fleet Home Town News Center.

The Kitty Hawk's planes fly daily missions, providing a mobile striking force capable of destroying the enemy's supply and communication lines.

This is the Kitty Hawk's third Vietnam cruise and her fourth Western Pacific cruise since her commissioning in April, 1961. She is homeported in San Diego, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Dalzell returned home Monday evening from a week-end trip to the valley. They visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wally Gaarsland at Eagle Creek, with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Crawford at Albany and at the Tress McClintock home in Monmouth. They were surprised to find that Mrs. McClintock had been in the hospital for a foot injury; that their son, Jay, was just recovering from head injuries received in an airplane accident near Eugene; and that Tress McClintock had just returned home from the Corvallis hospital where he received treatment for a heart attack.

FRIENDS WON'T recognize her, but this is Susan Benson, member of the Bluebirds who visited the Gazette-Times last week. She is talking to her leader, and the photo was taken from the back, revealing the face on the back of her cap. (G-T Photo).

Society Estimates 1967 Cancer Cases

An estimated 20 persons in Morrow county will be treated for cancer in 1967, according to "1967 Cancer Facts and Figures for Oregon," released by the American Cancer Society, Oregon Division, 200 Park Bldg., Portland.

The estimate adds that seven in the county will die from cancer during the year. It is expected that there will be 13 new cases, and that treatment will save four cancer patients from dying. The sheet adds that eventually 1150 in the county will eventually develop cancer and that 690 in the county will die of the malady if the present rate continues.

Throughout Oregon, the estimate is that 8,599 cancer cases will be under medical care during the year, that 3000 will die.

Test Taking Course Offered at BMC

A two-session short course in test taking will be offered January 24 and 25 by Blue Mountain Community College. The program is being sponsored by the College evening division and counseling department to assist persons planning to take civil service and other job placement tests.

The first session will be devoted to pointing out hazards to be avoided in test taking plus techniques and a practice timed test. The second night will be devoted to self analysis and discussions of the questions given in the practice test.

The course is open to the public at no charge. Both sessions will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in Room 7, lower building, on the campus. Further information is available by phoning the evening division, 276-1260.

—Phone 676-9228 for G-T want-ad service.

Group Honored On Birthdays

By MARTHA MATTESON

MONUMENT — The annual January birthday party was held January 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tippet on Radio Road. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Groen, Canyon City; Mr. and Mrs. Rod Mabe, Fossil; Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Harris, Heppner; Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Vinson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gassner, Clarence Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Tippet, Miss Debbie Tippet and Curtis Whaley of Kimberly; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Engle, Cottonwood; Mrs. Hattie Rubenstorf, Jack Sweek, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Croker and Mrs. Martha Matteson, all of Monument.

Cards were in play during the evening, with Mrs. Fred Gassner winning high for ladies; Clarence Holmes, high for men; Mrs. Lonnie Harris, low for ladies, and Lonnie Harris, low for men.

Gifts were exchanged among those having birthdays. Refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hudson took Ted Murdock to John Day hospital where he was entered with pneumonia.

SP/4 Gene E. Hunt spent a few days visiting relatives in Fox and Long Creek. He will leave January 23 for Ft. Lewis where he will depart for 13 months service in Korea.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Shelly and family of Fox spent the week-end at the Jerry Hudson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lewis took their son Darrell to Portland last week for a checkup.

Mrs. H. W. Scott and son Rob-in and Mrs. Elmer Matteson drove to Bend last Tuesday on business. Gene Hunt accompanied them to Prineville to visit two sisters, returning home with Mrs. Scott that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Harris spent the week-end here from Heppner, visiting their folks, the George Capons, and the Tippet family.

WEDDING, PARTY and ANNIVERSARY Napkins with names imprinted; Monogrammed Playing cards; Regency Personalized Note Stationery; Wedding Books. Inquire at

More Fun, Always...

At the TWO Sparkling New Holiday Inns

in SALEM 112 Rooms
745-765 Commercial, S.E.
Phone: (503) 383-2451

in EUGENE 150 Rooms
215 Calvary Road
Phone: (503) 342-9181

BOTH INNS HAVE RESTAURANTS WITH 24-HOUR COFFEE SHOPS

"Well, for goodness sakes . . . I didn't realize you could do this kind of printing"

How many times we've heard this said we have no idea—but it has been umpteen hundred.

As a matter of fact, we are now equipped to lay-out and print almost anything you could possibly want—except money and stamps, of course.

ALL KINDS OF BUSINESS FORMS: including forms up to six or seven copies using NCR (no carbon required) paper.

LETTERHEADS: designed and printed so your correspondence will show your pride in your business. Envelopes printed just like you want them.

STATEMENTS: to fit your particular needs.

CHECKS PRINTED TO FIT YOUR NEEDS: Business cards - wedding, anniversary announcements. You name it—we'll help you design it and print it.

WE ARE DEALERS FOR: Continuous Register Forms - Sales Books - Meter Tickets - and Many Others . . .

Why not give us a call when YOU need some printing—we want and appreciate your business!

The Gazette-Times

Ph. 676-9228

Heppner

Come! Bring Your Friends!

—Everyone is Invited—

Pinochle Card Party

Saturday, February 4

IONE LEGION HALL

7:30 P.M.

Sponsored by Ione American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 95

- Lots of Prizes
- $1.00 Per Person
- Delicious Refreshments

REMEMBER THE DATE—February 4

THIS MESSAGE SPONSORED AS A PUBLIC SERVICE BY

BANK of EASTERN OREGON

IONE BRANCH

Member, Federal Deposit Insurance, Corp.